

troversies associated with them. The course explores how a Christian approach to education affects second-language pedagogy and how this pedagogy interacts with the language learner's personal growth. It also introduces the prospective educator to the teaching of the basic skills, to issues in evaluation and assessment, and to the use of technologies in the language classroom. This course should be taken in the junior or senior year, prior to student teaching. Required for secondary certification in world languages, including the ESL secondary minor. Prerequisite: completion of or concurrent registration in Education 302/303.

SPAN 358 Aiding in the Foreign Language Classroom (3). 1. Students participating in this seminar plan and facilitate small group sessions for Spanish 122. Morning activities include meeting with other aides and the professor, observing master teachers, and aiding master teachers in teaching. Afternoon activities include leading sessions with Spanish 122 students and planning lessons, materials, and activities under the supervision of the professor. Students will be evaluated based on their competency in the Spanish language, professional evaluations of teaching sessions and lesson plans/materials, participation in class discussions, daily journals, and an oral presentation. Prerequisite: Spanish 301 with a grade of "B" or better.

IDIS 359 Seminar in Secondary World-Languages Pedagogy (3). *S. A seminar reinforcing the major principles and practices of world-languages pedagogy on the secondary level for students during their semester of directed teaching, to be taken concurrently with Education 346. This course provides opportunities for collaborative work on putting theoretical and pedagogical matters of immediate concern into a practical framework. Prerequisites: Education 302/303 and successful completion of departmental proficiency exams.

- Students may also receive credit for internships and off-campus programs (e.g.: Chicago Semester) for up to six credits. To receive such credit, a student must receive prior approval from the ad hoc Committee for an Urban Studies Minor.

Youth Ministry Leadership

An interdisciplinary minor, the Youth Ministry Minor focuses on preparing students for all types of youth ministry in church-based settings and parachurch organizations. Courses and advising are based on the Bible and historic Christian theology, with an emphasis on Reformed theology. The minor, which may be taken in conjunction with a major in any field, consists of seven courses comprising a minimum of 19 semester hours of credit. The amount of overlap between the major and the minor will follow the standards outlined in the college catalog. Youth Ministry Minor programs must be approved by the director who confers with the supervising committee for the minor. The program director is L. Elliott of the Education Department.
