INTRODUCTION

Article 1

a. The Christian Reformed Church, confessing its complete subjection to the Word of God and the Reformed creeds as a true interpretation of this Word, acknowledging Christ as the only head of his church, and desiring to honor the apostolic injunction that in the churches all things are to be done decently and in order (1 Cor. 14:40), regulates its ecclesiastical organization and activities in the following articles.

b. The main subjects treated in this Church Order are The Offices of the Church, The Assemblies of the Church, The Task and Activities of the Church, and The Admonition and Discipline of the Church.

I. THE OFFICES OF THE CHURCH

A. General Provisions

Article 2

The church recognizes the offices of minister of the Word, elder, deacon, and evangelist. These offices differ from each other only in mandate and task, not in dignity and honor.

Article 3

a. Confessing male members of the church who meet the biblical requirements are eligible for the offices of minister, elder, and evangelist.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 3-a

b. All confessing members of the church who meet the biblical requirements are eligible for the office of deacon.

c. Only those who have been officially called and ordained or installed shall hold and exercise office in the church.

Article 4

a. In calling and electing to an office, the council shall ordinarily present to the congregation a nomination of at least twice the number to be elected. When the council submits a nomination which totals less than twice the number to be elected, it shall give reasons for doing so.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 4-a
b. Prior to making nominations the council may give the congregation an opportunity to direct attention to suitable persons.

c. The election by the congregation shall take place under the supervision of the council after prayer and in accordance with the regulations established by the council. The right to vote shall be limited to confessing members in good standing.

d. After having called the elected persons to their respective offices and having announced their names, the council shall proceed to ordain or install them if no valid impediment has arisen. The ordination or installation shall take place in the public worship services with the use of the prescribed ecclesiastical forms.

Article 5

All officebearers, on occasions stipulated by conciliar, classical, and synodical regulations, shall signify their agreement with the doctrine of the church by signing the Form of Subscription.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 5

B. The Ministers of the Word

Article 6

a. The completion of a satisfactory theological training shall be required for admission to the ministry of the Word.

b. Graduates of the theological seminary of the Christian Reformed Church who have been declared candidates for the ministry of the Word by the churches shall be eligible for call.

c. Those who have been trained elsewhere shall not be eligible for call unless they have met the requirements stipulated in the synodical regulations and have been declared by the churches to be candidates for the ministry of the Word.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 6

Article 7

a. Those who have not received the prescribed theological training but who give evidence that they are singularly gifted as to godliness, humility, spiritual discretion, wisdom, and the native ability to preach the Word, may, by way of exception, be admitted to the ministry of the Word, especially when the need is urgent.

b. The classis, in the presence of the synodical deputies, shall examine these men concerning the required exceptional gifts. With the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, classis shall proceed as circumstances may warrant and in accordance with synodical regulations.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 7
Article 8

a. Ministers of the Christian Reformed Church are eligible for call, with due observance of the relevant rules.

b. Ministers of other denominations desiring to become ministers in the Christian Reformed Church shall be declared eligible for a call by a classis only after a thorough examination of their theological training, ministerial record, knowledge of and soundness in the Reformed faith, and their exemplariness of life. The presence and concurring advice of the synodical deputies are required.

c. Ministers of other denominations who have not been declared eligible for a call shall not be called unless all synodical requirements have been met.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 8

Article 9

In nominating and calling a minister, the council shall seek the approval of the counselor who acts in behalf of classis to see that the ecclesiastical regulations have been observed. The council and counselor shall sign the letter of call and the counselor shall render an account of his labors to classis.

Article 10

a. The ordination of a candidate for the ministry of the Word requires the approval of the classis of the calling church and of the synodical deputies. The classis, in the presence of the deputies, shall examine him concerning his doctrine and life in accordance with synodical regulations. The ordination shall be accompanied by the laying on of hands by the officiating minister.

b. The installation of a minister shall require the approval of the classis of the calling church or its interim committee, to which the minister shall have previously presented good ecclesiastical testimonials of doctrine and life which have been given him by his former council and classis.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 10

Article 11

The calling of a minister of the Word is to proclaim, explain, and apply Holy Scripture in order to gather in and build up the members of the church of Jesus Christ.

Article 12

a. A minister of the Word serving as pastor of a congregation shall preach the Word, administer the sacraments, conduct public worship services, catechize the youth, and train members for Christian service. He, with the elders, shall supervise the congregation and his fellow officebearers, exercise admonition and discipline, and see to it that everything is done decently and in order. He, with the elders, shall exercise pastoral care over the congregation, and engage in and promote the work of evangelism.
b. A minister of the Word who enters into the work of missions or is appointed directly by synod shall be called in the regular manner by a local church, which acts in cooperation with the appropriate committees of classis or synod.

c. A minister of the Word may also serve the church in other work which relates directly to his calling, but only after the calling church has demonstrated to the satisfaction of classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, that said work is consistent with the calling of a minister of the Word.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 12-c

a. A minister of the Word is directly accountable to the calling church, and therefore shall be supervised in doctrine, life, and duties by that church. When his work is with other than the calling church, he shall be supervised in cooperation with other congregations, institutions, or agencies involved.

b. A minister of the Word may be loaned temporarily by his calling church to serve as pastor of a congregation outside of the Christian Reformed Church, but only with the approval of classis, the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, and in accordance with the synodical regulations. Although his duties may be regulated in cooperation with the other congregation, the supervision of his doctrine and life rests with the calling church.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 13-b

a. A minister of the Word shall not leave the congregation with which he is connected for another church without the consent of the council.

b. A minister of the Word who resigns from the ministry in the Christian Reformed Church to enter a ministry outside the denomination shall be released from office by the classis with an appropriate declaration reflecting the resigned minister’s status and with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 14-b

c. A minister of the Word, once lawfully called, may not forsake his office. He may, however, be released from office to enter upon a nonministerial vocation for such weighty reasons as shall receive the approval of the classis with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 14-c

d. A minister of the Word who has entered upon a vocation which classis judges to be nonministerial shall be released from his office within one year of that judgment. The concurring advice of the synodical deputies shall be obtained at the time of the judgment.

e. A former minister of the Word who was released from office may be declared eligible for call upon approval of the classis by which such action was taken, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies. Upon acceptance of a call, he shall be reordained.
Article 15

Each church through its council shall provide for the proper support of its minister(s). By way of exception and with the approval of classis, a church and minister may agree that a minister obtain primary or supplemental income by means of other employment. Ordinarily the foregoing exception shall be limited to churches that cannot obtain assistance adequate to support its minister.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 15

Article 16

A minister who for valid reasons desires a temporary leave of absence from service to the congregation must have the approval of the council, which shall continue to have supervision over him. In all cases of a temporary leave of absence the minister shall return to service in that congregation.

Article 17

a. Ministers who are neither eligible for retirement nor worthy of discipline may for weighty reasons be released from active ministerial service in a congregation through action initiated by themselves, by a council, or jointly. Such release shall be given only with the approval of classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, and in accordance with synodical regulations.

b. The council shall provide for the support of a released minister in such a way and for such a time as shall receive the approval of classis.

c. A minister of the Word who has been released from active ministerial service in a congregation shall be eligible for call for a period of two years, after which time the classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, shall declare him to be released from the ministerial office. For weighty reasons the classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, may extend the eligibility for call on a yearly basis.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 17

a. A minister who has reached retirement age, or who because of physical or mental disability is incapable of performing the duties of his office, is eligible for retirement. Retirement shall take place with the approval of the council and classis and in accordance with synodical regulations.

b. A retired minister shall retain the honor and title of a minister of the Word and his official connection with the church which he served last, and this church shall be responsible for providing honorably for his support and that of his dependents according to synodical regulations.

c. Should the reasons for his retirement no longer exist, the minister emeritus shall request the council and classis which recommended him for retirement to declare him eligible for call.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 18
Article 19

The churches shall maintain a theological seminary at which men are trained for the ministry of the Word. The seminary shall be governed by synod through a board of trustees appointed by synod and responsible to it.

Article 20

The task of the ministers of the Word who are appointed as professors of theology is to train the seminary students for the ministry of the Word, expound the Word of God, and vindicate sound doctrine against heresies and errors.

Article 21

The churches shall encourage young men to seek to become ministers of the Word and shall grant financial aid to those who are in need of it. Every classis shall maintain a student fund.

Article 22

Students who have received licensure according to synodical regulations shall be permitted to exhort in the public worship services.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 22

C. The Evangelists

Article 23

a. The evangelist shall be acknowledged as an elder of his calling church with corresponding privileges and responsibilities. His work as elder shall normally be limited to that which pertains to his function as evangelist.

b. Ordinarily, the office of an evangelist working in an emerging congregation will terminate when a group of believers is formed into an organized church. However, upon organization and with the approval of the newly formed council and the classis, the ordained evangelist may continue to serve the newly organized church until an ordained minister is installed or until he has served the newly organized church for a reasonable period of transition.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 23-b

c. An evangelist may also serve an organized congregation along with a minister of the Word.

d. Any service or assignment beyond his specific field of labor requires the authorization of his consistory and the approval of classis.

Article 24

a. The task of the evangelist is to witness for Christ and to call for comprehensive discipleship through the preaching of the Word, the administration of the sacraments, evangelism, church education for youth and adults, and pastoral care, in order that the church may be built and unbelievers won for Christ. He shall also equip fellow believers to participate in the work of evangelism.
b. The evangelist shall function under the direct supervision of the council, giving regular reports to it and being present at its meetings whenever possible, particularly when his work is under consideration.

D. The Elders and Deacons

Article 25

a. The elders and deacons shall serve for a limited time as designated by the council. As a rule a specified number of them shall retire from office each year. The retiring officebearers shall be succeeded by others unless the circumstances and the profit of the church make immediate eligibility for reelection advisable. Elders and deacons who are thus reelected shall be reinstalled.

b. The elders, with the minister(s), shall oversee the doctrine and life of the members of the congregation and fellow officebearers, shall exercise admonition and discipline along with pastoral care in the congregation, shall participate in and promote evangelism, and shall defend the faith.

c. The deacons shall represent and administer the mercy of Christ to all people, especially to those who belong to the community of believers, and shall stimulate the members of Christ's church to faithful, obedient stewardship of their resources on behalf of the needy—all with words of biblical encouragement and testimony which assure the unity of word and deed.

II. THE ASSEMBLIES OF THE CHURCH

A. General Provisions

Article 26

The assemblies of the church are the council, the classis, and the synod.

Article 27

a. Each assembly exercises, in keeping with its own character and domain, the ecclesiastical authority entrusted to the church by Christ; the authority of councils being original, that of major assemblies being delegated.

b. The classis has the same authority over the council as the synod has over the classis.

Article 28

a. These assemblies shall transact ecclesiastical matters only, and shall deal with them in an ecclesiastical manner.

b. A major assembly shall deal only with those matters which concern its churches in common or which could not be finished in the minor assemblies.

c. Matters referred by minor assemblies to major assemblies shall be presented in harmony with the rules for classical and synodical procedure.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 28
Article 29

Decisions of ecclesiastical assemblies shall be reached only upon due consideration. The decisions of the assemblies shall be considered settled and binding, unless it is proved that they conflict with the Word of God or the Church Order.

Article 30

a. Assemblies and church members may appeal to the assembly next in order if they believe that injustice has been done or that a decision conflicts with the Word of God or the Church Order. Appellants shall observe all ecclesiastical regulations regarding the manner and time of appeal.

b. Synod may establish rights for other appeals and adopt rules for processing them.

c. If invoked, the Judicial Code shall apply to the processing of appeals and written charges.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 30a-c

Article 31

A request for revision of a decision shall be submitted to the assembly which made the decision. Such a request shall be honored only if sufficient and new grounds for reconsideration are presented.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 31

Article 32

a. The sessions of all assemblies shall begin and end with prayer.

b. In every assembly there shall be a president whose duty it shall be to state and explain the business to be transacted, and to see to it that the stipulations of the Church Order are followed and that everyone observes due order and decorum in speaking. There shall also be a clerk whose task it shall be to keep an accurate record of the proceedings. In major assemblies the above named offices shall cease when the assembly adjourns.

c. Each assembly shall make proper provision for receiving communications, preparing agenda and acts, keeping files and archives, and conducting the financial transactions of the assembly.

d. Each assembly shall provide for the safeguarding of its property through proper incorporation.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 32-d

Article 33

a. The assemblies may delegate to committees the execution of their decisions or the preparation of reports for future consideration. They shall give every committee a well-defined mandate, and shall require of them regular and complete reports of their work.

b. Each classis shall appoint a classical interim committee, and synod shall appoint a synodical interim committee, to act for them in matters which cannot await action by the assemblies themselves. Such committees shall be given well-defined mandates and shall submit all their actions to the next meeting of the assembly for approval.

Article 34

The major assemblies are composed of officebearers who are delegated by their constituent minor assemblies. The minor assemblies shall provide their delegates with proper credentials which authorize them to deliberate and vote on matters brought before the major assemblies. A delegate shall not vote on any matter in which he himself or his church is particularly involved.

B. The Council

Article 35

a. In every church there shall be a council composed of the minister(s), the elders, and the deacons. Those tasks which belong to the common administration of the church, such as the calling of a pastor, the approval of nominations for church office, mutual censure, meeting with church visitors, and other matters of common concern, are the responsibility of the council.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 35-a

b. In every church there shall be a consistory composed of the elders and the minister(s) of the Word. Those tasks which belong distinctively to the office of elder are the responsibility of the consistory.

c. In every church there shall be a diaconate composed of the deacons of the church. Those tasks which belong distinctively to the office of deacon are the responsibility of the diaconate. The diaconate shall give an account of its work to the council.

Article 36

a. The council, consistory, and diaconate shall meet at least once a month at a time and place announced to the congregation. Each body shall select its own president and other officers.

b. The council, at least four times per year, shall exercise mutual censure, which concerns the performance of the official duties of the officebearers.

Article 37

The council, besides seeking the cooperation of the congregation in the election of officebearers, shall also invite its judgment about other major matters, except those which pertain to the supervision and discipline of the congregation. For this purpose the council shall call a meeting at least annually of all members entitled to vote. Such a meeting shall be conducted by the council, and only those matters which it presents shall be considered. Although full consideration shall be given to the judgment expressed by the congregation, the authority for making and carrying out final decisions remains with the council as the governing body of the church.
Article 38

a. Groups of believers among whom no council can as yet be constituted shall be under the care of a neighboring council, designated by classis.
b. When a council is being constituted for the first time, the approval of classis is required.
c. When a council and congregation decide to disband or revert to unorganized status, the approval of classis is required. If any distribution of assets is required, the congregation and council shall consult with classis.
d. When two or more councils and congregations decide to merge, the approval of classis is required.
e. When a council decides to disaffiliate from the denomination, the set process for disaffiliation adopted by synod shall be followed.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 38-e

f. Particular churches of the Christian Reformed Church in North America may unite to form union congregations with one or more particular congregations of churches in ecclesiastical fellowship, with the approval of classis.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 38-f

C. The Classis

Article 39

A classis shall consist of a group of neighboring churches. The organizing of a new classis and the redistricting of classes require the approval of synod.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 39

Article 40

a. The council of each church shall delegate a minister and an elder to the classis. If a church is without a minister, or the minister is prevented from attending, two elders shall be delegated. Officebearers who are not delegated may also attend classis and may be given an advisory voice.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 40-a

b. The classis shall meet at least every four months, unless great distances render this impractical, at such time and place as was determined by the previous classical meeting.
c. The ministers shall preside in rotation, or a president may be elected from among the delegates; however, the same person shall not preside twice in succession.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 40-a and -c

Article 41

In order properly to assist the churches, the president, on behalf of classis, shall among other things present the following questions to the delegates of each church:

Church Order
1. Are the council, consistory, and diaconate meetings regularly held according to the needs of the congregation?

