

FOX FUND APPLICATION FORM
Supplemental Travel Grants for Students With Financial Needs

This scholarship was established in 2004 by the Political Science Department from funds donated by Rev. Joseph D. and Mrs. Barbara D. Fox to honor their son Ben Fox.

- A. This fund is for transportation or related travel expenses to departmentally-sanctioned purposes, normally either for participation in Model United Nations or in a State/Local Internship.
- B. Current Calvin Political Science majors or minors who are planning to enroll fulltime in the year the funds will be used may apply by completing a one-page application form, available from the Department Office or the Department web site.
- C. A demonstrated financial need is required.
- D. A maximum of $100 is given to eligible students in any given academic year but students may apply in more than one year. Normally one travel grant is offered each semester.
