Miller Student Research Fellowship Mr. Eugene and Mrs. Lois Miller are continuing to fund this fellowship, which was originally established by the McGregor Fund in Detroit, of which Gene Miller is a trustee. Preference will be given to candidates who have attended the Cornerstone Program in Detroit, MI, Cranbrook Upper Schools, or Horizons Upward Bound Program at Cranbrook Schools.

Student Research Fellowship in the Humanities and Social Sciences Mr. Max and Mrs. Carol Van Wyk have established this fellowship to provide a student majoring in the humanities or social sciences an opportunity to work alongside a faculty member during the summer on a current research project. It is their hope that both students and faculty will gain valuable experience as partners in meaningful research on prospects of significance in the humanities and social sciences.

Jubilee Fellowships

Dan and Gertrude Vos Jubilee Fellowship

Mr. Dan and Mrs. Gertrude Vos have always had a deep love for the church and the seminary. To help meet the needs of the church, the Voses are interested in encouraging young people to pursue seminary training so that they can bring the voice of Christ to a wider world. They look forward to seeing the Jubilee Fellows Program stimulate and challenge students to pursue careers in the ministry. Candidates should be a junior or a senior planning to attend Calvin Theological Seminary.

Westerbeek Family Jubilee Fellowship

Mr. Jack and Mrs. Nita Westerbeek and their family have been faithful supporters of programs involving evangelism and outreach. They look forward to seeing this Jubilee Fellowship Program stimulate and challenge Calvin College students to pursue careers in the ministry.

Isaac and Betty Williamson Jubilee Fellowship

Mr. Isaac and Mrs. Betty Williamson made provision for Calvin College in their estate plans. Their wishes were for these funds to be used in support of students who will bring the Gospel to those who have not yet heard or accepted it. To that end Calvin College has established the Isaac and Betty Williamson Jubilee Fellowship to assist students whose career intentions are in the area of ministry and missions.

Other Student Awards

Beets Calvinism Award The late Dr. and Mrs. Henry Beets established a fund, the income from which is used to award a $250 first prize and a $150 second prize for the best research papers on annually specified themes in Calvinism studies, written by Calvin students. The prize or prizes are awarded at the discretion of the Department of Religion.

Henry Beets Mission Society Scholarship

The Henry Beets Mission Society of the La Grave Avenue Christian Reformed Church provides an annual grant to promote the ministry of the Church to the American Indian. Initial funds for this grant were given by the Herrick Foundation of Detroit, Michigan. Those eligible are American Indians who intend, preferably, to minister as pastors or teachers to members of their own race. The amount of the grant is determined by the need of the student. The student should consult with the registrar to plan a program. Candidates should apply in writing to the Henry Beets Mission Society, La Grave Avenue Christian Reformed Church, 107 La Grave Avenue, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49503.

Beversluis Awards in Christian Philosophy of Education

From income generated by a grant of money given by a retired professor of educational philosophy and his wife, two awards of approximately $250 each are offered each year by the Education Department to students nominated by their professors for outstanding interest and competence in keeping good theorizing about Christian education connected to good practice in Christian education. Criteria include a grade point average of 3.50 or higher, significant initiative and contributions in classroom discussions, and outstanding written work in papers and tests.

Paul Boonstra Memorial Award

Each year the Department of Mathematics and Statistics makes an award in memory of Professor Paul Boonstra who taught mathematics education at Calvin from 1965 through 1987. The prize is awarded to a graduating senior specializing in mathematics education at the secondary level. The recipient is selected on the basis of performance in mathematics courses and in directed teaching. The award represents the income from a fund established by students and colleagues of Professor Boonstra.

O. K. Bouwsma Memorial Award in Philosophy Through the generosity of the widow of Professor O.K. Bouwsma and other benefactors, an annual prize of $250 will be awarded to one upper-class student for distinguished achievement in philosophy and promise of future contribution to Christian scholarship. The Philosophy Department selects the recipient on the basis of submitted papers.

Calvin Alumni Chapter Scholarships Several Alumni Association chapters offer scholarships, which are administered locally, some to incoming Calvin first-year students and others to returning students. Candidates should consult the Alumni and Public Relations Office or a member of the local Alumni Association chapter for information.

Calvin Latin Award The Department of Classical Languages has received donations from alumni David Noe' and Marianne Graff to begin a yearly award to the outstanding student of Latin language and literature at Calvin. The winner is selected by the members of the Classical Languages Department and receives recognition on a plaque as well as a prize book. All current students of Latin are eligible for this award.

Geology/Geography Outstanding Graduating Senior Award Departmental awards are presented each year to the outstanding graduating senior with a major in Geology and/or the senior with a major in Geography. The recipient is selected by the departmental faculty.

Dr. Roger A. and Bradley Hoekstra 'Toward Christian Excellence in Medicine' Award Roger A. Hoekstra, M.D., an alumnus and supporter of Calvin, and his son, Bradley J., an outstanding sophomore premedical student at Calvin, were tragically killed in an airplane accident in July 1981. In their memory, the Hoekstra family has established a scholarship fund, a part of whose income is used for an annual award to an outstanding senior premedical student. The award consists of a cash gift and an appropriate commemorative plaque. The candidate for the award will be nominated and selected by a faculty committee. The candidate must be a graduating senior who has completed more than two years of undergraduate work at Calvin and has been accepted into an accredited medical school. The award will be based on academic excellence, strength of Christian character, and potential for excellence and Christian service in the practice of medicine.

Dr. Peter D. Hoekstra Memorial Award Dr. Robert G. Andree and Mrs. Katherine Schuringa Andree have established a prize of $1,000 to be awarded annually to an outstanding senior graduating with a major in history. The award is made in memory of the late Dr. Peter D. Hoekstra, a former professor of history at Calvin. Selection is made by the faculty of the History Department on the basis of academic excellence. The recipient must have completed at least two years of undergraduate work at Calvin.

Harmon D. Hook Memorial Award in English An award of $300 is offered each spring to an English major who has indicated a serious interest in English or American language and literature and whose work in the discipline gives evidence of personal enrichment and promise of future service. To be considered, a student should have demonstrated not only academic competence but also such qualities as an interest in humane letters and a Christian concern for cultural and spiritual growth through literature. The English Department selects the person to receive the award.

Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) Outstanding Accounting Student Award The local chapter of the IMA annually recognizes the top accounting student at Calvin, based on a recommendation by the instructors in accounting. The student should intend to pursue a career in accounting.

Rinck Memorial Prize A fund has been established by former students and friends as a memorial to William Rinck, professor of mathematics at Calvin from 1905 to 1920. The income of this fund is devoted to an award for outstanding work in mathematics. The prize is awarded annually to a senior student majoring in mathematics who has, in the opinion of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics, done superior work in undergraduate mathematics.

Templeton Student Award in Psychology The John Templeton Foundation has given a Science and Religion Course Award to support the teaching of Psychology 399, Psychology and Religion, the upper-level integration course in psychology. From this endowment, a cash award may be given to psychology majors who write excellent course papers in fulfillment of the requirements of this course each time the course is taught.