2. Is church discipline faithfully exercised?

3. Does the diaconate faithfully lead and stimulate the congregation in obedient stewardship of its resources on behalf of the needy?

4. Does the council diligently promote the cause of Christian education from elementary school through institutions of higher learning?

5. a. Have you submitted to the secretary of our Home Missions Board the names and addresses of all baptized and communicant members who have, since the last meeting of classis, moved to a place where no Christian Reformed churches are found?

   b. Have you informed other councils or pastors about members who reside, even temporarily, in the vicinity of their church?

   c. Have you, having been informed yourself of such members in your own area, done all in your power to serve them with the ministry of your church?

6. Does the council diligently engage in and promote the work of evangelism in its community?

a. The classis shall appoint at least one committee composed of two of the more experienced and competent officebearers, two ministers, or one minister and one elder, to visit all its churches once a year.

b. The church visitors shall ascertain whether the officebearers faithfully perform their duties, adhere to sound doctrine, observe the provisions of the Church Order, and properly promote the edification of the congregation and the extension of God’s kingdom. They shall fraternally admonish those who have been negligent, and help all with advice and assistance.

c. The churches are free to call on the church visitors whenever serious problems arise.

d. The church visitors shall render to classis a written report of their work.

Article 43

The classis may grant the right to exhort within its bounds to men who are gifted, well-informed, consecrated, and able to edify the churches. When the urgent need for their services has been established, the classis shall examine such men and license them as exhorters for a limited period of time.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 43

---

Article 44

a. A classis may take counsel or joint action with its neighboring classis or classes in matters of mutual concern.

b. Classes engaging in matters of mutual concern may organize themselves into an ecclesiastical assembly that will function on the level of classis, with freedom to determine the delegation from the constituent classes and the frequency of meetings. Such an assembly's authority, jurisdiction, and mandate shall be approved by synod. It shall have direct access to synod in all matters pertaining to its mandate.

D. The Synod

Article 45

The synod is the assembly representing the churches of all the classes. Each classis shall delegate two ministers and two elders to the synod.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 45

Article 46

a. Synod shall meet annually, at a time and place determined by the previous synod. Each synod shall designate a church to convene the following synod.

b. The convening church, with the approval of the synodical interim committee, may call a special session of synod, but only in very extraordinary circumstances and with the observance of synodical regulations.

c. The officers of synod shall be elected and shall function in accordance with the Rules for Synodical Procedure.

Article 47

The task of synod includes the adoption of the creeds, of the Church Order, of the liturgical forms, of the Psalter Hymnal, and of the principles and elements of the order of worship, as well as the designation of the Bible versions to be used in the worship services.

No substantial alterations shall be effected by synod in these matters unless the churches have had prior opportunity to consider the advisability of the proposed changes.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 47

Article 48

a. Upon the nomination of the classes, synod shall appoint ministers, one from each classis, to serve as synodical deputies for a term designated by synod.

b. When the cooperation of the synodical deputies is required as stipulated in the Church Order, the presence of at least three deputies from the nearest classes shall be prescribed.

c. Besides the duties elsewhere stipulated, the deputies shall, upon request, extend help to the classes in the event of difficulties in order that proper unity, order, and sound doctrine may be maintained.

d. The synodical deputies shall submit a complete report of their actions to the next synod.
Article 49

a. Synod shall appoint a committee to correspond with other Reformed churches so that the Christian Reformed Church may exercise Christian fellowship with other denominations and may promote the unity of the church of Jesus Christ.

b. Synod shall decide which denominations are to be received into ecclesiastical fellowship, and shall establish the rules which govern these relationships.

Article 50

a. Synod shall send delegates to Reformed ecumenical synods in which the Christian Reformed Church cooperates with other denominations which confess and maintain the Reformed faith.

b. Synod may present to such gatherings matters on which it seeks the judgment of the Reformed churches throughout the world.

c. Decisions of Reformed ecumenical synods shall be binding upon the Christian Reformed Church only when they have been ratified by its synod.

III. THE TASK AND ACTIVITIES OF THE CHURCH

A. Worship Services

Article 51

a. The congregation shall assemble for worship, ordinarily twice on the Lord's Day, to hear God's Word, to receive the sacraments, to engage in praise and prayer, and to present gifts of gratitude.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 51-a

b. Worship services shall be held in observance of Christmas, Good Friday, Easter, Ascension Day, and Pentecost, and ordinarily on Old and New Year's Day, and annual days of prayer and thanksgiving.

c. Special worship services may be proclaimed in times of great stress or blessing for church, nation, or world.

Article 52

a. The consistory shall regulate the worship services.

b. The consistory shall see to it that the synodically approved Bible versions, liturgical forms, and songs are used, and that the principles and elements of the order of worship approved by synod are observed.

c. The consistory shall see to it that if liturgical forms are adapted, these adaptations conform to synodical guidelines and that if choirs or others sing in the worship service, they observe the synodical regulations governing the content of the hymns and anthems sung. These regulations shall also apply when supplementary hymns are sung by the congregation.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 52
Article 53

a. The ministers of the Word shall conduct the worship services.
b. Persons licensed to exhort and anyone appointed by the consistory to read a sermon may conduct worship services. They shall, however, refrain from all official acts of the ministry.
c. Only sermons approved by the consistory shall be read in the worship services.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 53

Article 54

a. In the worship services the minister of the Word shall officially explain and apply Holy Scripture.
b. At one of the services each Lord’s Day, the minister shall ordinarily preach the Word as summarized in the Heidelberg Catechism, following its sequence.

Article 55

The sacraments shall be administered upon the authority of the consistory in the public worship service by a minister of the Word, an evangelist, or, in the case of need, an ordained person who has received the approval of classis, with the use of the prescribed forms or adaptations of them that conform to synodical guidelines.

The change in Article 55 proposed by Synod 2001 needs to be adopted by a following synod.

Article 56

The covenant of God shall be sealed to children of believers by holy baptism. The consistory shall see to it that baptism is requested and administered as soon as feasible.

Article 57

Adults who have not been baptized shall receive holy baptism upon public profession of faith. The form for the Baptism of Adults shall be used for such public professions.

Article 58

The baptism of one who comes from another Christian denomination shall be held valid if it has been administered in the name of the triune God, by someone authorized by that denomination.

Article 59

a. Members by baptism shall be admitted to the Lord’s Supper upon a public profession of their faith in Christ with the use of a prescribed form. Before the profession of faith the consistory shall ensure that there be an appropriate examination concerning their motives, faith and life. Their membership shall be designated as “confessing member.” The names of those who are to be admitted to the Lord’s Supper shall be announced to the congregation for approval at least one Sunday before the public profession of faith.

b. Confessing members who have reached the age of eighteen and who have made a commitment to the creeds of the Christian Reformed Church and the responsibilities of adult membership in the church shall be accorded the full rights and privileges of such membership.

c. Confessing members coming from other Christian Reformed congregations shall be admitted to communicant membership upon the presentation of certificates of membership attesting their soundness in doctrine and life.

d. Confessing members coming from churches in ecclesiastical fellowship shall be admitted to communicant membership upon presentation of certificates or statements of membership after the consistory has satisfied itself concerning the doctrine and conduct of the members. Persons coming from other denominations shall be admitted to communicant membership only after the consistory has examined them concerning doctrine and conduct. The consistory shall determine in each case whether to admit them directly or by public reaffirmation or profession of faith. Their names shall be announced to the congregation for approval.

Article 60

a. The Lord’s Supper shall be administered at least once every three months.

b. The consistory shall provide for such administrations as it shall judge most conducive to edification. However, the ceremonies as prescribed in God’s Word shall not be changed.

Article 61

a. The public prayers in the worship service shall include adoration, confession, thanksgiving, supplication, and intercession for all Christendom and all men.

b. In the ministry of prayer the approved liturgical prayers may be used.

Article 62

Offerings for benevolence shall be received regularly in the worship services. Offerings also shall be received for other ministries of the congregation and the joint ministries of the churches.

B. Faith Nurture

Article 63

a. Each church shall minister to its youth—and to the youth in the community who participate—by nurturing their personal faith and trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, by preparing them to profess their faith publicly, and by equipping them to assume their Christian responsibilities in the church and in the world. This nurturing ministry shall include receiving them in love, praying for them, instructing them in the faith, and encourageing and sustaining them in the fellowship of believers.

b. Each church shall instruct the youth in the Scriptures and in the creeds and the confessions of the church, especially the Heidelberg Catechism.
This instruction shall be supervised by the consistory.

Article 64

a. Each church shall minister to its adult members so as to increase their knowledge of the Lord Jesus, to nurture a mature faith in Christ, and to encourage and sustain them in the fellowship of believers.

b. Each church shall provide opportunities for continued instruction of adult members. This instruction shall be supervised by the consistory.

C. Pastoral Care

Article 65

The officebearers of the church shall extend pastoral care to all members of the congregation and to others whenever possible by calling and encouraging them to live by faith, conducting annual home visitation, seeking to restore those who err in doctrine or life, and comforting and giving assistance in adversity.

Article 66

a. Confessing members who remove to another Christian Reformed church are entitled to a certificate, issued by the council, concerning their doctrine and life. When such certificates of membership are requested, they shall ordinarily be mailed to the church of their new residence.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 66-a

b. Members by baptism who remove to another Christian Reformed church shall upon proper request be granted a certificate of baptism, to which such notations as are necessary shall be attached. Such certificates shall as a rule be mailed to the church of their new residence.

c. Ecclesiastical certificates shall be signed by the president and clerk of the council.

Article 67

Members who move to localities where there is no Christian Reformed church may, upon their request, either retain their membership in the church of their former residence, or have their certificates sent to the nearest Christian Reformed church.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 67

Article 68

Each church shall keep a complete record of all births, deaths, baptisms, professions of faith, receptions and dismissals of members, and excommunications and other terminations of membership.
Article 69

a. Consistories shall instruct and admonish those under their spiritual care to marry only in the Lord.

b. Christian marriages should be solemnized with appropriate admonitions, promises, and prayers, as provided for in the official form. Marriages may be solemnized either in a worship service, or in private gatherings of relatives and friends.

c. Ministers shall not solemnize marriages which would be in conflict with the Word of God.

Article 70

Funerals are not ecclesiastical but family affairs, and should be conducted accordingly.

Article 71

The council shall diligently encourage the members of the congregation to establish and maintain good Christian schools, and shall urge parents to have their children instructed in these schools according to the demands of the covenant.

Article 72

The council shall promote societies within the congregation for the study of God's Word and shall serve especially the youth organizations with counsel and assistance. All such societies are under the supervision of the council.

D. Missions

Article 73

a. In obedience to Christ's Great Commission, the churches must bring the gospel to all men at home and abroad, in order to lead them into fellowship with Christ and his church.

b. In fulfilling this mandate, each council shall stimulate the members of the congregation to be witnesses for Christ in word and deed and to support the work of home and foreign missions by their interest, prayers, and gifts.

Article 74

a. Each church shall bring the gospel to unbelievers in its own community. This task shall be sponsored and governed by the council. This task may be executed, when conditions warrant, in cooperation with one or more neighboring churches.

b. Each church shall carry on a ministry of mercy. The deacons shall enable the needy under their care to make use of Christian institutions of mercy. They shall confer and cooperate with diaconates of neighboring churches when this is desirable for the proper performance of their task. They may also seek mutual understandings with agencies in their community which are caring for the needy, so that the gifts may be distributed properly.
Article 75

a. The classes shall, whenever necessary, assist the churches in their local evangelistic programs. The classes themselves may perform this work of evangelism when it is beyond the scope and resources of the local churches. To administer these tasks, each classis shall have a classical home missions committee.

b. The classes shall, whenever necessary, assist the churches in their ministry of mercy. The classes themselves may perform this ministry when it is beyond the scope and resources of the local churches. To administer this task, each classis shall have a classical diaconal committee.

Article 76

a. Synod shall encourage and assist congregations and classes in their work of evangelism, and shall also carry on such home missions activities as are beyond their scope and resources. To administer these activities synod shall appoint a denominational home missions committee, whose work shall be controlled by synodical regulations.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 76-a

b. Synod shall encourage and assist congregations and classes in their ministry of mercy, and shall carry on such work as is beyond their scope and resources. Synod shall appoint a diaconal committee to administer the denominational ministry of mercy. The work of this committee shall be governed by synodical regulations.

Article 77

a. Synod shall determine the field in which the joint world mission work of the churches is to be carried on, regulate the manner in which this task is to be performed, provide for its cooperative support, and encourage the congregations to call and support missionaries. To administer these activities synod shall appoint a denominational world missions committee, whose work shall be controlled by synodical regulations.

—Cf. Supplement, Article 77-a

b. The denominational diaconal committee shall extend the ministry of mercy of the congregations and classes worldwide.

IV. THE ADMONITION AND DISCIPLINE OF THE CHURCH

A. General Provisions

Article 78

The purpose of admonition and discipline is to restore those who err to faithful obedience to God and full fellowship with the congregation, to maintain the holiness of the church, and thus to uphold God's honor.
Article 79
a. The members of the church are accountable to one another in their doctrine and life and have the responsibility to encourage and admonish one another in love.

b. The consistory shall instruct and remind the members of the church of their responsibility and foster a spirit of love and openness within the fellowship so that erring members may be led to repentance and reconciliation.

Article 80
The consistory shall exercise the authority which Christ has given to his church regarding sins of a public nature or those brought to its attention according to the rule of Matthew 18:15-17.

B. The Admonition and Discipline of Members

Article 81
a. Members who have sinned in life or doctrine shall be faithfully discipled by the consistory and, if they persist in their sin, shall be excluded from membership in the church of Christ.

b. Members by baptism who have been excluded from membership in the church and who later repent of their sin shall be received again into its fellowship upon public profession of faith.

c. Confessing members who have been excluded from membership in the church shall be received again into its fellowship upon repentance of their sin.

d. The consistory shall inform the congregation and encourage its involvement in both the exclusion from and the readmission to membership.

