

Michigan Project NExT 2004 Tentative Program

Thursday, May 6, 2004
3:00-6:30 PM

Supported by the Michigan Section-MAA and the Exxon Foundation
Oakland University
Room: TBA

- ❖ 3:00-3:20 Sign-in and Refreshments
- ❖ 3:20-3:30 Welcome
- ❖ 3:30-4:10 "Undergraduate Research is not an Oxymoron"
Steve Schlicker, Grand Valley State University
- ❖ 4:15-4:55 "Hiding Behind the Numbers—How do we find out what students are really thinking?"
Karen Rhea, University of Michigan
- ❖ 5:00-5:40 "" Three things that I have been involved with:
Emerging Scholars, transition in math from high school to college,
and a capstone course for secondary math majors"
Richard Hill, Michigan State University
- ❖ 5:45-6:25 "Critique That! Analytical Writing Assignments in Advanced Courses"
Reva Kasman, Grand Valley State University
- ❖ 7:00-9:00, Dinner: Big Buck Brewery