intervention session:
1. Disseminate at least one fact about self during each activity.
2. Social Interaction.
   d. Make inferences about the relevance of activities.
   c. Identify self-experiences of outcomes.
   b. Identify successful outcomes of activities when self-evaluate.
   a. Make at least one positive comment about self during intervention.
   Specific Objectives:
1. Self-concept:
   a. Long-term goals (within one month):
   b. Short-term goals:
   - 1. Improved self-concept.
      - 2. Improved social interaction.
      - 3. Increased self-esteem.
   c. Leverage report of specified plan.
   d. Leverage report of leisure activities.
   e. Increased self-esteem.
   f. Increased self-concept.

Needs:
1. Self-concept.
2. Improved social interaction.
3. Increased self-esteem.
4. Improved leisure activities.
5. Short-term goals:
   - 1. Long-term goals:

Strengths:
1. Skills are poor in leisure activities.
2. Limited social network.
4. Limited social interaction.
5. Limited self-concept.

Assessment:
IR Care Plan
Figure 4-4 Continued

negotiate the barrier...
General goals: Following a suicide attempt, the client presents with a number of needs. Needs include:

1. Malingering. 2. Malingering and pretending to have delusions.
5. Seeking help for physical issues.
7. Seeking help for depression and suicidal ideation.
8. Seeking help for anger management.
10. Seeking help for insomnia.

Interventions:
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.
- Identify at least one conversion during each session.