—Cf. Supplement, Articles 78-81

C. The Admonition and Discipline of Officebearers

Article 82
All officebearers, in addition to being subject to general discipline, are subject to special discipline, which consists of suspension and deposition from office.

Article 83
Special discipline shall be applied to officebearers if they violate the Form of Subscription, are guilty of neglect or abuse of office, or in any way seriously deviate from sound doctrine and godly conduct.

Article 84
Persons who have been suspended or deposed from office may be reinstated if they give sufficient evidence of repentance and if the church judges that they are able to serve effectively.

—Cf. Supplement, Articles 78-84

—Cf. Supplement, Articles 82-84
CONCLUSION

Article 85

No church shall in any way lord it over another church, and no officebearer shall lord it over another officebearer.

Article 86

This Church Order, having been adopted by common consent, shall be faithfully observed, and any revision thereof shall be made only by synod.
Church Order Supplements are synodical regulations pertaining to the implementation of Church Order articles which are included with the Church Order by decision of specific synods.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 3-a

A. A classis may, in keeping with its understanding of the biblical position on the role of women in ecclesiastical office and in response to local needs and circumstances, declare that the word male in Article 3-a of the Church Order is inoperative and authorize the churches under its jurisdiction to ordain and install women in the offices of elder, minister, and evangelist.

B. Regulations

1. A classis which has decided that the word male in Church Order Article 3-a is inoperative for its constituent churches shall not, out of consideration for the conviction of other classes, delegate women officebearers to synod.

2. A classis which has decided that the word male in Article 3-a is inoperative for its constituent churches shall not have the right to appoint a woman minister to serve as synodical deputy.

3. Synodical deputies shall not be asked to participate against their conviction in any matter relating to ministers of the Word as provided in Articles 6-18 and 82-84 of the Church Order.

4. If a local congregation, in keeping with its understanding of the biblical position on the role of women in ecclesiastical office and in response to local needs and circumstances, desires to call and ordain a female pastor or evangelist but its classis has not authorized its constituent churches to ordain and install women in the offices of elder, minister, and evangelist, the classis is encouraged to declare an exception to Church Order Article 3-a and allow the church to proceed, but it may also make an additional ruling that the female pastor may not be delegated to classis until classis extends an invitation. No members of classis shall be required to participate against their convictions in a candidate’s examination or in processing ministerial credentials.

5. A classis that has not authorized its constituent churches to ordain and install women in the offices of elder, minister, and evangelist shall nevertheless acknowledge a church’s right, in keeping with its understanding of the biblical position on the role of women in ecclesiastical office and in response to local needs and circumstances, to take exception to the decision of classis as it applies to the office of elder, provided that the role of women elders is restricted to the local church in which they hold office.

6. Synodical agencies may appoint or approve the appointment of women as ministers of the Word for fields of labor within classes where women are permitted to hold office. Women ministers may not be approved for fields of labor outside North America where our partner churches do not permit the ordination of women.

7. In the consideration of applications submitted by qualified women for candidacy for the office of minister of the Word, both the Board of Trustees of Calvin Theological Seminary and synod shall ensure that trustees and delegates will not be forced to participate against their convictions. In the declaration of candidacy delegates may exercise their right to abstain from voting.

8. The general secretary shall maintain a list of classes that have authorized their constituent churches to ordain and install women in the offices of elder, minister, and evangelist and shall publish the list annually in the Agenda for Synod and in the Yearbook.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 4-a

Modification for Churches of Classis Red Mesa

In calling to an office, the council shall present to the congregation a nomination of one or more persons for each position to be filled.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 5

Form of Subscription*

We, the undersigned, servants of the divine Word in the ________ Christian Reformed Church in Classis ________, by means of our signatures declare truthfully and in good conscience before the Lord that we sincerely believe that all the articles and points of doctrine set forth in the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism, and the Canons of Dort fully agree with the Word of God.

We promise therefore to teach these doctrines diligently, to defend them faithfully, and not to contradict them, publicly or privately, directly or indirectly, in our preaching, teaching, or writing.

*URCH ORDER SUPPLEMENTS
We pledge moreover not only to reject all errors that conflict with these doctrines, but also to refute them,
and to do everything we can to keep the church free from them.

We promise further that if in the future we come to have any difficulty with these doctrines or reach views differing from them, we will not propose, defend, preach, or teach such views, either publicly or privately, until we have first disclosed them to the council, classis, or synod for examination.
We are prepared moreover to submit to the judgment of the council, classis, or synod, realizing that the consequence of refusal to do so is suspension from office.

We promise in addition that if, to maintain unity and purity in doctrine, the council, classis, or synod considers it proper at any time—on sufficient grounds of concern—to require a fuller explanation of our views concerning any article in the three confessions mentioned above, we are always willing and ready to comply with such a request, realizing here also that the consequence of refusal to do so is suspension from office.

Should we consider ourselves wronged, however,
by the judgment of the council or classis,
we reserve for ourselves the right of appeal;
but until a decision is made on such an appeal, we will acquiesce in the determination and judgment already made.

*To be signed by professors, ministers, evangelists, elders, and deacons when ordained and/or installed in office.
(Acts of Synod 1988, pp. 530-31)

Guidelines and Regulations re Gravamina

Synod declares that gravamina fall into at least two basic types:

1. A confessional-difficulty gravamen: a gravamen in which a subscriber expresses his personal difficulty with the confession but does not call for a revision of the confessions, and

2. A confessional-revision gravamen: a gravamen in which a subscriber makes a specific recommendation for revision of the confessions.
A. Guidelines as to the meaning of subscription to the confessions by means of the Form of Subscription:

1. The person signing the Form of Subscription subscribes without reservation to all the doctrines contained in the standards of the church, as being doctrines which are taught in the Word of God.

2. The subscriber does not by his subscription declare that these doctrines are all stated in the best possible manner, or that the standards of our church cover all that the Scriptures teach on the matters confessed. Nor does he declare that every teaching of the Scriptures is set forth in our confessions, or that every heresy is rejected and refuted by them.

3. A subscriber is only bound by his subscription to those doctrines which are confessed, and is not bound to the references, allusions, and remarks that are incidental to the formulation of these doctrines nor to the theological deductions which some may draw from the doctrines set forth in the confessions. However, no one is free to decide for himself or for the church what is and what is not a doctrine confessed in the standards. In the event that such a question should arise, the decision of the assemblies of the church shall be sought and acquiesced in.

B. Regulations concerning the procedure to be followed in the submission of a confessional-difficulty gravamen:

1. Ministers (whether missionaries, professors, or others not serving congregations as pastors), elders, or deacons shall submit their “difficulties and different sentiments” to their councils for examination and judgment. Should a council decide that it is not able to judge the grava-mens submitted to it, it shall submit the matter to classis for examination and judgment. If the classis, after examination, judges that it is unable to decide the matter, it may submit it to synod, in accordance with the principles of the Church Order, Article 28b.

2. In all instances of confessional-difficulty gravamina, the matter shall not be open for discussion by the whole church since this type of gravamen is a personal request for information and/or clarification of the confession. Hence this type of gravamen should be dealt with pastorally and personally by the assembly addressed.

C. Regulations concerning the procedure to be followed in the submission of a confessional-revision gravamen:

1. The basic assumption of the church in requiring subscription to the Form of Subscription is that “all the articles and points of doctrine” contained in the confessions of the church “do fully agree with the Word of God.”
The burden of proof, therefore, rests upon the subscriber who calls upon the church to justify or revise her confessions.

2. Ministers (including missionaries, professors, or all others not serving congregations as pastors), elders, or deacons shall submit their gravam-ina calling for revision of the confessions to their councils for examination and judgment. Should the council decide that it is not able to judge the gravamen submitted to it, it shall submit the matter to classis for examination and judgment. If the classis, after examination, judges that it is unable to decide the matter, classis may submit it to synod, in accordance with the principles of the Church Order, Article 28-b.

3. If the gravamen is adopted by the council and the classis as its own, it becomes an overture to the broader assemblies and therefore it is open for discussion in the whole church.

4. If the gravamen is rejected by the classis it may be appealed to synod; and when the constituted synod declares the matter to be legally before it for action, all the signers of the Form of Subscription shall be free to discuss it together with the whole church until adjudicated by synod.

5. Since the subscriber has the right of appeal from the judgment of a council to classis and from classis to synod, the mere fact that the matter is being appealed shall not be a reason for suspending or otherwise disciplining an officebearer, provided other provisions of the Form of Subscription and the Church Order are observed.

6. A revision of the confessions shall not be adopted by synod until the whole church membership has had adequate opportunity to consider it.

Grounds:

a. The history of the functioning of the Form of Subscription shows that if such guidelines and regulations had been available and followed, considerable delay and confusion might have been avoided.

b. These guidelines and regulations will make the signing of the Form of Subscription more meaningful and will remove some common misunderstandings that now exist on the part of many officebearers.

c. These guidelines and regulations will prove helpful to council, classis, and synod in dealing with matters submitted to them for examination in accordance with the Form of Subscription.

(Acts of Synod 1976, pp. 68-70)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 6

A. Students having studied theology at other seminaries shall at least take the senior year at our seminary before they shall be declared eligible for call in our churches.

(Acts of Synod 1924, p. 38)

B. Nonregular students shall be declared candidates by synod after being interviewed by the board. Recommendations regarding academic qualifications, doctrinal soundness, spiritual fitness, and personality are to be presented to the board by the Calvin Seminary faculty and by the faculties of such schools where the applicant has studied.

(Acts of Synod 1961, p. 55)

C. Regulations for declaring candidacy between the annual synods

1. Applications for candidacy examination may be made by students who
   a. have completed all core courses and field education practicums, and
b. are within twelve hours of completing course work, and
c. are within ten units of completing field education requirements.

2. Synod may declare such students to be candidates contingent upon completion of all remaining requirements.

3. When a student completes all remaining requirements, the executive committee of the Board of Trustees shall so inform the general secretary, who will then announce the candidate’s eligibility for call.

4. Any student who does not complete the remaining requirements by March 1 must reapply for candidacy to the secretary of the Board of Trustees.

5. Any such candidate who has not received and accepted a call to one of our churches and desires to have his candidacy continued must make application to the secretary of the Board of Trustees by May 15.

See also Supplement, Article 10.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 7

A. Eligibility for Call by Way of Article 7

1. If anyone wishes to be admitted to the ministry of the Word in accordance with Article 7, he should apply to his council and after that to the classis. The classis shall receive from the petitioner a statement of health, an evaluated psychological report, and a written recommendation from the council. Together with the synodical deputies, the classis shall first of all examine the written credentials concerning the required qualifications as stated in Article 7 and thereupon the classis itself shall proceed to examine him to ascertain whether these qualifications be present. If the preliminary judgment is favorable, the petitioner is to be given the right, for some time, to exhort in vacant churches within the classis. He shall also exhort a few times in churches that are not vacant in the presence of the respective ministers of these churches. The length of this period of probation is to be determined by classis.

2. At the close of the period of probation, the classis, together with the aforesaid synodical deputies, shall take a final decision regarding the petitioner’s “exceptional gifts.” If the decision is in the affirmative, the classis shall subject the petitioner to a preparatory examination in the following subjects:

   a. Exegesis of the Old and New Testaments
   b. Bible History
   c. Dogmatics
   d. General and American Church History

3. If the examination is favorable to the petitioner, he shall be declared eligible for a call.
4. The final classical (peremptory) examination follows later in accordance with existing regulations, excepting the ancient languages.

(Agenda 1920, pp. 26-27; Acts of Synod 1922, pp. 72-73)

B. Declarations re Admittance by Way of Article 7

1. Synod reminds the churches that Article 7 of the Church Order was adopted in a time when there was a dire need for ministers of the Word. This article should function only in case of great need.

2. The “gifts” mentioned in Article 7 should be possessed by a candidate in a very exceptional measure. No one should be considered unless he has extraordinary qualities.

3. Not only the qualifications mentioned in Article 7 should be considered but such a candidate should also possess exceptional knowledge of the Word, knowledge of spiritual needs, and native ability to apply the Word.

4. This article should never be used as a means to ordain all lay workers who may desire such, and whose prestige would be increased by such action. The churches are reminded that the regular door to the ministry is a thorough academic training. This must be maintained in theory and practice.

(Acts of Synod 1947, p. 94)

C. Special Advice for Indian Mission Field

1. That the following be the method by which the ordination of native workers is to be effected:
   a. That capable men, who feel the call to the gospel ministry, be encouraged to pursue the regular course of study for ordination.
   b. That those who are not able to pursue that course, and who possess exceptional gifts, be advised to seek ordination under the pattern prescribed by Article 7 of the Church Order, and make known their desire to their council, or Indian General Conference, where no council exists.

2. For those seeking ordination by way of Article 7 of the Church Order, the following procedure is recommended:
   a. The written credentials of the council or General Conference concerning the required qualifications stated in Article 7 are to be forwarded to Classis Red Mesa.
   b. Upon receipt of application, together with the recommendation of the council or the favorable advice of the General Conference, the classis, in conjunction with the synodical deputies, shall determine whether it considers the aspirant eligible for further examination under Article 7.
   c. If the preliminary judgment is favorable, the applicant will be instructed to speak a word of edification at several of the preaching centers on the Indian Field in the presence of the missionary and in at least two of the churches of classis in the presence of the ministers of these churches. Classis shall regulate these appointments and determine the length of this period of probation.

d. At the termination of this period of probation the classis, in conjunction with the synodical deputies, shall take a final decision regarding the qualifications of the candidate. If the decision is in the affirmative, the classis shall give the applicant a preliminary examination in the following branches: (1) Exegesis of the English Old and New Testaments; (2) Bible History; (3) Dogmatics; (4) Church History; (5) Practica.

e. The missionary of the applicant as representative of Indian General Conference shall be present in an advisory capacity at those sessions of classis in which the case of the applicant is being considered.

f. If the applicant is successful in the examination he is declared eligible for a call.

g. The examination for ordination follows later according to existing rules, except in the classical languages.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 8

A. Nominating Ministers Who Have Served Their Present Churches Less Than Two Years

The synod judges that councils of vacant churches when nominating, should not place in nomination the names of ministers who have served their present churches less than two years, unless there are very special and weighty reasons. And if the counselor deems it necessary, in the name of classis, to approve a nomination bearing the name of a minister having served his present church less than two years, he shall give account of such action to the classis.

(Acts of Synod 1916, p. 29)

B. Calling Same Minister Within a Year

Calling the same minister twice for the same vacancy may not take place within a year without the advice of classis.

(Acts of Synod 1906, p. 16)

C. Calling Ministers for a Specified Term of Service

1. If the letter of call designates a specific term, the letter shall also include a statement concerning the possibility and method for reappointment and the financial arrangements which will be made in the event that the appointment is not extended beyond the specified term.

2. The church's counselor, on behalf of classis, shall make sure the termination procedures and arrangements stated in a letter of call are fair and reasonable.

