Treasurer - Dr. Anthony Diekema 526-6666 (adiek)
Secretary - Dr. William Spoelhof 526-7777 (wspon)

Seek to succinctly describe WHO you are and WHAT you do. It should also reflect the educational mission of the College and a reformed Christian worldview. Also include a rationale for the organization's existence.

II. Organization's Advisor

The Advisor shall be Christian Van VanderVan 526-8888 (cvvan)

Request the advisor's participation for the upcoming school year. Commit to a dialogue with the advisor for the entire year.

III. Organizational Mission Statement

The John Calvin Club seeks to develop a forum for students to gain understanding and interest in the life and writings of John Calvin. Through speakers, books, and articles students will gain knowledge of one of the main founders of the Reformed tradition and further understand his impact on the church and theology today.

IV. Organization's Goals for the Year

1. Weekly meetings during the semester
2. Each semester we will have two special speakers come and present to the group.
3. Creatively publicize our group and make the students of Calvin College more aware of the person that our college is named after.
4. Increase average weekly attendance from 15-20 people by the end of fall semester
5. Identify 2-3 sophomores who have leadership potential and train them for leadership

V. Organization's Calendars

Cokes and Clubs - First week of first semester
Informational Meeting - Second week of first semester
Speaker # 1 - Fifth week of the semester
Speaker # 2 - Tenth week of the semester
Christmas Party - Last week of first semester

Lay out the new leadership's goals and vision for the upcoming year. Make sure the specific and measurable.

Detail the decision making process and define the leadership structures and positions for the organization.

VI. Organization's Structure

The three chairs of the organization share the responsibility of setting the topic for discussion, arranging for speakers, advertising, and setting up for refreshments. Leaders will be selected (not elected) to serve in the positions. The club's advisor will be notified of all events and will help with the selection of speakers for the group.

Dr. Gaylen Byker
