Continued Fractions, Non-orientable Surfaces, and Torus Knots

Cornelia Van Cott
University of San Francisco

Abstract. We construct non-orientable surfaces which are bounded by torus knots. Using tools from knot Floer homology, we consider whether these surfaces realize the non-orientable four-ball genus of the knots. This is joint work with Slaven Jabuka.