3. When a call is terminated following the procedure agreed to in the letter of call, the minister shall be eligible for a call for a period of two years, after which time the classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, shall declare him to be released from the ministerial office.
valid reasons the classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, may extend his eligibility for call on a yearly basis.

(Acts of Synod 1987, p. 575)

4. When a term call is extended to a candidate, it shall ordinarily include a term of service of not less than two years.

(Acts of Synod 2000, p. 712)

D. Calling Ministers from Other Denominations

1. A church may consider calling a minister of another denomination only if it has put forth a sustained and realistic effort to obtain a minister from within the Christian Reformed Church. This shall apply only to a church which continues to have a viable ministry.

2. A minister of another denomination desiring to be declared eligible for a call to a Christian Reformed church shall make application to the Christian Reformed classis in which, or nearest which, his field of labor is located.

3. The approval of the synodical deputies regarding the question of need for ministers from other denominations shall be obtained at a meeting of classis and at a later classis meeting for the appropriate examination.
Notification of the establishment of need and the impending examination shall be made in The Banner.

4. A council shall not nominate a minister from another denomination for a call without the approval of its classis. The classis shall receive from the minister a statement of health, appropriate diplomas, and the evaluated psychological report prior to beginning the determination of need. The classis will schedule the colloquium doctum only after determining the need, and with the concurrence of the synodical deputies. A written specification of the need will be a part of the report of the synodical deputies.

5. The need for calling a minister of another denomination shall be acknowledged when:

a. The minister to be called has such extraordinary qualifications that the church recognizes that it would be important for the denomination to acquire his service, or,

b. The need of a particular congregation for a pastor is so urgent that it can be met only by calling a minister from another denomination, or,

c. The minister is a new-church developer and is being called to start a new church, or

d. There is a need for indigenous leadership in a multicultural or ethnic minority church.

6. The classis shall provide such written specification of the need for calling a minister of another denomination or of making such a minister available for a call in the Christian Reformed Church as will satisfy the synodical deputies in their concurrence.
7. Classis and synodical deputies shall give objective consideration to such proposed nominations and such requests to be made eligible for call, seeking to be entirely faithful to the established regulations of synod.

8. At the scheduled colloquium doctum, the applicant or nominee shall present a testimonial from his council or classis or presbytery, concerning his purity of doctrine and sanctity of life.

   (It is conceivable that just because the applicant is loyal to the Word and the creeds that he is adjudged persona non grata by his own ecclesiastical assemblies and that he would not be granted such a testimonial. Should such be the case, a careful preliminary investigation must be made by the classis in consultation with the synodical deputies. The report of this investigation, if satisfactory to the classis and synodical deputies, will serve under such circumstances in lieu of the testimonial.)

9. The following criteria shall be applied for approving or disapproving the proposed nominee or applicant:
   a. soundness of doctrine
   b. sanctity of life
   c. knowledge and appreciation of Christian Reformed practice and usage

10. When ministers from other countries are being proposed for nomination or request an examination to be made eligible for call, the synodical deputies shall use the following additional criteria:
    a. ability to speak, or learn, the English language
    b. ability to adjust to the American/Canadian situation
    c. age limit of forty years (as a general rule)

11. The proposed nominee or applicant, having sustained the examination and having received the approbation of the synodical deputies, may now be called or declared eligible for call, as the case may be. No further examination or colloquium doctum will be required.

   (Acts of Synod 1984, pp. 642-43)

E. Determination of Need

1. Synod directs its synodical deputies to take specific and special note of the “need” factor when requested to give their advice to the councils and/or classes in the calling of ministers from other denominations and in declaring ministers from other denominations available for call in the Christian Reformed Church at their own request.

2. Synod requires of the councils and/or classes such written specification of the “need” for approving such ministers and their calling as will satisfy the synodical deputies in their concurrence, which written specification shall then become part of the report of the synodical deputies to be submitted for synodical approval.

   Grounds:
   a. The requirement that there be a clear need for admitting ministers from other denominations is adequately set forth in synodical regulations. (Cf. Supplement, Article 8.)
b. Without a specific report on the matter of need there is no way for synod to know whether this aspect of its concern is being taken seriously, since present regulations do not require a report on the grounds of concurrence.

c. It is the judgment of many that the Christian Reformed Church is at present not in need of admitting any more ministers from other denominations. However, such ministers are still being admitted each year. If there is such need it ought to be demonstrable.

d. There are clear indications that many candidates will be available for service in the Christian Reformed Church, having been trained specifically for the Christian Reformed Church ministry, who may not be able to find a place for service to the church because of a limited number of churches in need of ministers. Therefore, the matter of demonstrated need becomes crucially important.

(Acts of Synod 1979, p. 73)

F. Joint Ministry of Ministers from Churches in Ecclesiastical Fellowship

Ministers of denominations in ecclesiastical fellowship with the Christian Reformed Church may be called by way of exception to serve in the Christian Reformed Church while jointly serving ministries within their own denominations. This arrangement requires the approval of classis and the concurrence of the synodical deputies. The specific need for their services must be demonstrated and the pension fund arrangements must be satisfactorily met in the denomination holding the minister’s credentials.

Ministers of denominations in ecclesiastical fellowship who so serve churches in the Christian Reformed Church will be accorded the right of delegation to classis and participation in classical committee work for the duration of their time of service in the Christian Reformed Church. This right of delegation and participation shall not extend beyond the boundaries of the classis.

The Christian Reformed Church will by way of exception allow its ministers to be called by a congregation of a denomination in ecclesiastical fellowship if such a minister jointly serves in a congregation of the denomination in ecclesiastical fellowship and in a congregation of the Christian Reformed Church.

(Acts of Synod 1997, p. 663)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 10

Rules of Procedure Related to Candidates

1. The letter of call to a candidate must indicate the provisional nature of this call until the classical examination has been sustained.

Grounds:

a. The calling church cannot issue an unconditional call to a candidate before the classical examination has been sustained.

b. This conditional character of the letter of call underscores the decisive nature of the classical examination.
2. The date of ordination shall be officially announced only after the candidate has passed the examination.

Ground: Announcing the date of ordination before the classical examination is completed tends to prejudge the outcome of the examination.

3. The candidate shall preach a sermon on a text assigned by classis, in an official worship service in the presence of classical representatives, preferably on the Sunday preceding the meeting of classis, and in the church to which he has been called.

Grounds:

a. The sermon is such an important part of the examination that it warrants delivery in a regular worship service.

b. It is extremely difficult for a candidate to preach and to proclaim the Word of God in a deliberative meeting such as classis.

4. A copy of the candidate's sermon shall be provided by classis to the synodical deputies and to the delegates to classis.

Ground: This will be conducive to a thorough examination of the contents of the sermon by all who are called upon to pass judgment at classis.

5. In addition to the required sermon on an assigned text, the candidate shall submit to each of the sermon critics of classis copies of two other sermons which he has preached as a student, one based on a Scripture text and the other on a Lord's Day of the Heidelberg Catechism. The combination of Scripture texts should include both the Old and the New Testament. These sermons shall not include those which have been used in practice preaching, or for academic evaluation, in the seminary.

Grounds:

a. The submission of additional sermons provides a better basis for sermon evaluation at this examination which is decisive for the candidate's ordination.

b. The inclusion of a sermon on the Heidelberg Catechism is consistent with the requirement of the Church Order regarding catechism preaching (Article 54-b).

(Aacts of Synod 1975, p. 90)

6. Synod advises the classes, with reference to the credentials required by classes, that synod's declaration of candidacy may be taken to certify that the candidates have met the academic requirements for candidacy, have been found in good health, and have been recommended by a council. No further inquiry into these matters need ordinarily be made by a classis at the examination for ordination.

(Aacts of Synod 1978, p. 24)

7. Four classical delegates shall be appointed as the official examiners, two to function as sermon critics and to be present at the worship service in which the total sermon is being preached, and two to conduct the actual examination at the time classis meets.
Grounds:

a. A better rapport with the candidate will be established with a smaller number of examiners.

b. The small number of examiners needed enables the classis to make a more appropriate selection of men for this task.

8. Synod adopted the following schedule for classical examination:

   a. Introduction: a classical examiner shall introduce the candidate to the classis.

   b. The examination proper shall consist of inquiry into three main areas as follows:

      1) Practica (no time limit)

         a) The classical examiner shall inquire into the candidate’s relationship to God and his commitment to the ministry, his understanding of the meaning and relevance of the ministry for our times, his loyalty to the church, and related matters.

         b) The synodical deputies and delegates shall have opportunity to ask additional questions.

         c) Before proceeding to the next area of inquiry, a motion to proceed shall carry.

      2) Sermon Evaluation

         a) In the presence of the candidate, the written sermon shall be evaluated, and attention shall be given to his manner of conducting a worship service.

         b) Additional questions with reference to the sermon and its delivery shall be allowed.

         c) Before proceeding to the next area, a motion to proceed shall carry with the concurrence of the synodical deputies.

      3) Biblical and Theological Position (minimum, thirty minutes per candidate)

         a) The examiner shall inquire into the candidate’s biblical and theological judgment, competence, and soundness.

         b) Opportunity shall be provided for additional questions (no specific time limit).

   c. Procedure for admitting to the ministry:

      1) A motion to admit shall be received and given preliminary consideration in executive session.

      2) Prayer for the guidance of the Holy Spirit shall be offered.

      3) The synodical deputies shall leave the floor to prepare their recommendation.

      4) The classis shall vote by ballot.

      5) The synodical deputies shall offer their written statement, from which it will become evident whether or not they can concur with the decision of classis.
6) In the event they do not concur, the classis and the synodical deputies may try to reach a unified decision.
7) In the event that agreement cannot be reached between them, the matter is automatically referred to the synod for final adjudication.

Grounds:

a. This procedure will allow both the classis and the synodical deputies to arrive at their decisions independently.
b. The procedure previously adopted can influence the classis unduly.
c. The Church Order consistently speaks about “concurring advice of the synodical deputies.” There can be no concurring advice if the classis does not reach its decision at the same time as the synodical deputies.

(Acts of Synod 1972, pp. 44-46)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 12-c

Regulations for the application of Article 12-c of the Church Order to specific tasks and situations:

a. The calling church shall secure the prior approval of classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, for each new ministerial position, by providing classis with the following information:

1) The description of the official position (purposes, duties, qualifications, etc.) as determined by the calling church in consultation with cooperating agencies as applicable.
2) The evidence that the minister will be directly accountable to the calling church, including an outline of requirements for reporting to the calling church, and supervision by the calling church, in consultation with cooperating agencies as applicable.
3) The demonstration that the position will be consistent with his calling as a minister of the Word.
4) When any position having been declared by a classis to be “spiritual in character and directly related to the ministerial calling” prior to June 1978, becomes vacant, this position shall be reviewed in light of Articles 11-14 of the Church Order before another call is issued.

Ground: The revisions of the Church Order place this matter in clearer perspective.

b. When a new ministry opportunity can be met only by immediate action, the calling church (and the appropriate denominational agency) may obtain provisional approval from the classical committee, subject to subsequent approval by classis with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies. In the event that the provisional approval is not sustained and he desires to maintain his position, the minister may be honorably released from office and may be readmitted according to the regulations of the Church Order. (Cf. Article 14-e.)

c. Prior to calling a minister of the Word to any chaplaincy ministry, the calling church also is required to obtain the endorsement of the

d. The church visitors of classis shall inquire annually into the supervision of the calling church toward said minister(s) as well as the reporting of said minister(s) to the calling church. The church visitors shall inform classis of departure from the approved provisions for supervision and reporting.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 13-b

Regulations Pertaining to Article 13-b of the Church Order

A minister whose service is requested by a congregation outside the Christian Reformed Church may be loaned temporarily to serve such a church while still retaining his ministerial status in the Christian Reformed Church in keeping with the following regulations:

a. The congregation seeking the services of the Christian Reformed minister is desirous of the Reformed faith and seriously contemplates affiliation with the Christian Reformed Church or some other Reformed denomination, or is already in a Reformed denomination and seeks to be strengthened in the Reformed faith.

b. The minister contemplating service in an undenominational church acknowledges it as his duty to bring such a church into the Christian Reformed Church, or at least into a Reformed denomination similar to the Christian Reformed Church.

c. The duties of the minister are spiritual in character and directly related to the ministerial calling, and such duties do not conflict with his commitment to the faith and practice of the Christian Reformed Church as required by his signature to the Form of Subscription.

d. If the congregation to be served is in close proximity to a Christian Reformed congregation of another classis, the approval of that classis shall be required, in addition to the approval of the classis of the minister’s calling church, and the synodical deputies.

e. The loaning of such ministerial services may be for a period of time not to exceed two years. Extension of not more than two years each may be granted if circumstances warrant, with the approval of classis and the synodical deputies.

f. Should the minister become subject to discipline, the non-Christian Reformed congregation which he is serving shall have the right to suspend him from his service to that church, but suspension from office and deposition may be applied only by the Christian Reformed Church.

g. Continuation under the Christian Reformed Church Pension Plan shall require that the minister, or the non-Christian Reformed church which he serves, shall contribute to the ministers’ pension fund the amount which is determined annually by the Ministers’ Pension Funds committees for ministers serving in extraordinary positions outside of our denomination.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 14-b

Declaration regarding ministers who resign from the CRC

a. Synod directed the churches and classes dealing with ministers who depart from the Christian Reformed Church in North America (CRCNA) in order to seek ordination in the ministry of the Word in another church to take note of the statement made by Synod 1978 that “Synod has instructed all our churches and classes that in all cases of resignation a proper resolution of dismissal must be adopted with the concurring advice of synodical deputies” and to realize that this statement allows for a broad degree of flexibility in responding to such situations (cf. Acts of Synod 1978, p. 73).

Ground: Every situation has a unique combination of contributing factors, and it is not possible to use a standardized approach; nor is it desirable to do so.

b. Synod directed the churches and classes to take into account the manner and spirit in which a minister has acted during the time leading up to and including his departure from office when determining what action to take. (Some situations may require a deposition; others may require only a simple release from office.)

c. Synod encouraged the churches and classes

1) To recognize carefully the conditions and circumstances of a particular case that may come to their attention (e.g., whether it be a formal or a de facto resignation) and, having done so,

2) To make a declaration reflecting the resigned minister’s status that is appropriate to the way and spirit in which the minister acted during the time leading up to and including his resignation from office. Such a declaration could reflect one of the following:

   a) The resigned minister is honorably released.
   b) The resigned minister is released.
   c) The resigned minister is dismissed.
   d) The resigned minister is in the status of one deposed.

Note: In distinction from a minister who retires, any resigned minister no longer retains the honor and title of minister of the Word in, nor has an official connection with, the Christian Reformed Church in North America (cf. Church Order Article 18-b).

d. Synod encouraged churches and classes to prayerfully consider the following principles in their deliberations:

1) Schismatic activities are to be considered a serious violation of the sacred trust associated with ordination and a dishonoring of God which results in pain and brokenness in the body of Christ.
2) All declarations by churches and classes should clearly evidence hope for the possibility of restoration and mutual reconciliation.

