

English Department
Honors Project Proposal
Due: The First Friday of Classes in September, Senior Year

Name

Date

Email

Phone

Timeline: (indicate meetings with advisors and timeline for completing the project)

Signature of Primary Reader:

Signature of Secondary Reader:

On additional pages, include

- a 500-750-word essay about the Honors Project, which should include
 - the proposed argumentative thesis OR outline of the creative project;
 - a discussion of the critical, theoretical, or artistic approaches of the project;
 - and an explanation of the influential critics or writers whose work you will engage.
- an annotated bibliography, formatted in MLA style, of 10-12 sources; each 200-400 word annotation should summarize the argument of an essay, chapter, or book as it relates to the thesis and note its significance to the project as whole.