

year and have a grade point average of 3.30 or higher. One scholarship of $2,200 was awarded in 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Steve J. and Viola Van Der Weele Scholarship The family of Steve Van Der Weele, who taught at Calvin from 1950 to 1986, has provided for two scholarships to be given annually to a returning junior or senior English major who shows evidence of coming to maturity through a liberal arts education and of enriching the Christian community through those studies. Academic excellence and Christian character are the primary criteria; need may be considered as a secondary criterion. Students may be considered for renewal upon reapplication. Two scholarships of $2,200 were awarded in 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

William E. and Margaret J. Van Wienen Scholarship William Van Wienen, a noted Grand Rapids architect, and his wife, Margaret, appreciate the contributions of Calvin as a Christian institution that enriches this community. Their daughter and her husband, Marcia and the Rev. Mark Van't Hof, and their son, Dr. Mark Van Wienen, all were English majors and all are graduates of Calvin. Their daughter-in-law, Dr. Anne Windholz, is also an English professor. In appreciation for Calvin and in recognition of their children's love for English language and literature, the Van Wienen have set up this scholarship to encourage other students majoring in English. Candidates must be English majors entering their junior year, have a grade point average of 3.00 or higher, and have an interest and be active in community social involvement projects. Financial need may also be considered. The scholarship is automatically renewable if the recipient continues to meet these requirements and remains in good standing in the major. One scholarship of $1,500 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Henry and Mildred Zylstra Memorial Scholarship This scholarship was established by family and friends in honor of Henry Zylstra. Professor Zylstra had a formative influence both in his classes and through his scholarly essays on the Reformed Christian tradition and its critique of culture and literature. Some of these essays were published in his book, Testament of Vision. Mildred Zylstra also taught in the English department for many years. Selection for this scholarship is based on academic ability, commitment to pursuing success in graduate studies, and a concern for Reformed Christian liberal arts education. Candidates must be entering their senior year, have a grade point average of 3.50 or higher, and be planning to attend graduate school to study literature or language within five years following graduation. One scholarship of $1,500 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Geology, Geography and Environmental Studies Department

Clarence Menninga Field Course Scholarship A scholarship fund established in honor of Calvin's first geology professor, Clarence Menninga, provides annually a $650 scholarship to a student enrolling in a summer geology field course.

Jerrian (M.D.) and Anna (Terpstra) Van Dellen Geology Scholarship This scholarship is given by Kenneth J. and Pearl Van Dellen in honor of Ken's parents, who introduced him to the Creator and the creation. Ken [B.A., biology, Calvin 1958] began taking geology courses in 1962 and taught geology at Macomb Community College 1965-1999. The scholarship is awarded to a Calvin student with junior or senior status, with a declared major in geology or environmental geology at the time of holding the scholarship. Students must apply to the Geology Department during the spring of their sophomore or junior year for the following year. A student is eligible to hold the scholarship for two years. Student applications for the scholarship will be assessed by the departmental geologists on the basis of academic potential, leadership ability, Christian character, and financial need. Applicants must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or higher. Two scholarships of $1,500 were awarded for 2006-2007.
