

to an outstanding senior graduating with a major in history. The award is made in memory of the late Dr. Peter D. Hoekstra, a former professor of history at Calvin. Selection is made by the faculty of the History Department on the basis of academic excellence. The recipient must have completed at least two years of undergraduate work at Calvin.

Harmon D. Hook Memorial Award in English An award of $300 is offered each spring to an English major who has indicated a serious interest in English or American language and literature and whose work in the discipline gives evidence of personal enrichment and promise of future service. To be considered, a student should have demonstrated not only academic competence but also such qualities as an interest in humane letters and a Christian concern for cultural and spiritual growth through literature. The English Department selects the person to receive the award.

Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) Outstanding Accounting Student Award The local chapter of the IMA annually recognizes the top accounting student at Calvin, based on a recommendation by the instructors in accounting. The student should intend to pursue a career in accounting.

Rinck Memorial Prize A fund has been established by former students and friends as a memorial to William Rinck, professor of mathematics at Calvin from 1905 to 1920. The income of this fund is devoted to an award for outstanding work in mathematics. The prize is awarded annually to a senior student majoring in mathematics who has, in the opinion of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics, done superior work in undergraduate mathematics.

Templeton Student Award in Psychology The John Templeton Foundation has given a Science and Religion Course Award to support the teaching of Psychology 399, Psychology and Religion, the upper-level integration course in psychology. From this endowment, a cash award may be given to psychology majors who write excellent course papers in fulfillment of the requirements of this course each time the course is taught.

Bernard J. TenBroek 'Excellence in Biology in Research' Award At the time of his retirement from teaching, the Biology Department established the TenBroek Award fund. This award is given to a student completing the senior year of study who has declared a major in biology and has completed at least three of these years at Calvin. The recipient must have demonstrated ability to do investigative work in the biological sciences and be completing application for graduate studies.

Bernard J. TenBroek 'Excellence in Biology in Secondary Education' Award At the time of his retirement from teaching, the Biology Department established the TenBroek Award fund. This award is given to a student completing the senior year of study who has declared a major in biology and has fulfilled the requirements for certification in secondary education. The student must have completed at least three years of study at Calvin to be eligible for this award.

Vander Ark Distinguished Teacher Education Student Award The Vander Ark family, known for the number of family members who have served as teachers and administrators, sponsors annually an award by the Education Department to outstanding student teachers who are nominated by their instructors for superior performance in student teaching and course work. The awards will be announced by May 1 of each year.

Zondervan Greek Award The Zondervan Corporation has established a yearly award for the outstanding student of ancient Greek language and literature at Calvin. The winner is selected by members of the Classical Languages Department and receives recognition on a plaque as well as books and other materials from Zondervan; names of winners are also listed on Zondervan's website. All current students of Greek are eligible for consideration of this award.

Summer Fellowships

Summer fellowships in the natural sciences and in the social sciences and humanities give students an opportunity to work alongside faculty for ten weeks on current research projects. They receive hands-on experience performing original research and working on a significant problem which requires observational, creative, analytical, and synthetic thinking. A faculty member provides personal mentoring. At the completion of the project, students may present their findings in poster sessions and professional meetings or co-author a scientific paper in a professional journal.

The Jubilee Fellowship Program is designed for twelve promising students who are strongly inclined toward spiritual leadership and Christian ministry. Fellows do a ten-week summer internship in “an outstanding teaching congregation” and commit to mentor or lead in one of Calvin’s ministry-related opportunities throughout their senior year. Jubilee Fellows receive a $4,000 fellowship as well as $1,000 to cover summer internship living and travel expenses.

Fellowships in the Natural Sciences

Thedford P. Dirkse Summer Research Fellowship. Dr. Brandon and Mrs. Patricia Wiers established this fellowship to support student summer research in the Chemistry Department. It honors Dr. Thedford Dirkse, who served as a professor in the Chemistry Department from 1947 to 1980 and served as Dr. Wier’s research mentor. One fellowship will be awarded to a student majoring in chemistry or biochemistry.