(Acts of Synod 1993, pp. 581-82)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 14-c

The provisions of Supplement Article 14-b also apply to Article 14-c, especially in those situations when ministers resign under discipline or to avoid discipline.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 15

Guidelines for Churches Whose Ministers Receive Salary Support from Other Employment

1. The church is responsible for a total compensation package proportionate to the time spent in ministry to the church (forty-eight hours equals full time). The compensation package shall ordinarily be based on the FSC minimum salary, fringe benefits, and housing costs.

2. Since the compensation package includes a percentage allowance for health insurance, the minister is expected to secure adequate health insurance for himself and his family.

3. The value of the parsonage provided by the congregation may be used for part or all of the compensation package.

4. The minister shall receive pension credits in the Ministers’ Pension Fund proportionate to the percentage of time he devotes to the duties of the church. Eligibility for full pension credit may be secured if full contribution to the Ministers’ Pension Plan is made.

5. The nature and amount of time of the task(s) other than ministry shall be specified. The average amount of time expended upon the total of the ministerial and nonministerial tasks shall not exceed sixty hours per week.

(Acts of Synod 1987, p. 572)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 17

Provisions regulating a release from ministerial service in a congregation

a. If a classis has reason to believe that the released minister needs evaluation and assistance before accepting another call, it shall specify at the time of release what is required before the minister may receive and accept a call.

b. If a classis has reason to believe that before a congregation calls another pastor it needs a time of healing and preparing itself for an effective relationship with a new minister, it shall instruct the classical church counselor not to sign a letter of call until the classis and the church council decide that this process is complete (cf. Church Order Art. 9).

c. A minister who has been released from active ministerial service in a congregation according to Article 17 of the Church Order, and who has transferred his membership to another congregation, may, after meeting all stipulations placed upon him and with the approval of classis, have his official connection transferred to the consistory of the congregation of which he is a member.

(Acts of Synod 1998, p. 400)

Note: Councils and Classes should take note of the regulations regarding "release from ministerial service" adopted by Synod 1998 (see Acts of Synod 1998, pp. 392-96).

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 18

Retirement

Ministers shall have the privilege of retiring at the age of sixty-five years.

(Acts of Synod 1956, p. 19)

Ministerial professors in the college and seminary shall be granted the privilege of honorable retirement with full retirement benefits at the age of sixty-five, if they so desire.

(Acts of Synod 1960, p. 35)

Supervision of an emeritus minister (except when he remains as a member in his congregation, or when the emeritation is expected to be of a temporary nature) may be transferred, at his request, to the church of which he becomes a member after emeritation.

This transfer is to be made in the following manner: the council of the church which the emeritus minister served last formally requests the council of the church which the emeritus minister wishes to join, to exercise supervision over him.

(Acts of Synod 1968, p. 69)

Early Retirement Option

Ministers of the Word shall be granted the privilege of retiring at the age of fifty-five years, with the approval of the classes involved, under the reduced pension scale adopted by the Synod 1978.

(Acts of Synod 1993, p. 579)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 22

A. Rules for Licensure

1. The Board of Trustees of Calvin College and Seminary may grant licensure to conduct religious services in our church only to such as
   a. are enrolled as regular students in our seminary.
   b. have successfully passed the final examination of the junior year in the seminary.

2. The board shall not grant licensure to such students till it has made sure of the following with respect to each applicant:
   a. That he is a member in good standing in our churches.
b. That he has spiritual qualifications necessary for the ministry, and that he considers himself called of God to prepare himself for the office of ministering the gospel of Jesus Christ.

c. That he intends to enter the ministry of the Christian Reformed Church.

d. That he has sufficient knowledge of the Bible, and especially of our Reformed principles, to act as a guide to others.

e. That he speaks acceptably and to the edification of the churches. It is left to the discretion of the board, however, whether it will obtain this information by consulting the seminary faculty or by examining the applicant.

3. The board has the right to extend the licensure of those who want to take post-graduate work, but with the understanding a. That this privilege is to be granted only to such who are taking post-graduate work in theology, and declare that it is their definite intention to enter the ministry of the Christian Reformed Church.

b. That this extension is valid for no more than one year.

c. That further extension may be given at the end of the first year in case the applicant makes his request in writing, and at the end of the second year if he appears in person and is willing to submit to another examination (the latter part of this Rule 3, c does not apply to those who are taking post-graduate work in theology outside of the United States or Canada).

4. The board is obliged to revoke the licensure

a. Of those who have completed their theological studies but have failed to take steps to enter into the sacred ministry of the Word.

b. Of those undergraduates who either discontinue their studies or fail to enroll again at the seminary.

(Acts of Synod 1936, pp. 46-48)

B. Licensure of International Students

1. The student must be a communicant member of a sound Reformed church and must be a regular or special student at our seminary.

2. The student must have sufficient training at our school so that the faculty can recommend him, as to his academic competence and ability to speak fluent English.

3. The student must have completed the course in homiletics required of our students or passed an equivalent course in some other school, and must demonstrate his ability to exhort to the satisfaction of our professor in homiletics.

4. The request for licensure must be sent to the secretary of the board.

5. The board or its executive committee must interview the applicant.

6. The exhorting of the student must be under the auspices of the school; he must not make his own arrangements.

7. Licensure will be in force while he is a student at school. Extension of licensure must be made by special application.

(Acts of Synod 1961, p. 36)
C. Licensure of Students from Multiracial Groups

In those cultures with a tradition of early ordination, with completion of theological education following (e.g., Black and Hispanic), an individual who has completed one-half of the M.Min. degree requirements may be licensed for all pastoral duties within the congregation, including the administration of the sacraments, under supervision of the council. Such licensure by the classis to be renewable while he continues to work at completing requirements for the M.Min. degree leading to his ordination as a minister of the Word.

(Acts of Synod 1985, p. 752)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 23-b

The office of evangelist is applicable to a variety of ministries, provided that these ministries fit the guidelines adopted by Synod 2001 and that the other Church Order and synodical regulations for the office of evangelist are observed. These include the ministries such as education, evangelism, music, and ministries to children, youth, adults, and others within or outside of the congregation. Before examining a person for the office of evangelist or granting permission to install a previously ordained evangelist in a new position, the classis, with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies, will determine whether or not the position to which the person is being called fits the guidelines adopted by Synod 2001. In addition, the candidate for the office of evangelist must have proven ability to function in the ministry to which he or she is being called.

The candidate shall also sustain a classical examination. The classical examination shall include the following elements:

1) Presentation of the following documents
   a) A conciliar recommendation from the church in which the appointee holds membership
   b) Evidence (diplomas, transcripts, etc.) of formal general education and of specialized training in the ministry area to which the candidate is being called
   c) A copy of the letter of appointment from the church that is requesting ordination of the candidate as evangelist
   d) A copy of the candidate’s letter of acceptance
2) Where applicable, presentation of a sermon
   a) In an official worship service, preferably on the Sunday preceding the meeting of classis and in the church to which the candidate for ordination has been called, the evangelist shall preach a sermon on a text assigned by classis. Two members of classis shall be present to serve as sermon critics.
   b) A copy of the sermon shall be provided to the classical delegates. In the presence of the evangelist, the sermon critics shall evaluate the sermon and the evangelist’s manner of conducting the entire worship service.
3) Examination in the following areas
   a) Knowledge of Scripture

CHURCH ORDER SUPPLEMENTS
b) Knowledge of Reformed doctrine

c) Knowledge of the standards of the church and the Church Order

d) Practical matters regarding Christian testimony, walk of life, relationships with others, love for the church, approach to ministry, and promotion of Christ's kingdom

When the evangelist accepts another call, his ordination shall require the approval of the classis to which his calling church belongs, to which the evangelist shall have presented good ecclesiastical testimonies of doctrine and life given to him by his former council and classis.

The classis shall ensure that the candidate meets the standards of character, knowledge, and skill adopted by Synod 2000 (Acts of Synod 2000, pp. 702-4).

The classis shall also ensure that evangelists, especially those working at some distance from their calling congregations, will have proper supervision and support for the ministry.

(Acts of Synod 2001, pp. 507-08)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 30-a

PROCEDURAL RULES APPLICABLE TO APPEALS UNDER ARTICLE 30-A OF THE CHURCH ORDER WHEN THE JUDICIAL CODE IS NOT INVOKED

A. Appeal by a Member (Appellant) from a Decision or Action of a Council (Respondent)

1. Time Limit. An appeal must be made within six (6) months of the decision or action appealed from. If, however, the action or decision appealed from creates a continuous or repeating practice, the appeal is timely if filed within six (6) months after the practice is exercised. A classis may accept a late appeal if classis is satisfied that the appellant has reasonable cause for being late.

2. Oral Presentation. When classis considers the appeal, both appellant and respondent shall be allowed reasonable time to make an oral presentation with respect to the appeal.

3. Action by Classis. The classis shall consider and decide every appeal properly submitted to it. Classis shall decide on the appeal within one (1) year from the date the appeal is received by the stated clerk of classis. If classis has not decided an appeal within the one (1)-year period allowed, either the appellant or the respondent has the right to appeal the matter to synod without waiting for decision of classis.

4. Appeal to Synod. Both the appellant and the respondent have the right to appeal the decision of classis to synod.
B. Appeals to Synod by Members or Assemblies (Appellant) from Decision of Classis (Respondent)

1. Time Limit. An appeal must be filed within ninety (90) days after the decision or action appealed.

2. Normally for an appeal to be considered by a synod in any year the appeal must be in the hands of the general secretary by March 15 of that year. If an appeal is filed after March 15, it shall not be heard by the synod of the same year; however, the Synodical Interim Committee, upon the recommendation of the general secretary, may decide to submit the appeal to the synod of the same year.

3. Normally appeals will not be printed in the agenda for synod. However, if the Synodical Interim Committee, upon recommendation of the general secretary, decides that an appeal raises an issue the resolution of which by synod will likely have significant application outside of and beyond the classis from which the appeal came, the appeal and any response to it or, at the discretion of the general secretary, an abbreviated version of the appeal and response will be printed in the agenda. If an appeal is filed before March 15 but the deadline for response falls after March 15, the general secretary, after conferring with the respondent, may decide to print the appeal and distribute any responses to delegates at the beginning of synod or to hold the appeal over to the next synod.

4. The appellant and the respondent shall have the right to appear before the advisory committee of synod to explain their positions. Requests to be heard shall be directed to the general secretary, who shall transmit them to the chairperson of the advisory committee.

5. The appellant and the respondent shall have the right to be present during the presentation of the case at synod, and, upon recommendation of the advisory committee and with the approval of synod, they shall have the privilege of explaining and defending their positions on the floor of synod.

6. The advisory committee shall present a clear and adequate statement of the content of each appeal and response to the entire synod.

7. Copies of the appeals and responses not appearing in the agenda and, if possible, the principal related documents shall be sent to the members of the appointed advisory committee as soon as possible.

C. General Rules

1. Filing an appeal. An appeal must be in writing and filed with the stated clerk or general secretary of the assembly appealed to. A copy shall be promptly given to the clerk of the assembly whose action is being appealed and to any other party to the appeal.

2. Form of Appeal. No specific form is prescribed. However, an appeal should contain at least the following elements:
   a. The name of the appellant.
   b. The name of the body against which the appeal is being made.
   c. The decision which is being appealed.
d. The reasons why the appealed decision is believed to be wrong.
e. Background information which will enable the assembly to make a proper decision.
f. A statement defining clearly what action the appellant desires the assembly to take.

3. Respondent’s Submission. The respondent shall be entitled to submit a response to the appeal. Such submission shall be made to the clerk of the assembly appealed to within sixty (60) days from the date the respondent has received a copy of the appeal. A copy of such submission shall be promptly given to the appellant.

4. In any appearance before an assembly or a committee of an assembly, the appellant and the respondent shall have the right to be represented or counseled by a member of the church.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 30-b

This supplement deals with two separate matters: synodical review of application for candidacy by persons not recommended by the Calvin Theological Seminary (CTS) Board of Trustees and appeals from decisions, acts, or course of conduct of agencies, boards, or committees of the Christian Reformed Church. The separate sets of procedural rules applicable to these two matters are set forth below.

Part A. Synodical review of application for candidacy by persons not recommended by the CTS Board of Trustees.

In the event that an applicant should feel aggrieved by or dissatisfied with a decision of the CTS Board of Trustees regarding the processing of the applicant’s application for candidacy status, the following procedure will give the applicant recourse to synod. This procedure is not an appropriate avenue by which to ask synod for amendment of the Church Order or change in relevant synodical decisions. Rather, it provides the right for an applicant to have the application for candidacy considered by synod in the light of the then-existing requirements for candidacy, whether those requirements are set out in the Church Order or in other decisions of synod. This procedure is a special kind of appeal: the Judicial Code shall not be invoked, and the rules relating to other appeals shall not apply.

1. If the CTS Board of Trustees or its designee declines to process an application for candidacy at any stage or if candidacy is not going to be recommended, the seminary president shall promptly inform the applicant in writing of such act or decision and the reasons therefor.

2. Notwithstanding such notice, the applicant has the option to have the application processed, including submission to synod. To exercise this option, the applicant must give written notice of such exercise to the president of the seminary and to the general secretary of the Christian Reformed Church within fourteen (14) days after the receipt of the notice from the seminary president.

3. If the applicant gives the notice described in the foregoing paragraph, the application shall be processed, and the CTS Board of Trustees shall submit such application to synod with such recommendations and supporting reasons as the board shall consider appropriate.

4. At least ten (10) days before synod is scheduled to convene, the applicant shall submit to the general secretary, with a copy to the secretary of the CTS Board of Trustees, a written statement of facts, argument, and documents in support of the application.

5. Synod shall review the application and documents in support thereof, the decision of the board, and the reasons for such decision. The applicant and the CTS Board of Trustees shall have the right to make a presentation to the assigned advisory committee, and, if that committee recommends and synod so decides, the applicant and the CTS Board of Trustees shall be allowed time to address synod on the matter.

6. Both the applicant and the CTS Board of Trustees have the right to be represented or counseled by a member of the church at any stage of the review process.

Part B. Appeals from decisions, acts, or course of conduct of agencies, boards, or committees of the Christian Reformed Church.

The right to appeal from decisions, acts, or course of conduct of agencies, boards, or committees of the Christian Reformed Church is established. The Judicial Code may be invoked in connection with such appeal, and if it is, the appeal process will be governed by the Judicial Code. If the Judicial Code is not invoked, the provisions and procedures set forth in the following paragraphs shall apply:

1. Board, agency, or committee shall mean and include any agent or employee of such board, agency, or committee while such agent or employee is acting within the scope and authority of his or her employment with such agency, board, or committee.

