The Fine Arts

Many sorts of fine arts activities thrive at Calvin, both as part of the academic life and as the result of spontaneous student interest. Bands, orchestras, choral groups, and chamber ensembles are part of the program of the Department of Communication Arts and Sciences. Students from all departments participate. The long, Calvin tradition of creative writing for publication and for private reading is encouraged by the members of the Department of English. Dialogue, a student literary magazine, and Chimes, the campus newspaper, provide opportunities for student publication.

The Department of Art seeks to arouse interest in the various visual arts. It sponsors workshops, visiting artists, and speakers. Regular educational exhibitions in the Center Art Gallery and a visible permanent art collection provide visual stimulation, aesthetic quality, and an enhancement of the total Calvin environment through the celebration of a rich cultural heritage and support of the art activities of students, faculty, alumni, and other Christians. The student-organized Fine Arts Guild and its subguilds in Dance, Visual Arts, Music, and Writing provide independent expression and dialogue regarding the arts among all the students.

Intercollegiate and Intramural Athletics and Recreation

Intercollegiate athletics play an important role in student life at Calvin. Calvin is a member of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). Calvin men compete in cross-country, golf, basketball, soccer, swimming, baseball, track, and tennis. Calvin women compete in cross-country, golf, volleyball, basketball, swimming, track, softball, tennis, and soccer. We also have club teams in men's hockey, volleyball, and men's and women's lacrosse. To be eligible to participate in intercollegiate athletics, a student-athlete must be enrolled in a minimum of 12 semester hours each semester, be in academic and disciplinary good standing, and be making normal progress toward graduation. Academic good standing is defined in the table and notes found on page 28 of this catalog and the disciplinary standards are listed in the Student Handbook. Students on disciplinary probation are ineligible to participate in intercollegiate athletics. For the purposes of athletic eligibility, normal progress toward a degree is defined as accumulating at least 12 semester hours of credit each semester plus the completion of 3 interim courses in a 4-year program.

Intramurals are also an important phase of the physical education program and provide all students with the opportunity to participate throughout the year in a variety of programs.

Both indoor and outdoor facilities are available for recreation whenever classes or scheduled contests are not being conducted.

Student Senate and Other Organizations

The Student Senate serves as an advocate for student issues. It also allocates the budget of student organizations and concerns itself with student publications, homecoming, film arts, the campus radio station, and similar groups.

Nearly forty-five student organizations exist on campus, some of which are related to particular academic departments. All organized clubs have a faculty advisor and receive formal approval through the Student Life Committee.

Student Conduct

Admission to Calvin College is a privilege that may be withdrawn from any student who does not meet the academic and conduct standards of the college. In addition, the college not only expects students to conduct themselves both on and off campus in accord with the Christian goals and standards of the college, but also may refuse admission to, may discipline, may suspend, or may expel any student who, in its judgment, displays conduct or attitudes, whether on or off campus, unworthy of the standards of the college. The Student Handbook and Residence Hall Living booklets describe the regulations and their implementation.

The Discipline Code, approved by the Faculty, the Student Senate, and the Board of Trustees, is the official document, which spells out college regulations and judicial processes. A copy of this code, included in the Student Handbook, is also available at the Student Life Office.

While the Code does not seek to develop a detailed and exhaustive summary of what a student may or may not do, it does contain, in addition to Christian principles of behavior, a list of proscribed conduct for so long as a student is enrolled at Calvin College. Among those actions are all kinds of dishonesty, acts of violence, disruption of institutional activities, theft, unauthorized entry, sexual misconduct or harassment, use of alcoholic beverages on and off campus and at extended campus events, drunkenness, profane and obscene language, and use of illegal substances. Sanctions for misconduct range from verbal warning to expulsion.

The judicial processes require a hearing before the designated college administrators or before the Student Discipline Committee. Students are guaranteed a right to testify, to examine evidence, and to have a student or faculty member advise them at the hearings. The judicial process provides for appeal to higher judicial bodies.

Student Protest and Appeals Procedure

At Calvin College the goal to become a model Christian academic community should direct the attempts to resolve conflicts, which may occur between students and faculty members. We would expect that members will all 'accept one another' (Romans 15:7) and that student protest and appeal will occur infrequently and only over matters of significance to the calling as Christian faculty members. Moreover the process of protest should be one which should lead to restoration of Christian community in which the members are affirmed and express love for one another.

1. On occasion, a student may have criticism of a professor for which he or she requests some action. Criticisms may regard the requirements of a course, the nature of a test, a grade received, teaching effectiveness, personal life-style, general performance, or sanctions given for academic dishonesty. The student should present such criticism directly to the faculty member. The student criticism should be heard and given serious attention by the faculty member.
2. If the faculty member's response does not satisfy the student, or if the student, for good reason, does not feel free to approach the faculty member, the student should bring the criticism to the department chairman or the academic dean. The chairman or the academic dean should work for resolution.
3. If the student or faculty member does not accept the advice of the chairman or academic dean, the academic dean will suggest one of the following procedures:
 - a. If the complaint regards a sanction given by a faculty member for academic dishonesty, the student must follow the procedure outlined in 'The Student Conduct Code and Disciplinary Procedures' found in Section 4.2.8 of the Faculty Handbook.
 - b. If the protest is on matters other than sanctions given by a faculty member for academic dishonesty, the academic dean will refer the issue to an ad hoc committee of two faculty members, a student, and the academic dean. The ad hoc committee should hear the student protest and hear the professor's response, as well as collect appropriate material evidence. The student, if he or she so chooses, may ask a student, faculty member, or a Student Life Division dean to give counsel at this hearing. The committee should work for resolution of the differences and prepare a written recommendation to the provost, a copy of which will be sent to the student and faculty member.

