

grade point average of 2.50 or higher, and be majoring in the Civil Engineering program. Preference will be given to a child of a missionary who meets the stated criteria; otherwise the scholarship will be given to an engineering student with some interest in using their education to support mission work. Two scholarships of $1,350 were awarded for 2006-2007.

Pfizer Scholarship The Pfizer Scholarship is funded by the Pfizer Corporation which is a leading international developer, manufacturer, and marketer of pharmaceutical products. The purpose of the scholarship is to attract, encourage, and support students interested in pursuing careers in the chemical sciences by giving them financial support, academic recognition, and connections to a major pharmaceutical company. Eligible students must be entering their junior or senior year of studies at Calvin with a major in chemistry, biochemistry, or chemical engineering. They must also have a cumulative grade point average of 3.30 or higher. Five scholarships of $4,000 were awarded for 2006-2007.

Robert J. Reimink/Prein and Newhof Scholarship This scholarship is established by the engineering firm of Prein and Newhof of Grand Rapids, Michigan as a memorial to Robert J. Reimink, a Calvin alumnus and a key engineer at the firm, who died of cancer in 1994 at the age of thirty-eight. Candidates for this scholarship are students entering their junior or senior year at Calvin who are pursuing a program in Civil Engineering and have a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or higher. Two scholarships of $2,000 were awarded for 2006-2007.

Charles and Kay Spoelhof Engineering Scholarship Dr. Charles Spoelhof served as an engineer with the Eastman Kodak Company for thirty-two years. During the height of the Cold War, he was part of a small group of experts that helped develop the highly sophisticated camera technology used in spy satellites. Later, he worked with NASA to develop the techniques of lunar photography that identified appropriate landing sites for the Apollo missions. He also served on the blue ribbon commission to fix the Hubble Space Telescope. For many years Mr. Charles Spoelhof has served and supported the Engineering Department as an Industrial Mentor, a Chemical Engineering Advisory Committee (CEAC) Member, a seminar speaker, an interim course instructor, and a true friend. He and his wife, Kay, have set up this scholarship to continue their support of the engineering program at Calvin. This scholarship is particularly intended to help prepare engineering students to participate in the global economy. This scholarship is awarded to a Calvin engineering major entering his or her junior or senior year. The student must have attended Calvin at least one year before receiving this scholarship. They must also have a grade point average of 2.70 or higher and be in good standing in the Engineering Department. Financial need may be considered. Preference will be given to an engineering student involved in some type of international activity (international internship, international engineering study program abroad, etc.). Students who wish to be considered for renewal must file a new application each year and will be given equal consideration with other candidates. One scholarship of $800 was awarded for 2006-2007.