2. Appeals under this part of Supplement 30-b may be filed only by the following:
   a. A member of the Christian Reformed Church.
   b. An assembly (council or classis).
   c. An employee of an agency, board, or committee whose decision, act, or course of conduct is to be challenged by the appeal.

3. The individual or assembly filing the appeal shall be called the appellant. The agency, board, or committee whose action is appealed shall be called the respondent.

4. No appeal under this part of Supplement 30-b may be filed until the appellant shall first have exhausted all reasonable and direct efforts according to procedures prescribed by such agency, board, or committee to resolve the appellant’s complaint or grievance.

5. The only grounds for an appeal under this part are that the decision, act, or course of conduct of a respondent is contrary to the Church Order, the mandate of the respondent, or a previous decision of the assembly to which the respondent is responsible.
6. In an appeal under this part, an appellant who is other than an assembly or an employee must allege—and the onus remains on him or her to show—that the decision, act, or course of conduct appealed from substantially affects him or her directly, either materially or personally, as an individual apart from other members of the church.

7. In an appeal under this part by an employee, the appellant must allege—and the onus remains on her or him to show—that the decision, act, or course of conduct appealed from substantially affects her or him directly, either materially or personally, in her or his capacity as an employee.

8. An appeal from a decision, act, or course of conduct of an agency, board, or committee shall be filed with the assembly to which the agency, board, or committee is responsible.

9. For an appeal to be timely, it must be filed within ninety (90) days after completion of efforts to resolve the matter under provisions in paragraph “4” above.

   Because the completion of internal efforts to resolve the matter may not always indicate a precise date for the commencement of the sixty (60)-day appeal period, the following standards apply for computing the beginning of the appeal period:

   a. If the agency, board, or committee gives the appellant a written communication stating that the internal procedures for resolving the grievance or complaint have now been completed, the sixty (60)-day period begins with the date the appellant receives such letter.

   b. In the absence of a written communication described in paragraph “a” above, the appellant may give written notice to the agency, board, or committee involved that he or she believes that the internal procedures for resolving the grievance or complaint have been exhausted, and, if there is no written response to such notice within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of such notice, the sixty (60)-day appeal period begins with the expiration of a thirty (30)-day period beginning with the receipt of such notice. For the purpose of this paragraph, the notice shall be deemed to have been received on the date it was personally delivered to the office of the agency, board, or committee or five days after the mailing by regular mail.

   c. If the notice referred to in paragraph “b” above is given and the agency, board, or committee responds to the appellant within thirty (30) days that there is a further internal procedure, the appellant must pursue the additional procedure specified, and rules “a” and “b” will again apply to determine the commencement of the appeal period when the further step has been completed.

10. If the appeal is to a classis, when classis considers the appeal, both appellant and respondent shall be allowed reasonable time to make an oral presentation with respect to the appeal. The classis shall consider and decide every appeal submitted to it. Classis shall decide on the appeal within one (1) year from the date the appeal is received by the stated clerk of classis. If classis has not decided an appeal within such one (1)-year period, either appellant or respondent has the right to appeal to synod without waiting for the decision of classis. Both the appellant and the respondent have the right to appeal the decision of classis to synod.

11. If the appeal is initially to synod, the rules and procedures in Church Order Supplements 30-a, sections B and C apply.

12. Both the appellant and the respondent have the right to be represented or counseled by a member of the church at any stage of the appeal process.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 30-c

JUDICIAL CODE OF RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

Preamble to the Judicial Code

The Judicial Code is not a document of broad applicability. It is intended to be operative in two strictly defined areas and therefore contains limiting language. The two areas of applicability are covered separately in Article 1, -a and -b.

About Article 1-a

Article 1-a deals with matters involving members and/or assemblies of the church and, in some limited instances, nonmembers. With respect to such matters, the provisions of the Judicial Code apply only

a. when written charges are filed; and

b. when either party to the dispute requests a judicial hearing or when the assembly first hearing the charges determines to constitute a formal hearing.

If the above two conditions are met, the assembly must still make a determination as to whether or not informal means have or have not been exhausted. If such means have not been exhausted, the assembly should seriously consider postponing the judicial hearing while further informal efforts are undertaken. If the assembly determines that informal means have been exhausted or if further informal means do not resolve the matter, the assembly will proceed to conduct a judicial hearing.

It should be noted that matters of admonition and discipline do not require a judicial hearing unless there are written charges which either party or the assembly determines require a judicial hearing. The Judicial Code recognizes the fundamental and primary role of informal means in all matters of admonition and discipline; it assumes that these matters are best handled by informal counseling and entreaty; if sanctions are required, it leaves the determination of them to the church under the Church Order.

The assembly must also decide, under Article 10 of the Judicial Code, whether or not the charges are substantial.

About Article 1-b

Article 1-b deals with disputes involving agencies, boards, or committees on one side and their employees or members or assemblies of the church on the other side. With respect to all such matters, the provisions of the Judicial Code apply only
a. when a written appeal or written charges are filed; and
b. when a judicial hearing is requested by one of the parties or when the assembly before whom the charges first are filed determines to constitute a judicial hearing.

Article 1-b is not to be treated as an alternative method whereby church members or assemblies can challenge or question the decisions or conduct of the agencies, boards, or committees in matters which are properly the substance of an overture or a gravamen.

A. Scope

Article 1

a. Offenses against Word of God, doctrinal standards, or Church Order

1) These provisions of the Judicial Code apply to judicial hearings before a council, classis, or synod occasioned by the bringing of written charges as described in Article 1-a. Such admonition and discipline of the church as do not involve the hearing of written charges requiring formal adjudication are not governed by these provisions.

2) The provisions of this Article 1-a pertain to the bringing of written charges by
   a) a member of the Christian Reformed Church (the "church") against another member or against an assembly; or
   b) an assembly against another assembly or against a member; or
   c) a person who is not a member of the Christian Reformed Church against a member or assembly of the Christian Reformed Church, provided such person has been directly affected as an individual by the charged offense.

3) A person or an assembly filing a charge shall be called the complainant, and the person or assembly against whom the charge is filed shall be called the respondent.

4) Written charges brought by a complainant against a respondent alleging an offense in profession or practice against the Word of God, the doctrinal standards of the church, or the Church Order shall, upon the request of either the complainant or the respondent for a judicial hearing, be deemed to require formal adjudication unless the assembly, acting under Article 10, determines that the charges are not substantial. When neither the complainant nor the respondent requests a formal judicial hearing, the assembly before whom the charges are first filed shall determine whether or not to constitute a formal hearing.

5) When the assemblies of the Church conduct hearings, they act in a judicial capacity.

b. Appeals from decisions, acts, or course of conduct of agencies, boards, or committees of the Christian Reformed Church

1) In this article, board, agency, or committee shall mean and include any agent or employee of such board, agency, or committee while such agent or employee is acting within the scope and authority of his or her employment with such agency, board, or committee.

2) The provisions of this Article 1-b pertain to the filing of a written appeal by
   a) a member of the church against an agency, board, or committee; or
   b) an assembly against an agency, board, or committee; or
   c) an employee of an agency, board, or committee against an agency, board, or committee.

3) A member of the church, an assembly, or an employee of an agency, board, or committee filing such appeal shall be called the appellant, and the agency, board, or committee shall be called the respondent.

4) No appeal under this Article 1-b may be filed until the appellant shall first have exhausted all reasonable and direct efforts according to procedures prescribed by such agency, board, or committee to resolve the appellant's complaint or grievance internally.

5) The only grounds for an appeal under Article 1-b are that the decision, act, or course of conduct of a respondent is contrary to the Church Order, the mandate of the respondent, or a previous decision of the assembly to which the respondent is responsible.

6) In an appeal under this article, any appellant, other than an assembly or employee, must allege—and the onus remains on him or her to show in any hearing—that the decision, act, or course of conduct appealed from substantially affects him or her directly, either materially or personally, and as an individual apart from other members of the Church.

7) In any appeal under this article brought by an employee, the appellant must allege—and the onus remains on him or her to show in any hearing—that the decision, act, or course of conduct appealed from substantially affects him or her directly, either materially or personally, in his or her capacity as an employee.

8) For an appeal to be timely, it must be filed within sixty (60) days after completion of efforts to resolve the matter under provisions in paragraph "(4)" above.

   Because the completion of internal efforts to resolve the matter may not always indicate a precise date for commencement of the sixty (60)-day appeal period, the following standards apply for computing the beginning of the appeal period:

   a) If the agency, board, or committee gives the appellant a written communication stating that the internal procedures for resolving the grievance or complaint have now been completed, the sixty (60)-day period begins with the date the appellant receives such letter.

   b) In the absence of a written communication described in paragraph "(a)" above, the appellant may give written notice to the agency, board, or committee involved that he or she believes that the internal procedures for resolving the grievance or complaint have been exhausted, and if there is no written response to such notice within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of such notice, the sixty (60)-day appeal period begins with the expiration of a thirty (30)-day period beginning with the receipt of such notice. For the purpose of this paragraph, the notice shall be deemed to have been received on the date it was personally delivered to the office of the agency, board, or committee or five days after the mailing by regular mail.

c) If the notice referred to in paragraph “(b)” above is given and the agency, board, or committee responds to the appellant within thirty (30) days that there is a further internal procedure, the appellant must pursue the additional procedure specified, and rules “(a)” and “(b)” will again apply to determine the commencement of the appeal period when the further step has been completed.

c. Procedure regarding the bringing of charges

1) Charges against a member of the Church shall be filed by the complainant with the council of the local church of which the respondent is a member.

2) Charges against an agency, board, or committee, including its agent or employees, shall be filed by the complainant with the assembly to which the agency, board, or committee is responsible.

3) Charges against an assembly shall be filed by the complainant with the assembly next in order (the order being council, classis, and synod).

B. Judicial Rights

Article 2

Both the complainant and the respondent shall have the right to be represented or counseled by a member of the church in any judicial hearing.

Article 3

Both the complainant and the respondent shall have the right to be present at each original hearing and hearing on appeal provided for herein, except when the assembly withdraws to decide the issues raised by the hearing.

Article 4

The respondent and complainant shall have the right to have witnesses examined in their presence, except when the respondent fails to appear after due notice.

Article 5

a. A complainant or respondent not satisfied with the decision may appeal such decision to the assembly next in order.

b. The provisions of the Judicial Code shall apply to all appeals from decisions resulting from formal adjudication.
C. Charges

Article 6

a. Every charge, in order to receive a judicial hearing, must be filed in writing with the assembly, must set forth the alleged offense, and must specify the facts relied upon to sustain the charge, including, as far as possible, the time and place of the offense. The complainant shall mail or otherwise deliver a copy of the charge to the respondent at the same time as it is filed with the assembly.

b. The charge shall not allege more than one offense. However, several charges against the same respondent, whether brought by one or more complainants, may be presented at the same time and may, at the discretion of the assembly, be heard together. When several charges are heard at the same time, a decision on each charge must be made separately.

c. Time limits

1) There is no time limit for filing a charge of sexual abuse.

2) An allegation of abuse to a minor other than an allegation of sexual abuse may be filed at any time within five years after the date of the alleged offense or at any time before the person who was allegedly abused reaches age 25, whichever allows the longer time.

3) Except for the provisions in 1) and 2) immediately above, no charge may be filed for an alleged offense which occurred more than five years prior to the date on which the charge is filed.

Article 7

A respondent shall file a written answer to the charge with the assembly and shall mail or otherwise deliver a copy to the complainant within sixty (60) days after the written charge is filed.

Article 8

a. A hearing for an alleged offense shall begin no later than one year from the time the charge is filed.

b. The assembly, after consulting with the complainant and the respondent, shall set the time and place for the hearing on the charge and shall notify the parties.

c. The assembly shall set a time, not less than fifteen (15) days and not more than thirty (30) days, before the hearing by which the parties shall each furnish the other party with a list of witnesses to be called and a copy of each exhibit to be offered at the hearing. A party shall be limited to such witnesses and exhibits unless the party persuades the assembly of good cause for not having the information available by the deadline.

d. Within the same time period set forth in c above, each party shall furnish the assembly with a list of witnesses that the party plans to call at the hearing and a copy of all documents to be offered at the hearing, in chronological order and indexed.
D. Original Hearing Procedures Before a Council
Acting in its Judicial Capacity

Article 9

All hearings shall be conducted in a consistent Christian manner. A council composed of the elders and deacons, while acting in its judicial capacity, shall be so constituted as to avoid conflicts of interest. The administration of oaths shall not be required.

Article 10

The assembly shall determine whether the written charges are substantial. This may be done by the assembly on the basis of the written charge, the answer, the proposed exhibits, and, if the assembly so desires, an informal conference with the parties and their representatives. The assembly may delegate the review of information and the informal conference to a committee, but the assembly, after receiving a report from the committee, makes the determination. A decision by a council or a classis that a charge is not substantial may be appealed.

The hearing, if ordered, shall proceed as follows:

a. Each party may make an opening statement summarizing what that party expects to prove.

b. The complainant shall proceed first with proofs, including witnesses and exhibits.

c. The respondent shall then proceed with proofs, including witnesses and exhibits.

d. A witness must testify at the hearing, and all witnesses may be questioned by both parties unless the parties agree in writing at least fifteen (15) days before the hearing to use a written statement of a person not present at the hearing.

e. The complainant and the respondent shall, in turn, summarize their cases either orally or in writing.

f. If either party objects to irregularity in the proceedings, the objection must be entered into the record. The presiding officer may sustain or disallow the objection. If the chair's ruling is challenged, the assembly must vote on the question of sustaining the chair.

Article 11

If in any case the respondent, after due notice has been given him, shall refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place set forth for the hearing, the investigation or hearing may proceed in his absence. In all cases sufficient time shall be allowed for the respondent to appear at the given place and time and to prepare for the hearing. The council shall decide what constitutes “sufficient time.”
Article 12
The final decision on any case shall be by majority vote of the council. Members who have not attended all the sessions and have not heard the case in its entirety shall read the record before a vote is taken.

Article 13
During the hearing, the presiding officer shall not comment on the merits of the case. This restriction does not apply when the council enters its final deliberations. After a decision has been reached, the presiding officer shall certify and announce the findings.

Article 14
The testimony shall be recorded verbatim if requested by any party to the proceedings. The record, including all exhibits, papers, evidence, and findings in the case shall be certified by the presiding officer and shall be the basis of any appeal which may be taken. The appellant and the respondent may have reasonable access to the record.

E. Hearing and Appeal Procedures Before a Classis Acting in its Judicial Capacity

Article 15
If a council or an agency, board, or committee of classis is the respondent, the original hearing shall be before the classis and in accordance with the hearing procedures set forth in Articles 10-14.

Article 16
Appeal of the decision of council may be made to classis. Such an appeal must be made within ninety (90) days. When such an appeal is made, a written notice together with a written statement of grounds of appeal shall be sent to the stated clerk of classis and a copy thereof to the council. The clerk of council shall thereupon transmit the decision of council, together with the record referred to in Article 14, to the stated clerk of classis. The hearing in the classis shall be limited to the grounds set forth in the statement and record.

