The bridge was designed not only as an effective way to cross Whisky Creek, but also to be a local landmark. For this reason, the sides and deck of the bridge were designed to be finished cedar.

The bridge is capable of carrying a 188 pound per square foot live load. This accounts for a heavy duty motorized wheelchair, including passenger and snow load.