A WEEK IN PARIS
Thursday, February 8, 2018

Marlin Darrah: There is no denying the allure and romance of the City of Light. Flamboyant and mysterious, Gothic and modern, refined and bawdy – Paris is all of these, with room for both grandeur and coziness. It’s a city imbued with history, a center of art and culture. But it’s also a city of gardens and cafes where people-watching is the raison d’etre. Our travels will feast on architectural splendors, the finest museums and small delights around every corner. Outside Paris, in the nearby Loire River Valley, our journey meanders through several glorious chateaus, with their meticulously designed and manicured gardens and courtyards. First-time viewers and seasoned travelers alike will enjoy this high-definition voyage.

GUATEMALA: THE LAND OF THE MAYA
Monday, April 16, 2018

Brent Winebrenner: Guatemala is a land of amazing natural and cultural diversity that is just beginning to emerge from the shadow of a long civil war. A high-definition and beautiful travelogue, this film begins by exploring the achievements of the ancient Maya by visiting fabled places like El Mirador, Tikal and Yaxha. The film examines the historic tension between Mayan traditions and Spanish colonialism, using the religious pageantry of Antigua’s Easter Week celebration to provide a cinematic backdrop for the fascinating conversation. An excursion to Lake Atitlan portrays Mayan culture where weavers spin cotton by hand and rely on the natural dyes and back strap looms to create world-class textiles. This documentary provides important context for understanding and exploring the fascinating Land of the Maya.

Ryan Pyle: For 54 days, Ryan and Colin Pyle travel 14,000 km by motorcycle around the entire country of India on some of the most dangerous roads in the world. This journey along the Indian coast traverses deserts in almost unbearable heat and mountains during torrential rainstorms. Visiting some remarkable places—the magnificent Golden Temple at Amritsar, the perplexing Karri Mata Temple at Deshnok and the site of Buddha’s enlightenment at Bodh Gaya—offers some relief from the constant dangers of the road. Inspired by the amazing people they meet along the way, they learn that almost nothing in India is what you expected. Although the brothers will not appear in person, a local expert on India will provide details on the country that add depth to this film viewing.

Dennis Burkhart: They are breathtaking...our National Parks. They are our sanctuaries full of timeless marvels that still rejuvenate the soul. Trace the sun’s course, from the first hushed moments of dawn to dusk’s final glow. The sun illuminates Voyageurs in Minnesota, The Grand Tetons, Yellowstone, Canyonlands in Utah, The Grand Canyon, Crater Lake in Oregon, Mount Rainier, Yosemite, Saguaro in Arizona, Olympic in Washington and the Haleakala and Hawaii Volcanoes in the Hawaiian Islands, to name a few. No two vistas are alike in this stunning program, but every park has one thing in common: each of them is a living symbol of the untamed American spirit.