English Department

Winifred Holkeboer Memorial Scholarship This scholarship was established as a tribute to Winifred Holkeboer, who, through her many years of service to the English Department and Calvin, engaged students in the study of language and literature. This scholarship is awarded to an English major who demonstrates academic excellence, commitment to the major, and potential for leadership within the major. Selection is based on academic record, participation in the activities of the department, and a brief statement of the applicant's reasons for choosing English as a major. Candidates should be entering their junior or senior year and have a grade point average of 3.00 or higher. Students may be considered for renewal upon reapplication. One scholarship of $2,200 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Kenneth and Lillian Kuiper Scholarship To honor the many years of service and commitment to Christian education that Dr. Kenneth Kuiper and his wife Lillian have given so generously, their family and friends established a scholarship in their name. Dr. Kuiper taught in the English Department at South Christian High School in Grand Rapids and then served with distinction in the English Department at Calvin for thirty-seven years, encouraging students and mentoring faculty. Lillian taught for seven years in grades three through twelve and later ran the student teacher placement program in the Calvin Education Department for ten years. All five of their children have graduated from Calvin. Their son, George, a dedicated employee of the college, took the lead role in initiating this project to honor his parents. In recognition of the Kuipers' high regard for the classroom teacher, this scholarship will be awarded to a student entering his or her senior year and pursuing a teaching career in junior/senior high school English. One scholarship of $3,000 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Dr. Charlotte Otten Scholarship This scholarship reflects Charlotte F. Otten's interests in writing and research during her teaching years at Calvin. The scholarship is designed to encourage writers to consider a career in writing and will be awarded to a junior or senior English major who shows promise as a writer of poetry, fiction, or non-fiction, and/or who is considering a career in Renaissance studies, women's studies, or children's literature. Selection is based on writing samples, academic record (3.00 grade point average or higher), and a statement of the applicant's career goals; the scholarship is renewable if the recipient continues to meet these requirements and remains in good standing in the major. One scholarship of $1,500 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Schemper-Kamp Family Scholarship This scholarship is established as a tribute to Calvin professor John J. Timmerman and his wife, Mrs. Carolyn Hager Timmerman, both of who had a profound impact on the lives of the donors, Mr. Henry and Mrs. Carol Kamp. The Kamps established this scholarship out of gratitude for what the Timmermans have done for them and in recognition of what Dr. and Mrs. Timmerman have done for Calvin and many of its students. The scholarship is awarded annually to a returning junior or senior English major who has demonstrated academic excellence and a Christian perspective in his or her writing; students may be considered for renewal upon reapplication. One scholarship of $2,400 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Henrietta Ten Harmsel English Scholarship Henrietta Ten Harmsel established this scholarship for promising English majors. Dr. Ten Harmsel served the English Department for twenty-seven years, both as a beloved teacher and as departmental chair. She awards an English major because English is a crucial element of the liberal arts education, because it prepares students for a wide range of professions, and because it enables them to verbalize their Christian faith in an articulate, forceful, and humane way. Recipients of this scholarship must be enthusiastic readers and writers and must be able to explain how their Christian faith informs their study of literature; students may be considered for renewal upon reapplication. One scholarship of $2,100 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Richard R. and Kathleen J. Tiemersma Scholarship This scholarship has been established to promote and further the respect for language, the liberal arts, and Calvin and its objectives. Dr. Tiemersma has set up this scholarship in gratitude to Calvin for opportunities he and Kay received to learn from gifted professors, for the joy of working in a satisfying profession, and for deep enrichment of their personal lives. Dr. Tiemersma taught in the English Department for twenty-eight years where he was a respected and beloved professor whose specialty was Victorian literature and a careful attention to use of the English language. Mrs. Tiemersma was an English major and taught in the department for several years. Candidates should be entering their senior year and have a grade point average of 3.30 or higher. One scholarship of $2,200 was awarded in 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Steve J. and Viola Van Der Weele Scholarship The family of Steve Van Der Weele, who taught at Calvin from 1950 to 1986, has provided for two scholarships to be given annually to a returning junior or senior English major who shows evidence of coming to maturity through a liberal arts education and of enriching the Christian community through those studies. Academic excellence and Christian character are the primary criteria; need may be considered as a secondary criterion. Students may be considered for renewal upon reapplication. Two scholarships of $2,200 were awarded in 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

William E. and Margaret J. Van Wienen Scholarship William Van Wienen, a noted Grand Rapids architect, and his wife, Margaret, appreciate the contributions of Calvin as a Christian institution that enriches this community. Their daughter and her husband, Marcia and the Rev. Mark Van't Hof, and their son, Dr. Mark Van Wienen, all were English majors and all are graduates of Calvin. Their daughter-in-law, Dr. Anne Windholz, is also an English professor. In appreciation for Calvin and in recognition of their children's love for English language and literature, the Van Wienen have set up this scholarship to encourage other students majoring in English. Candidates must be English majors entering their junior year, have a grade point average of 3.00 or higher, and have an interest and be active in community social involvement projects. Financial need may also be considered. The scholarship is automatically renewable if the recipient continues to meet these requirements and remains in good standing in the major. One scholarship of $1,500 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Henry and Mildred Zylstra Memorial Scholarship This scholarship was established by family and friends in honor of Henry Zylstra. Professor Zylstra had a for-native influence both in his classes and through his scholarly essays on the Reformed Christian tradition and its critique of culture and literature. Some of these essays were published in his book, Testament of Vision. Mildred Zylstra also taught in the English department for many years. Selection for this scholarship is based on academic ability, commitment to pursuing success in graduate studies, and a concern for Reformed Christian liberal arts education. Candidates must be entering their senior year, have a grade point average of 3.50 or higher, and be planning to attend graduate school to study literature or language within five years following graduation. One scholarship of $1,500 was awarded for 2006-2007. Application available online from the English Department.

Geology, Geography and Environmental Studies Department

Clarence Menninga Field Course Scholarship A scholarship fund established in honor of Calvin's first geology professor, Clarence Menninga, provides annually a $650 scholarship to a student enrolling in a summer geology field course.

Jerrian (M.D.) and Anna (Terpstra) Van Dellen Geology Scholarship This scholarship is given by Kenneth J. and Pearl Van Dellen in honor of Ken's parents, who introduced him to the Creator and the creation. Ken [B.A., biology, Calvin 1958] began taking geology courses in 1962 and taught geology at Macomb Community College 1965-1999. The scholarship is awarded to a Calvin student with junior or senior status, with a declared major in geology or environmental geology at the time of holding the scholarship. Students must apply to the Geology Department during the spring of their sophomore or junior year for the following year. A student is eligible to hold the scholarship for two years. Student applications for the scholarship will be assessed by the departmental geologists on the basis of academic potential, leadership ability, Christian character, and financial need. Applicants must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or higher. Two scholarships of $1,500 were awarded for 2006-2007.
