A free one hour lecture this fall on Thursdays to stimulate the mind with a diversity of subject matter from a host of experts! All lectures are held at noon in the Chapel off the campus Burton Street entrance.

Thursday, September 4: Fatal Crossing; NW Airlines #2501 Fatal presented by Valarie van Heest

The wreck was never located and the cause of the accident never determined. Valerie van Heest will share how her team set off to find the submerged wreck and solve the mystery of the plane’s disappearance.

Thursday, September 18: Made in the Mitten: Savoring Michigan’s Rich Food & Agricultural History presented by Dianne Stampfler

From cherries and grapes to blueberries and pumpkins, peaches and apples to asparagus and celery. Add to that a growing industry focused on locally-sourced products, and you have a feast just waiting to be devoured.

Thursday, October 2: Biomedical Research and Science Education at Van Andel Institute presented by Steve Triezenberg

VA RI conducts biomedical research in cancer, Parkinson’s disease, and other diseases. VAEI seeks to promote science education from elementary through graduate school.

Thursday, October 9: It’s Great Britain

Monty and Marsha Brown

Thursday, November 13: The Great Canadian Train Ride

Doug Jones

Thursday, October 30: Calvin Stories in the History of Holland, Michigan presented by Bob Swierenga

Holland would be a very different place without the contributions of Calvin alumni who have impacted every part of life along the Lakeshore.

Tuesday, November 11: The Early Music Concert

An ensemble of musicians from Calvin College and the Grand Rapids area dedicated to the performance of early music on historical instruments.
Take a break every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 2:45-3:15 in Hiemenga Hall! Coffee and tea are available between classes to mingle and enjoy fellowship with classmates. We are unable to continue serving cookies with these beverages.

PARKING ON CALVIN CAMPUS

CALL members are considered students; please refrain from parking in lots designated for visitors when you are here for your classes. The green parking permit allows CALL students to park in any of the numbered lots. All yellow parking permits are expired and need to be replaced with the green ones. The small visitor parking lot near the Spoelhof Center and other designated visitor spaces in other lots must remain open for visitors. Thank you CALL STUDENTS!
Extended Trips

Descriptive brochures for all of the following travel opportunities are available on the CALL and Calvin College websites.

Pacific Northwest Tour: (John Apol, Sept. 20-29, 2014): Deadline is past for this tour. Look for a report and pictures in a future edition of CALL News.

A Pilgrimage to Israel—In the Light of Jesus:
(Bill and Lyn Vandenbosch, March 9-21, 2015): This trip is sold-out! If you are interested to be on a “wait list” or get information on a future Israel trip, email: william.vandenbosch@gmail.com

Norway and Sweden: (Debra Freeberg, June 16-26, 2015): Come and experience the art, architecture and daily life of Stockholm, the enchanted capital of Sweden, the fascinating Swedish countryside, Carl Larsson’s home, the spectacular Norwegian fjords, Bergen and the music of Edvard Grieg!

Our adventure begins with several days in Stockholm where we’ll enjoy visits to the former home of sculptor Carl Milles, the Great Church, the Royal Palace, the Town Hall, Drottningholm palace, theatre and gardens and a dinner cruise on Lake Mälaren. During our stay in Stockholm, we’ll join the people of nearby Tyresö as they celebrate Midsummer’s Eve, one of the most important and fun events on the Swedish calendar. Later, we’ll travel north to visit Sundborn where artists Carl and Karin Larssen once lived and worked. After an overnight near Lake Siljan, we’ll head into Norway.

Of course, we’ll see the Olympic sites in Lillehammer. Then it’s on to the breathtaking fjords. Our time in this region is highlighted by a ride on the famed Flåm railway. Our last stop will be Bergen, a beautiful coastal city steeped in history. Sightseeing here includes the colorful harbor district and Edvard Grieg’s Country estate.