Clarence (Bud) and Arlene Talent Star Student Research Fellowship. Mr. Clarence (Bud) Star and Mrs. Arlene Talen Star established this student research fellowship. They are particularly interested in supporting students whose study and research use the Student Cell Culture Laboratory in the John “Doc” De Vries Hall of Science. This fellowship will be awarded on a combination of academic interest, academic merit, and career objectives.

Jansma Student-Faculty Research Fund in the Sciences. Sid and Joanne Jansma, alumni who have been long term supporters of Christian education, have majored in the natural sciences, and have careers in geology and nursing wish to encourage excellent students to seriously consider careers in science research and teaching. Through this fellowship they want to give students an opportunity to gain research experience beyond what they can get during the academic year. Several fellowships will be awarded annually.

Dr. Daniel J. Visser Student Research Fellowship in the Medical Sciences. To encourage and support promising students in the sciences, Dr. Earl and Mrs. Gertrude Visser and their family established a student research fellowship in memory of their son, Dr. Daniel J. Visser. The annual award will be made based on a combination of academic interest, merit, and career objectives to a qualifying student planning to pursue a career in medicine.

Fellowships in Social Sciences and Humanities

Jansma Student-Faculty Research Fund in Business. Sid and Joanne Jansma, alumni who have been long term supporters of Christian education, wish to encourage excellent students to seriously consider careers in business. Through this fellowship they want to give students an opportunity to gain business experience beyond what they can get during the academic year. At least one fellowship will be awarded annually.

Miller Student Research Fellowship. Mr. Eugene and Mrs. Lois Miller are continuing to fund this fellowship, which was originally established by the McGregor Fund in Detroit, of which Gene Miller is a trustee. Preference will be given to candidates who have attended the Cornerstone Program in Detroit, MI, Cranbrook Upper Schools, or Horizons Upward Bound Program at Cranbrook Schools.

Alumni Summer Research Fellowship in Business, Economics, and/or Asian Studies. Over the course of a 25-year career in industry, a Calvin alumni family has lived and worked in many locations in the U.S. and abroad—including ten years in Asia. During this time they gained an appreciation of how international business can positively impact local communities and how private industry can contribute to developing economies. In order to encourage the growth of Calvin's programs in business, economics, and Asian studies, and to encourage students to consider the use of their talents in those fields, the family has established this summer research fellowship.

Max and Carol Van Wyk Student-Faculty Research Fund in the Humanities and Social Sciences. Max and Carol Van Wyk have been long-term supporters of Calvin College and wish to continue their support by establishing an endowment fund to support student-faculty research in the humanities and social sciences.

Jubilee Fellowships

Dan and Gertrude Vos Jubilee Fellowship. Mr. Dan and Mrs. Gertrude Vos have always had a deep love for the church and the seminary. To help meet the needs of the church, the Voses are interested in encouraging young people to pursue seminary training so that they can bring the voice of Christ to a wider world. They look forward to seeing the Jubilee Fellows Program stimulate and challenge students to pursue careers in the ministry.

Candidates should be a junior or a senior planning to attend Calvin Theological Seminary.

Westerbeek Family Jubilee Fellowship. Mr. Jack and Mrs. Nita Westerbeek and their family have been faithful supporters of programs involving evangelism and outreach. They look forward to seeing this Jubilee Fellowship Program stimulate and challenge Calvin College students to pursue careers in the ministry.

Isaac and Betty Williamson Jubilee Fellowship. Mr. Isaac and Mrs. Betty Williamson made provision for Calvin College in their estate plans. Their wishes were for these funds to be used in support of students who will bring the Gospel to those who have not yet heard or accepted it. To that end Calvin College has established the Isaac and Betty Williamson Jubilee Fellowship to assist students whose career goals are in ministry or missions.
