The standard evaluation of eligibility for need-based financial aid is based on the independent student's income from the prior year. In some cases adjustments can be made in the evaluation for changes in circumstances.

If you would like to request special consideration based on a reduction in student's income from the prior year, please complete the information below.

Estimate 2010-2011 income. The adjustments make a difference only if the student earned more than $1,000 in 2009 and expects 2010-2011 income to be reduced by $300 or more.
