Classical Languages Department

Ernest Van Vugt Scholarship Established by his family and friends in memory of Ernest Van Vugt, former professor of Latin and Registrar of the college, this scholarship is awarded annually to a student entering the junior or senior year, with a grade point average of at least 3.30, and pursuing a Classics major or who has special interest in the Classics. Candidates for this award will be nominated and selected by the Classics Department. The purpose of the scholarship is to recognize and support advanced students in the classical languages, to encourage recipients to pursue careers in this field, and to celebrate Ernest Van Vugt's great contribution to classical studies at Calvin. One scholarship of $1,500 was awarded for 2005-2006.

Richard and Sylvia Wevers Scholarship This scholarship was established by Richard and Sylvia Wevers because they are convinced of the need for vigorous theological training of students preparing for the Christian ministry and of the central place of Biblical textual studies for doing sound theology. In the course of his 35-year career as a professor of classics where he helped to train countless pre-seminarians in Greek, Richard Wevers and his wife Sylvia both developed the conviction that early and thorough study of the Greek language is indispensable for effective textual study of the Bible and that the benefits of understanding the culture, ideals, and history of the world in which the Septuagint was disseminated and the New Testament was written are invaluable. Accordingly, this scholarship aims to assist, honor, and encourage a senior student who is majoring in one of the programs of the Classics Department which entails the study of Greek, who is seriously committed to the Christian ministry in the Christian Reformed Church, and who intends to receive training for that ministry at Calvin Theological Seminary. The candidate must be current Calvin student entering the senior year with a cumulative grade point average of 3.30 or higher. Financial need is not required.

Communication Arts & Sciences Department

Ervina Boeveé Scholarship for Theater Arts Through the generosity of former students and friends, this scholarship honors Mrs. Ervina Boeveé for her contribution to the theater and the college while serving as Director of Thespians. Each year a scholarship of at least $2,200, to be applied toward tuition, will be awarded by the Department of Communication Arts and Sciences to a junior speech major with a theater arts concentration. Recipients are chosen on the basis of academic record and proven ability and dedication in performance, production, or scholarly research in theater.

Calvin Media Scholarship Norman and Crystal Unema have established this scholarship, which is awarded to a student entering the junior or senior year and planning on a career in journalism, radio, or television broadcasting. Candidates for this award will be nominated and selected by the CAS Department. In 2005-2006, two scholarships of $1,900 were awarded.

CAS Department Mentoring Scholarship The Communication Arts and Sciences Department at Calvin established this scholarship in an effort to recruit excellent freshmen to Calvin. The program is funded by gifts from the CAS faculty and other contributions. Ordinarily the award will apply to just the freshman year, but may be renewable if the situation warrants. The recipient of the award will work closely with a faculty member for at least 5 hours weekly as a research assistant for the academic year. The department will look for applicants with the promise of becoming communication educators or industry leaders. The award will be both a financial and professional incentive to attract to Calvin the very best students who might otherwise go elsewhere. No separate application is required.

David J. Holquist Scholarship This scholarship is given annually in honor of a former Calvin professor of Communication
