Job Announcements

WHEATON COLLEGE: American Politics. The Department of Politics and International Relations at Wheaton College invites applications for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level in American Politics to begin Fall Semester 2006. The ideal candidate should be able to offer courses in the presidency and/or judicial politics as well as the department's required course in research methods. Send a letter describing teaching experience, research interests, and faith commitment along with current curriculum vitae at the earliest possible date, but no later than Monday, September 12, 2005, to: Prof. Ashley Woodiwiss, Chair Search Committee, Department of Politics & International Relations, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois, 60187. Promising candidates will receive complete application instructions. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at APSA, September 1-4, 2005. Wheaton College is an evangelical protestant Christian liberal arts college whose faculty and staff affirm a Statement of Faith and adhere to lifestyle expectations. The College complies with federal and state guidelines for nondiscrimination in employment. Minority candidates are strongly urged to apply.