Leadership for the tour will be provided by Dr. Debra L. Freeberg, a professor of Communication Arts and Sciences at Calvin. Of Swedish descent, Debra is passionate about the literature, theatre and folk ways of her ancestral country. We’ll also benefit from all the “insider information” she picked up on extended visits to Stockholm and other parts of Sweden. Debra’s cousin Lena Cederlöf and her husband Arne will arrange an authentic Midsummer’s Eve picnic for us in their hometown of Tyresö. They’ll also be with us on our dinner cruise and they’ll be happy to talk with us about all things Swedish.

The full trip brochure is available at the CALL and Calvin alumni offices. To ask more questions or learn more, call Whitney Korstange 616-954-9676 or (toll-free) 855-954-9676 or email her at whitneyk@wittetravel.com

Freedom Tour of South Africa:
(John Apol, Sept. 9-21, 2015). Focusing on the life and works of Nelson Mandela, learn about the political changes that occurred within South Africa, with the end of apartheid. This tour will take us to Johannesburg and Cape Town, on game drives in Addo Elephant National Park, along the Garden Route (a road famous for its beauty and biodiversity), and through a country with constantly changing landscapes, many races, cultures and languages.

Your host will be John Apol, a CALL member, a Calvin alumnus and frequent traveler to South Africa. He has led four student interim tours and the 2012 CALL and CCAA South Africa tour. For more information about the tour, contact John at johnapo107@gmail.com or 616-243-8600.
Saturday, September 27, 7:00 am
A Dutch Festival at Elim

Enjoy a day with the “Dutch” on the campus of Elim Christian Services. The day will begin with a parade and opening ceremonies. Special groups will be providing entertainment throughout the day. The Dutch Village will feature Bloemen (flowers), Geschenken (gifts), Delft (Dutch pottery and decor), Bakkerji (bakery), Farmer’s Market and many more Dutch specialties. Special foods for your enjoyment are Banket, Hutspot (beef and potatoes), Oliebollen, Rodekool (red cabbage), Saucijzebroodjes (pigs-in-the-blanket) and Erwtensoep (pea soup).

Enjoy the color, festivities, good food, entertainment and shopping in a Dutch atmosphere on the beautiful Elim campus. A special feature will be a guided tour of Elim for our group. Coffee and rolls on our way to Chicago.

Cost - $49.00

Monday, October 6
ArtPrize Tour of G.R

Join us for an exciting day for our 4th Annual event. We will start the day at Calvin at 9:00 A.M. and return at approximately 4:00 P.M.

Several venues will be visited including the top 10 announced the previous weekend. Coffee, donuts, and a delicious lunch will round out our day. Cost for the day: $65. Questions call Glenda or Carl Welmers 243-6431

Wednesday and Thursday, October 15 and 16
CALL Fall retreat at “The Shack”

“The Shack” a country bed and breakfast nestled on 100 acres of woods on the lovely Robinson Lake will be the location of our fall retreat. Rev. John DeVries will be our speaker.

Opportunity will be given for excellent presentations, challenging learning, great fellowship, good food, games, hiking, sitting on a covered porch or relaxing by the lake. At night we will enjoy the famous “Banana Splits” served at “The Shack.”

$89.00 includes speaker, lodging, dinner, breakfast, lunch and all activities.

Friday, October 24
Cell Block 7 and the Ella Sharp Museum

The Cell Block 7 museum is a new and unique site located within an active working prison system. Cell Block 7, in the Jackson, Michigan penitentiary, is a representation of life as an incarcerated inmate at what was once the largest prison in the world. We will receive an overview of operations and exhibits followed by a self guided tour exploring all areas of the cell block. The tour will be very interesting and informative.

After lunch at the Knight’s Steak House and Grill, we will visit the Ella Sharp Museum. At the Ella Sharp museum we will enjoy the tour of the elegantly furnished 19th century farmhouse and experience the Dibble one-room farmhouse, Eli Stilson’s log house and the Merriman-Sharp Tower Barn. There are six galleries that feature exhibits of art and other interesting collections.

Cost is $65.00. This includes deluxe bus, all admission costs and lunch.

Upcoming event - May 12, 2015

The popular Purdue Varsity Men’s Glee Club. Watch for further announcements.
