Robot Work Flow

Parts Operator sends a command to retrieve an item from the shelf.

Robot proceeds to the shelf where the item is stored.

Elevator moves to the correct shelf level of the item.

The arm extends to reach the item.

Vacuum is applied, the arm secures the item, then pulls it onto the shelf.

The arm pushes the item off the plate, and delivers it to the parts desk.