Article 17
An appeal by an involved party shall not be heard in any case when the appellant has without just cause failed or refused to be present at his hearing on appeal.

Article 18
The right to appeal shall not be affected by the death of the person entitled to such right. His heirs or representative may continue to act in his behalf.
Article 19

If the appellant, having shown good cause therefore, desires to introduce additional evidence, the classis may remand the case to the council for a rehearing.

Article 20

In all cases the classis shall set a time for the hearing on appeal and send a notice as to the time and date of such hearing to all parties. After the statement and record have been considered and oral arguments concluded, the classis shall withdraw and shall hereupon consider and decide the issues of the case. The final decision on any case shall be by majority vote of the classis. Delegates who have not attended all the sessions and have not heard the case in its entirety shall read the record before a vote is taken. The classis may sustain or reverse in whole or in part the decision of the council, or it may return the case to the council with instructions for a new hearing.

Article 21

Appeal of the decision of classis may be made to synod. Such an appeal must be made within ninety (90) days. When such an appeal is made a written notice together with a statement of grounds of appeal shall be sent to the general secretary of synod and a copy thereof to the stated clerk of classis. The stated clerk of such classis shall thereupon transmit the decision of classis together with the record and papers of the case to the general secretary of synod, who will place the appeal on the agenda for synod.

F. Hearing and Appeal Procedures Before the Synod

Acting in its Judicial Capacity

Article 22

If a classis or an agency, board, or committee of synod is the respondent, the original hearing shall be before the Judicial Code Committee in accordance with the procedures set forth in Articles 10-14. Appeals of decisions of assemblies of the church acting in their judicial capacity; appeals from a board, agency, or committee of synod when the Judicial Code has been invoked; and such other matters requiring formal adjudication as synod shall undertake shall be referred to the Judicial Code Committee.

Article 23

a. The Judicial Code Committee shall be composed of nine members. Each year three persons shall be elected for three-year terms.

b. Synod shall elect members from nominations presented by the Board of Trustees of the Christian Reformed Church in North America. The Judicial Code Committee may recommend nominees to the Synodical Interim Committee.

c. The terms of members shall commence September next following their election by synod. The committee is to consist of both clergy and laity, and the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA shall present nominations to assure the accomplishment of this goal.
d. In the event of a vacancy on the committee because of resignation or death, the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA shall appoint a person to fill the balance of that term.

e. Members may be reelected but shall not serve more than six consecutive years. A former member who has been off the committee for two or more years shall be eligible for election to the committee as a new member.

f. The Judicial Code Committee shall select a chairperson and reporter from among its membership.

g. Any member of the Judicial Code Committee advising a given synod may be, but need not be, a delegate to that synod.

(Acts of Synod 1993, p. 499)

Article 24

a. Matters within the jurisdiction of the Judicial Code Committee shall be referred to it at any time after its members have been appointed.

b. The Judicial Code Committee shall meet between synods as frequently as its business requires, and normally shall convene a week before synod to prepare its recommendations.

c. As to appeals from decisions of consistories and classes, the Judicial Code Committee shall permit complainants and respondents to present arguments.

d. As to applications for hearings brought against an agency, board, or committee of synod and other matters requiring formal adjudication which synod shall undertake, the Judicial Code Committee shall follow the hearing procedures described herein.

Article 25

a. Recommendations of the Judicial Code Committee shall be presented to synod in writing, shall be accompanied with grounds, and shall be openly discussed in plenary session of synod.

b. Either party to the dispute may request the opportunity to address synod. Such request shall be made through the Judicial Code Committee, which shall make recommendation concerning this request to synod.

c. The Judicial Code Committee shall provide the officers of synod appropriate written advice on procedure for handling the matter.

Article 26

Synod may dispose of a judicial matter in one of the following ways:

a. by deciding the matter;

b. by deferring it to one of its committees for settlement or reconciliation;

c. by remanding it with advice to the appropriate classis or council; or

d. by conducting its own hearing.
Article 27

If synod conducts its own hearing it shall follow the hearing procedures set forth herein.

Synod adopted the following grounds for the Judicial Code of Rights and Procedures:

a. The Judicial Code will encourage greater uniformity of procedure throughout our denomination when charges must be adjudicated.
b. The Judicial Code will help to insure just treatment of those who are involved in the judgments and decisions of the church.
c. Scripture requires that provisions be made to provide impartial judgments among God’s people (cf. Deut. 1:16-17; Deut. 16:18-20; Lev. 19:15; 1 Tim. 5:19-21).
d. Article 28 of the Church Order requires that the assemblies of the church deal with ecclesiastical matters in an ecclesiastical manner. Without effective procedural guidelines it is often difficult to deal with substantive issues in an appropriate manner.
e. The Judicial Code provides a procedural pattern within which the law of love may be fulfilled (cf. James 2:1, 8-9). “My brethren, show no partiality as you hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory.” “If you really fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself,’ you do well. But if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.” (RSV)

(Acts of Synod 1977, pp. 48-54)
(Amended Acts of Synod 1996, pp. 484-88)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 31

Synod advised the churches that a request for revision of a decision of a major assembly must be processed as far as possible in the minor assemblies before coming to the major assembly.

Grounds:

a. A request for revision falls within the category of “overtures” and all overtures, to be legally before synod, must “have been carried as far as possible in the minor assemblies” (Rules for Synodical Procedure, V, B, Acts of Synod 1959, p. 23).
b. Article 31 states that requests for revision “shall be honored only if sufficient new grounds for reconsideration are presented.” By processing such requests in the minor assemblies the matter of new grounds can be refined and clarified and misunderstandings and problems removed, thus helping to avoid unnecessary and ambiguous materials being placed on the agenda of the major assembly.
c. If errors or misconceptions can be eliminated by minor assemblies, the interest of the major assembly will be served in accord with Church Order Article 28-b, which states, “A major assembly shall deal only with those matters . . . which could not be finished in the minor assemblies.”

(Acts of Synod 1983, pp. 653-54)
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

We, the undersigned, desiring to become incorporated under the provisions of the laws of the state of __________, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I
NAME OF CORPORATION

The name of this corporation (church) is __________

ARTICLE II
LOCATION

The location of the church shall be in the City of __________, County of __________, State of __________. The street address and mailing address of the registered office of the church shall be __________. The name of the resident agent at the registered office is __________.

ARTICLE III
FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

This church is a member church of the Christian Reformed Church in North America and recognizes the following as the fundamental principles of doctrine and government: (a) the Bible as the inspired and infallible Word of God and the only rule for faith and life and (b) the formulas of unity of the Christian Reformed Church in North America, namely, the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism, the Canons of Dort, and any amendments or additions as the synod of the Christian Reformed Church in North America ("synod") may adopt.

ARTICLE IV
PURPOSES

This church is a nonprofit ecclesiastical corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) (the "Code").

The church shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Code or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Code. This church has not been formed for pecuniary profit or gain. No part of the assets, income, or profit of the church shall inure to the benefit of its members, council members, or officers. However, the church shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article IV.
No substantial part of the activities of this church shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. This church shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE V
CHURCH GOVERNANCE

The ecclesiastical government of the church shall be conducted in accordance with the Church Order of the Christian Reformed Church in North America (the "Church Order") as synod shall adopt or revise.

The council of this church, as defined under the Church Order, shall constitute the board of trustees and shall have all powers over the temporalities of this church as the Church Order and relevant state law may prescribe.

The pastor(s), if there be one or more, and any persons elected to the office of elder or deacon according to the Church Order must be members of the church. The corporate functions related to an office shall cease on the vacating of the office, but a vacancy in the office of the pastor(s) shall in no way affect the board of trustees.

ARTICLE VI PROPERTY

A. Manner in Which Held

All real and personal property shall be held exclusively in furtherance of the purposes of this church as a member church of the Christian Reformed Church in North America and in furtherance of the principles of doctrine and ecclesiastical government outlined under Articles III and V of these Articles of Incorporation and interpreted by the classis of which the church is a member (the "classis"), subject to review on appeal by synod, consistent with the Church Order.

B. In the Event of Dissolution

In the event of the disbanding of this church and the dissolution of this corporation, the church’s remaining assets, if any, after the payment of its debts and expenses, shall be conveyed as the board of trustees may propose and as the affirmative vote of a majority of the members shall determine, subject to each of the following:

1. The classis must approve the disbanding of this church and the dissolution of this corporation;

2. The board of trustees shall consult with the classis in formulating its proposal for property distribution.

3. The vote of the members shall be in accordance with the provisions of paragraph B of Article VII of these Articles of Incorporation.

4. All remaining assets must be distributed only to one or more organizations which qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Code.
C. In the Event of Consensual Division
In the event that a majority of the members of this church consensually agree to divide this church, with the consent of the classis, into two (2) or more member churches of the Christian Reformed Church in North America, all real and personal property of this corporation shall be distributed as a majority vote of the members determines in accordance with the provisions of paragraph B of Article VII of these Articles of Incorporation and subject to review by classis.

D. In the Event of Irreconcilable Division
In the event that the classis (or synod on appeal) determines that an irreconcilable division (schism) has occurred within this church, the confessing members of this church who, according to the exclusive determination of the classis (or synod on appeal), remain true to the purposes of this church as a member church of the Christian Reformed Church in North America and the principles of doctrine and ecclesiastical government outlined under Articles III and V of these Articles of Incorporation shall be the lawful congregation of this church and shall have the exclusive right to hold and enjoy the real and personal property of this church. Nothing in this Article VI shall prevent the classis (or synod on appeal) from determining, in keeping with the scriptural injunction of I Corinthians 6, that more than one group of confessing members of this church are each a lawful congregation and from dividing the real and personal property between the groups of members as classis (or synod on appeal) may determine.

ARTICLE VII
POWERS OF THE BOARD AND MEMBERSHIP VOTING REQUIREMENTS

A. Except as provided under paragraphs B through D of this Article VII of these Articles of Incorporation, the board of trustees shall have the authority to bargain, sell, convey, mortgage, lease, or release any real estate belonging to the church; to erect and repair church buildings, parsonages, schoolhouses and other buildings for the direct and legitimate use of the church; and to fix the salary of anyone in its employment.

B. No purchase, sale or conveyance, mortgage, lease, or fixing of salaries shall occur under paragraph A of this Article VII of these Articles of Incorporation unless the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the church shall be first obtained at a meeting of the members present and entitled to vote. This meeting shall be specially called for that purpose by notice given for two successive Sundays at the usual place of meeting.

C. In the event of schism, the provisions of Article VI, D shall control the disposition of any real or personal property, and this Article VII shall not be effective.

D. No sale, mortgage, or conveyance shall be made of any gift, grant, donation, conveyance, or bequest which would be inconsistent with the express terms or plain intent of the grant, donation, gift, conveyance, or bequest.
ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENTS

The board of trustees may at any time, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the trustees, adopt amendments to these Articles of Incorporation. Notwithstanding the preceding provision, the board of trustees shall not adopt any amendments to these Articles of Incorporation which are inconsistent with the provisions of Articles III through VIII unless approved by the classis (or synod on appeal).

Before any such amendment shall become effective, the trustees shall obtain an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the church present and entitled to vote at a meeting specially called for that purpose, of which notice has first been given as provided for under paragraph B of Article VII of these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE IX
TERM

The term of this corporation is perpetual.

(Acts of Synod 1997, p. 618)

Note: The above Articles of Incorporation can be obtained from the CRC website—http://www.crcna.org/cr/crrs/crrs9188.htm

Note: A form of the above Articles of Incorporation modified for Michigan corporations is available from the office of the General Secretary.

B. Model Articles of Incorporation for Churches in Canada

APPLICATION FOR INCORPORATION FOR A CORPORATION WITHOUT SHARE CAPITAL UNDER PART II OF THE CANADA CORPORATIONS ACT

To the Minister of Industry Canada

I.

The undersigned hereby apply to the Ministry of Industry, Science and Technology for the grant of a Charter of Letters Patent under the provisions of Part II of the Canada Corporations Act, constituting the undersigned and such others as may become members of the Corporation thereby creating a body corporate and politic under the name of (name of church).

The undersigned have satisfied themselves and are assured that the proposed name under which incorporation is sought is not the same or similar to the name under which any other company, society, association or firm in existence is carrying on business in Canada, or is incorporated under the laws of Canada or any province thereof, or so nearly resembles the same as to be calculated to deceive except that of (name of church), which, as the unincorporated church organization for which this Corporation is the successor, has signified its consent to the use of the said name and that it is not a name which is otherwise on public grounds objectionable.
The applicants are individuals of the full age of eighteen years with power under law to contract. The name, the place of residence and the calling of each of the applicants are as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME</th>
<th>ADDRESS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td></td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>

The said A, B, and C will be the first directors of the Corporation.

The objects of the Corporation are as follows:

1.0 The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious and charitable objectives and purposes and shall be carried out by all lawful means, including but not limited to the following:

1.1 Proclaiming the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through (name of church), hereinafter referred to as “The Local Church.”

1.2 Promoting the principles and teachings of the Holy Bible as interpreted by the Reformed creeds, namely the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism, and the Canons of Dordt, in The Local Church.

1.3 Fulfilling the scriptural mandate enunciated by Jesus Christ in Mark 16:15 to “Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature” by actively supporting and promoting Christian missions through The Local Church.

1.4 Training the members of The Local Church to be witnesses for the gospel and providing for the financial support and security of ordained and unordained personnel of the Church.

1.5 Receiving funds directly and/or through offerings in The Local Church for the support of the ecclesiastical and charitable activities, functions and programs of The Local Church and/or for the purposes of supporting and making contributions to religious and charitable educational organizations that are registered charities under the Income Tax Act of Canada.

2. For the attainment of the above objects and as incidental and ancillary thereto, to exercise any of the powers as prescribed by the Canada Corporations Act or any other statutes or laws from time to time applicable, except where such power is contrary to the statutes or common law relating to charities.

The operations of the Corporation may be carried on throughout Canada and elsewhere.

The members and directors of the corporation recognize and subscribe to the following as the fundamental principles of church doctrine and government:

A. The Bible as the inspired and infallible word of God and the only rule for faith and life; and
B. The formulas of unity of the Christian Reformed Church in North America, namely, the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism and the Canons of Dordt and any amendments or additions thereto as may hereafter be adopted by the synod of the Christian Reformed Church.

C. The eighty-six articles of the Church Order, adopted by the synod of the Christian Reformed Church, and any revision thereof, are incorporated herein by reference and shall regulate the ecclesiastical government, organization and operation of The Local Church in its corporate expression and form.

VI

The place within Canada where the head office is to be situated is the ______ of ________, in the ______ of ________, in the Province of ________.

