THEME: Church, Worship and Theological Education in Africa

Conference Vision & Purpose:
Africa is becoming the “heart land of Christianity” and thus the need for Christ Centered Worship. The conference will:
> Encourage and equip leaders in theological institutions in the area of Church, worship and theological education in Africa.
> Update theological lectures and students in various current theological issues related to worship
> Provide information on the role of seminaries and, Churches on leadership development on worship in Christ's Church.
> Participants will be challenged to pursue excellence in worship
> Offer opportunity for Networking and Collaboration

The Conference objective is three fold:

Theological:
The need to train mission-minded theologians who will integrate worship and theological education in Africa.

Educational:
The need to pursue an academic excellence, raising the standards of our institutions enabling Lecturers to teach more effectively so that students will learn to better serve God with heads, hearts and hands.

Ecumenical:
Bringing Theological institutions and Church leaders together for a common purpose of learning, worship and discussion on issues on theological education in Africa

What to expect:
1. Keynote Addresses, Plenary Lectures and Workshops.
2. Participatory Workshops: on a variety of theological and practical issues facing Worship in African Today.
3. Departmental: Workshops focusing on Work and Worship, Kingdom values through diversity, Jesus Our Worship Leader, Singing the Faith, Dismantling Disunity, Biblical Preaching, Building the Faith of Children and Adults through Worship, Biblical Theology of Worship, Historical Theology, Apologetics, Missions, etc.