4. The decision of the ad hoc committee may be appealed to the provost by either the student or the faculty member. In cases where the student protest involves the academic standards, i.e., course requirements or grades, the decision may be appealed to the Academic Standards Committee. Cases, where the protest involves teaching effectiveness, professional standards, religious commitment, or personal life-style may be appealed to the Professional Status Committee.
5. The report of either of these committees will be advisory to the provost, who will prepare a recommendation for the president.
6. Further appeals by the student or faculty member would be to the president and by way of the president to the board of trustees. Correspondence addressed to a member of the board of trustees should be sent to the Board of Trustees office, Spoelhof Center. Such correspondence is routinely opened by a member of the board staff and forwarded to the person to whom it is addressed and to the president. If the correspondence is marked 'confidential', it will be forwarded unopened to the trustee to whom it is addressed.
7. Students who wish to appeal a decision of another nature should contact the registrar or vice president for student life to determine the appropriate process.

Use of Motor Vehicles

Motor vehicles owned or operated by Calvin students must be properly registered with the Campus Safety Department and must carry an official college vehicle permit. Motor vehicles may be parked only in approved student parking areas, and the drivers will be fined if they park elsewhere. Because parking areas are limited, parking regulations are strictly enforced. The driving regulations and requirements of the Michigan Motor Vehicle Code apply to all driving when on the campus.

Orientation and Advising

All first-year students are required to participate in Passport, a program of orientation held during the summer and/or just prior to Quest, the fall orientation program. Throughout orientation, students will meet key faculty members and administrators, receive information about college academics, activities and facilities, obtain registration materials, and meet with a faculty advisor to plan for the fall semester. Transfer student orientation takes place during a special Passport session, one day in August, or just prior to the beginning of the fall semester. All students are assigned individual advisors from the faculty. These faculty members keep office hours during which time they are available to assist students in making decisions about courses and programs.

Students are expected to assume responsibility for obtaining academic advising. They must keep themselves informed about curriculum requirements, both in the core curriculum and in their programs of interest; they are expected to initiate conferences with their advisors and to come prepared with up-to-date information about the courses they have completed; and they must be aware of academic deadlines and regulations.

By the end of the sophomore year, each student must work out with a faculty advisor the declaration of a major. The associate registrar for advising and other staff in the registrar's office are available to help students with advising problems.

Additional specialized advising is offered through Student Academic Services. The Broene Counseling Center offers career testing and counseling for helping students to select a major and/or career.

Hekman Library

Calvin's Hekman Library is one of the finest libraries in West Michigan. Its collection consists of nearly one million items (books, journals, microforms, government documents, recordings, etc.) available to students more than 100 hours a week. Its large, growing, digital library (www.calvin.edu/library/) includes nearly ninety subject-specific databases that access journal articles and millions of full-text articles. A friendly, professional public service staff is eager to assist students and is readily available at posts just inside the main entrance on the second floor. The quiet, comfortable environment provides great places to study with ample carrels, tables, and lounge furniture. It is just one floor away from more than 200 computers in the Information Technology Center, providing seamless access to research material and the tools needed to complete assignments.

Several special collections are housed in the library. The H. H. Meeter Calvinism Research Collection, located on the fourth floor of the library, is one of the most extensive collections of books and articles on John Calvin and Calvinism available anywhere. The Colonial Origins Collection, which consists of manuscripts, archives, and other records of the Christian Reformed Church, its leaders, its Dutch origins, and closely related institutions, is located on the second floor of the library. The Calvin Library is a partial depository of government documents, holding approximately 125,000 items. Cayvan Services with its many recordings and tapes is available for both the study and enjoyment of music.

Information Technology

Calvin Information Technology (CIT) provides computing, printing, and telecommunication services to students, faculty, administrators, and staff of the college. Our vision is to promote and support information technologies at Calvin College that are appropriate to the academic and administrative needs of the college. The CIT offices, the Information Technology Center (the main student computer lab), and the Instructional Technology Exploration Center (ITEC), are located on the first floor of the Hekman Library.

The Instructional Technology Exploration Center (ITEC) provides faculty a place where they can make use of high-end hardware, software, reference materials, and consulting services as they develop digital media to support their teaching or research.

The Information Technology Center (ITC) is available to all students, faculty, and staff showing a current Calvin-ID. This lab offers Windows and Macintosh computers attached to the college network and the internet, several computer classrooms, multimedia and multi-user stations, zip drives, cd burners, scanners, and laser and color printing. There are other student computer labs on campus located in residence halls, as well as many department-specific labs. Most student labs provide access to MS Office, student email, library research tools, software for web browsing and web development, and a wide variety of academic software.

Calvin provides each student with an email account. This account remains active for all registered students until graduation. Access to the Internet and email is available from all lab computers and many stand-up infoXpress stations around campus.

Students residing in Calvin residence halls may be part of the Residential Network (ResNet), for a small fee each semester. ResNet allows students Internet and email access from their rooms. Trained personnel are available to answer ResNet connection questions. For more information on ResNet, please see www.calvin.edu/it/ic/resnet.

Questions regarding computers on campus may be directed to the CIT Helpdesk at 957-8555. Additional information about computer services can be found by visiting the CIT web site at www.calvin.edu/it/.
