

2009 Calvin Studies Society Conference Registration Form

Hosted by the Meeter Center for Calvin Studies

To mark the Reformer John Calvin's 500th birthday, the Meeter Center for Calvin Studies at Calvin College and Calvin Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids, Michigan, will host the 2009 Calvin Studies Society conference, "John Calvin: Myth and Reality," from Thursday, April 16 to Saturday, April 18, 2009. Join us for three days of stimulating presentations and discussions on topics that go from Calvin's attitude on a range of topics including images, women, and church discipline to Calvin's world-wide impact, including in early America, south-east Asia, the Netherlands, Germany, and Korea. This conference will bring together Calvin experts from around the world, and provides an outstanding opportunity for everyone from faculty and students at all levels to pastors and interested lay-people to join in the discussion on Calvin and his impact and reputation, both in the past and today.
