

Joseph and June Minnaar Awards for Writing in Written Rhetoric

Students:

To enter an essay for the Joseph and June Minnaar Awards for Writing in Written Rhetoric, complete this form and submit it with your essay during the semester that you are a student in English 100, 101, or 102. Turn in all items to the Director of Written Rhetoric on or before the following deadlines:

Fall semester deadline: November 30      Spring semester deadline: April 24

- One clean copy of the essay with no identifying information (no student name, instructor name, section letter, etc.). Please use a paper clip—do not staple pages.
- A one-paragraph description of the essay assignment and your process for completing the assignment and a one-paragraph description of the revision process that you followed in preparing the essay for the Minnaar Awards (include those with whom you collaborated and a note regarding the topics you addressed with each).
- This Minnaar Award application form.

Student Name: _____

Local address: _____

Permanent address: _____

Phone: _____ Preferred email: _____

Circle one: 100 101 102    Section: _____ Semester: _____

Name of Written Rhetoric Professor: _____

Title of essay: _____

Circle one category:    Short essay    Research essay

Student: Please read and sign.

I hereby affirm that this essay is my own work (in appropriate collaboration with others) and that I originally wrote this essay in response to a Written Rhetoric assignment at Calvin College.

Signature: _____

Written Rhetoric Professor: Please read and sign.

I hereby confirm that I received this essay as a response to an assignment in my Written Rhetoric course this semester.

Signature: _____