Entrada Parent/Guardian Partner Agreement

The Entrada program is designed to prepare students for a Christian college learning experience within a supervised, independent living environment. To help towards this goal and to honor the integrity of the program, we request parent and student compliance with the following program expectations:

1. Full Participation—Entrada Scholars are required to participate in the program in its entirety, which includes evening and weekend activities. Students are not permitted to attend weddings, family reunions, or other non-Entrada activities during Entrada. Students must remain with the Entrada Program for the dates of June 19 to July 15.
2. No Visitors—Entrada is designed for group living and learning. Visitors are not allowed during the normal course of the program. Family and friends are encouraged to attend Orientation on Sunday, June 19, and Graduation on Friday, July 15.

By signing this agreement, I _____ indicate my agreement to adhere to the expectations listed above.
