

Broene Counseling Center

700 students were seen in 2005—16.8% of the Calvin student body. This percentage is high and reflects a challenge and an opportunity for the Broene staff. Students are the primary referral source for other students. Office visits have increased annually for the last four to five years.