

Jonathan Hirte

Jonathan Hirte an '08 graduate majored in political science with a concentration in Public Administration and a major in Communication Arts & Science is working in Washington, D.C. as legislative correspondent for Congressman Vern Ehlers.

Hirte was a part of Calvin's Semester in Washington, D.C. at which time he interned for Congress Paul Ryan's office. Hirte says, "Interning prepared me for the office setting I now work in, and having that experience probably helped me get hired."

On a day to day basis Hirte is responsible for coordinating the thousands of letter, emails, phone calls, and faxes from the constituent. He makes sure all correspondence has a reply as soon as possible from Congressman Ehlers.

This information was taken from an article done on Jonathan Hirte in the Spring 2009 issue of the "Politeia".
