ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

We are welcoming candidates for a Computer Science opportunity in the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science. Gordon College invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track assistant or associate professor of computer science appointment. Position to begin August 2014. Rank will be commensurate with experience.

The computer science major at Gordon College prepares students for lifelong effectiveness in a rapidly changing field, not just a first job. We seek an individual who shares this vision and can provide leadership to our growing program, especially as we engage in interdisciplinary projects with other departments in the natural sciences.

The Department of Mathematics and Computer Science at Gordon College consists of six full-time faculty and offers majors in both computer science and mathematics. We have strong relationships with local companies that provide our students valuable internship and employment opportunities. A number of our students have participated in summer research programs at Gordon and at other institutions.

While most of our graduates take software or web development positions, some choose to pursue an advanced degree in a computer-related field. Employers consistently speak well of our graduates and frequently hire additional graduates.

The ideal candidate will have:

- A PhD in computer science or closely related field completed by the time of appointment
- A passion for teaching undergraduates
- A vision for computer science in a liberal-arts setting, with a balanced emphasis on both preparation for careers in industry and research
- A commitment to research that can include undergraduates, ideally with applications within the natural sciences
- A strong commitment to the Christian mission of the College

Gordon College is recruiting accomplished faculty who demonstrate the ability to combine outstanding scholarship with a passion for teaching and mentoring, and who are dedicated to preparing thoughtful Christian men and women for lives of service and leadership worldwide.

As one of the country’s top liberal arts colleges with a vibrant Christian community, Gordon is uniquely positioned to lead the conversation at the intersection of faith and cultural engagement. We need scholars with a depth of understanding, a breadth of knowledge, and the desire to be part of the dialogue.

Interested applicants need to submit a Curriculum Vita that includes the names of 3 references, a sample of academic writing, and a letter of application that addresses their fit with the Christian mission of Gordon College and with the specific position.

TO APPLY: Please go to apply.interfolio.com/23350 to submit your application. The review of applicants will begin on November 1 and continue until the position is filled.

Gordon College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and believes that diversity is necessary to our ability to achieve our goals and educational mission. Women and men, and members of all racial and ethnic groups are encouraged to apply.