VII

It is specifically provided that in the event of dissolution or winding up of the Corporation all of its remaining assets after payments of its liabilities shall be distributed to one or more charities in Canada that are registered with Revenue Taxation Canada for the purposes of the Income Tax of Canada and have objects similar to the one herein.

VIII

In accordance with Section 65 of The Canada Corporations Act, it is provided that, when authorized by bylaw, duly passed by the directors and sanctioned by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a special general meeting of the members duly called for considering the bylaw, the directors of the Corporation may from time to time

A. Borrow money upon the credit of the Corporation;
B. Limit or increase the amount to be borrowed;
C. Issue debentures or other securities of the Corporation;
D. Pledge or sell such debentures or other securities for such sums and at such prices as may be deemed expedient; and
E. Secure any such debentures, or other securities, or any other present or future borrowing or liability of the Corporation, by mortgage, hypothec, charge or pledge of all or any currently owned or subsequently acquired real and personal, movable and immovable property of the Corporation, and the undertaking and rights of the Corporation.

Any such bylaw may provide for the delegation of such powers by the directors to such officers or directors of the Corporation to such extent and in such manner as may be set out in the bylaw.

Nothing herein limits or restricts the borrowing of money by the Corporation on bills of exchange or promissory notes made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by or on behalf of the Corporation.
The bylaws of the Corporation shall be those filed with the application for Letters Patent until repealed, amended or added to.

The Corporation is to carry on its operations without pecuniary gain to its members, and any profits or other accretions to the Corporation are to be used in promoting its objects.

DATED at the City of ______, in the Province of ______, this day of ____________ ___.

NAMES OF ALL INCORPORATORS

(Acts of Synod 1997, pp. 619-20)

C. Model Bylaw for Churches in Canada

A model bylaw for churches in Canada has been prepared and approved by the Board of Trustees—Canada. A copy may be obtained from the office of the general secretary or from the CRC web site—http://www.crcna.org/cr/crrs/crrs synd.htm.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 35-a

The council is responsible for preparing the annual budget of the congregation, including classical and denominational ministry shares for presentation to the congregation for its approval.

(Acts of Synod 1992, p. 711)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 38-e

A local congregation may disaffiliate from the denomination only according to the following procedure:

a. A church council which adopts a resolution to disaffiliate from the denomination shall inform its classis of its actions, ordinarily at the next scheduled meeting of classis. The council shall provide written grounds for its intention to withdraw.

b. Classis shall appoint representatives to meet with the council to attempt to dissuade the council from such action. Representatives of classis shall have the opportunity to meet in person with the council and to present written rebuttal to the council’s grounds. Meetings between the council and classical representatives shall continue no longer than two months unless both parties agree to a continuation.
c. If the council is not dissuaded by the classical representatives and wishes to continue the disaffiliation process, the council shall issue a call for a congregational meeting. It will present together with this call its written grounds for disaffiliation and any written rebuttal presented by the classical representatives.

d. Representatives of classis shall be informed of the time and location of congregational meetings at which a congregation’s withdrawal from the denomination is being considered and shall be given opportunity to persuade the congregation to remain within the denomination.

c. At the congregational meeting a preliminary vote may be taken following the discussion. If a majority favors withdrawal, a second meeting to confirm this decision shall be scheduled no earlier than one month and no later than one year following.

d. If the second congregational vote favors disaffiliation and the council follows through on its decision to disaffiliate, classis shall provide for the pastoral care of those members who wish to remain within the denomination.

g. If the congregation wishes to disaffiliate from the denomination, classis (and synod upon appeal) shall settle any disputes between differing factions within the disaffiliating congregation. The separation will be complete when classis (or synod upon appeal) declares it acquiesces in the decision of the congregation to disaffiliate from the denomination.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 38-f

Provisions for forming union churches

1. The following plan of union shall be adopted by particular churches forming a union church:

   a. The following plan of union is adopted by the ________________ Christian Reformed Church of ___________, effective as of the date when each of the congregations has approved the plan by a two-thirds majority of those present at a regularly called congregational meeting with such notice and quorum as is required by the constitution of each church and when the classis (presbytery) of each church has approved the particular union and this plan of union.

   b. The purpose of this union is to provide for the worship of almighty God, instruction in the Christian faith, and outreach and diaconal ministry by a united congregation which will share the property, real and personal, of the uniting churches and provide for the services of a minister or ministers for the united church.

   c. The united church shall be known as the __________________Church of ________________.

   d. The united church shall be subject to the constitution of each church involved as set forth in subsections r, s, u, and v.
e. The council (session) shall submit its records annually, and whenever requested, to each broader assembly (judicatory).

f. The membership of the united church shall consist of those who were members of the uniting churches, plus those received by the council (session) of the united church.

g. The council (session) of the united church shall report an equal share of the total membership to each broader assembly (judicatory), and such membership shall be published in the minutes/acts/directory of the synod/general assembly with a note to the effect that the report is that of a union church and with an indication of the total actual membership. A report of additional vital congregational information shall be made by the council (session) and properly noted by each (general) assembly.

h. Initially the officers of the united church (elders and deacons) shall be those officers in active service of the uniting churches, who will undertake to perform their responsibilities under the constitution of each church, as indicated in subsections d above and r, s, u, and v below.

i. At the first annual meeting subsequent to the effective date of the union, new officers shall be elected by the united congregation to replace the officers noted in subsection h above according to the constitutional procedure in force as a consequence of subsection v below.

j. The pastoral relations of the ministers of the uniting churches shall be dissolved automatically by the action of the classis (presbytery) in approving this plan, but they may be eligible to be ministers (pastors) of the united church according to the election of the united congregation.

k. The minister/s of the united church shall be full and responsible members of each assembly (judicatory) of immediate jurisdiction and shall be subject to discipline as provided below in subsection s.

l. The united church shall cause a corporation to be formed under the appropriate laws of the state, where permissible. The corporation shall include in its articles or charter the substance of subsections b, c, and d above and the confessional standards of the uniting churches.

m. All property of the uniting churches, real and personal, shall be transferred to the corporation formed in section l above. The new corporation shall be the legal successor of the corporations, if any, of the uniting churches, and it shall be bound to administer any trust property or monies received in accordance with the provisions of the original establishment of the trust. All liabilities of the uniting churches shall be liabilities of the united church. In any state/province where a church corporation is forbidden, the purposes of this section shall be achieved in harmony with the law of that state.

n. Trustees of the corporation (or the unincorporated body) shall be elected in harmony with civil law according to the constitutional provisions outlined in subsection d above, as interpreted by subsection v below.

o. While recognizing the basic right of any giver to designate the cause or causes to which the gift shall go, the council (session) of the united church shall annually propose to the congregation a general mission or benevolence program which shall be divided equitably among the officially approved causes of each denomination. The proportions shall be as the council (session) shall decide in response to the request of the broader assemblies (judicatories).

p. Per capita ministry shares (apportionments) shall be paid to each classis (presbytery) and to synod (general assembly) on the basis of the total communicant membership of the union church, equally divided among the denominations involved.

q. All members of the united church shall be under the discipline of the elders (session) according to rules agreed upon in harmony with the constitution of each denomination where they coincide, in harmony with the mandatory provisions of the constitution of one denomination where the others are permissive, and at the choice of the elders (session) where they may be contradictory.

r. Appeals against the actions of the council (session) shall be made to one assembly or judicatory only (presbytery or classis), at the choice of the members, and all subsequent appeals or complaints shall be in the assemblies of the members' original choice, and decisions so finally made shall be binding on the council (session) and on the members.

s. The minister/s shall be subject to the discipline of the council/classis/presbytery provided that when an assembly begins an action, it shall invite a committee from the others to join in formulating and pressing the charges. In the event of appeal, the case shall be finally decided by the broadest assembly to which the appeal is taken in the church which commenced the action, and that decision shall be equally binding on the council/classis/presbytery.

t. The minister/s shall participate in the denominational pension plan of one of the churches. If already participating in a plan, the minister/s shall remain in that plan. If there has been no participation in any pension plan, the minister/s may choose which denominational plan to join.

u. Protests/complaints against the actions of the council (session) may be taken under the constitutional provisions of only one denomination, according to the choice of the complainant; once a complaint is registered with an assembly (judicatory), no other denomination shall accept jurisdiction in the same matter.

v. Wherever the constitutions of the denominations differ, the mandatory provisions of one shall apply in all cases when the others are permissive. Wherever there are conflicting mandatory provisions (except as provided in subsection q above), the council (session) of the united church shall petition the assemblies (judicatories) of immediate jurisdiction to overture their respective broadest assembly to resolve the conflict either by authoritative interpretations or by constitutional amendment.

w. A union church may be dissolved by a two-thirds vote of two congregational meetings held not less than one year and not more than two years apart, subject to the concurrence of the classes (presbyteries) involved. In case of dissolution of a union church, all property of the united church, real and personal, shall be divided equally between the classes (the presbytery and the classis) of jurisdiction.

2. No provision in this document shall be construed as modifying or amending the church order/constitution of this church in its application to any but union churches organized under this provision, their members, officers, or ministers.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 39

The classis, through its treasurer, is responsible for the receipt and disbursement of classical and denominational funds, the more prosperous churches assisting the more needy ones.

(Acts of Synod 1992, p. 711)

Any request for transfer to another classis may include grounds that go beyond the sole matter of geographic proximity; synod is at liberty to consider such grounds in its disposition of the request.

(Acts of Synod 1996, pp. 561)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 40-a

The council of each church shall delegate a deacon in addition to a minister and an elder, provided the classis approves of the delegation of deacons to its meetings. Deacons delegated to classis shall be given credentials identical to those given to ministers and elders. The gender of diaconal delegates to a classis shall be consistent with the decisions of that classis concerning the supplement to Article 3-a of the Church Order.

(Acts of Synod 1997, p. 621)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 40-a and -c

Modification for Churches of Classis Red Mesa

a. The council of each church shall delegate a minister and two elders to the classis. If a church is without a minister or the minister is prevented from attending, three elders may be delegated. Officebearers who are not delegated also may attend classis and may be given an advisory voice.

b. The presiding officers of classis shall be selected from officebearers within the classis. The same presiding officers shall not be chosen twice in succession.

(Acts of Synod 1981, p. 16)
SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 43

The decisions of Synod 1995 and Synod 2000 regarding the term “male” in Church Order Article 3 extend to the term “men” in Church Order Article 43.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 45

Denominational Funding

a. The synod shall adopt the annual denominational budget of the church and approve a ministry-share assignment to provide the revenue for that budget.

b. Synod shall approve the annual budgets of the denominational agencies and approve a denominational ministry-share assignment relative to each agency.

c. Following each annual synod, the financial coordinator shall inform the classical treasurers as to their respective denominational ministry shares.

(Acts of Synod 1992, p. 711)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 47

Regulations Pertaining to Article 47 of the Church Order

a. A substantial alteration is any alteration which changes the essential meaning of the creeds or the articles of the Church Order or which changes the church's regulation of its worship through the adopted liturgical forms, Psalter Hymnal, principles and elements of worship, or the designated Bible versions to be used in the worship services. A committee recommending any change in these matters shall specify what change is being recommended and shall state whether or not the change is a “substantial alteration.”

b. Prior opportunity is understood as sufficient time for churches and classes to be able to respond to a substantial alteration with overtures or other communications to synod before the substantial alteration is adopted. Generally, churches and classes have prior opportunity in the case of study committee reports because such reports are received by November 1 of the year before synod meets. Generally, churches and classes do not have prior opportunity in the case of standing-committee reports and overtures because the printed Agenda for Synod is received only two months before synod meets and one month after the majority of the classes have had their last meetings before synod.

c. If the churches and classes have not had prior opportunity to consider a substantial alteration, it must be submitted to a following synod, which will consider its advisability. The first decision shall be understood as a decision to propose; the action of a following synod shall be understood as a decision to adopt.

d. A proposed change may not be implemented until it is adopted by a following synod. It has no effect on any other synodical decisions until it is adopted.
e. A proposed change has the same status as the recommendation of a study committee. The synod proposing the change may designate a person(s) to represent the change at the synod to which it is submitted for adoption. The proposed change and its representatives have all the rights and privileges of the recommendations and representatives of a synodical study committee.

f. If a proposed change is rejected by a following synod, that change (or one substantially similar) is not available for adoption by a succeeding synod unless it has been first proposed once again by synod.

g. Changes to Church Order Supplements are not subject to the above requirements.

Grounds:
1) These statements eliminate the confusion surrounding the concept of “ratification.”
2) These statements preserve the language and simplicity of the Church Order.
3) These statements safeguard the church’s desire that churches and classes are fully informed about major changes in denominational policy while preserving the authority of synod to act decisively.

(Supplement, Article 51-a)

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 51-a

a. Synod affirms the rich tradition of assembling for worship twice on the Lord’s Day and encourages existing congregations to continue and new congregations to embrace this tradition for the building up of the body of Christ.

b. Where congregations are exploring alternatives to the second service, synod encourages those congregations to ensure that such alternatives are part of a strategic ministry plan with full accountability to their classis.

Ground: As a supplement this affirms the value of a second preaching service, and indicates that a council is responsible to the broader assembly regarding the alternatives it provides for the members under its supervision.

(Supplement, Article 52)

Modification for Churches of Classis Red Mesa

a. The consistory shall regulate the worship services.

b. The consistory shall see to it that the Bible versions, liturgical forms, and hymnals used are approved by synod or classis.

c. The consistory shall see to it that the principles and elements of worship approved by synod or classis are observed.

d. The consistory shall see to it that all hymns used in the worship services are faithful to the Word of God.

(Acts of Synod 1981, p. 16)
SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 53

Modification for Churches of Classis Red Mesa

The minister of the Word or the evangelist shall conduct the official worship service. In his absence, the consistory shall appoint a person licensed to exhort or one of the elders to conduct the official worship services.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 66-a

When a church council transfers memberships, it should note for the receiving church whether the confessing members have assented to the creeds of the Christian Reformed Church and accepted the responsibilities of adult membership.

(Acts of Synod 1995, p. 721)

Rules for Lapsed Membership

1. Synod declares that baptized or confessing members who move away from the area of their church so that a meaningful church relationship is no longer possible, may retain their membership in their home church at their request and with the consent of the consistory. If they fail to make such a request, and do not transfer to a church near them, the consistory, having made serious attempts to rectify the situation, may declare their membership lapsed after a period of two years from the date of their departure. The member concerned shall be notified by the consistory of its action if at all possible. This rule shall not apply to those whose absence from their home is temporary.

   Grounds:

   a. This recommendation removes the inconsistency between the decisions of synod in 1881 and 1910.
   b. The primary responsibility for church membership rests with the members, but this does not exclude a certain responsibility of the home church and its consistory.
   c. The lapsing of membership should be by the action of the consistory in each individual case and not by automatic application of a rule, if proper pastoral work is to be carried out.
   d. No delinquency should be assumed on the part of those who are absent from their home church temporarily, as for reasons of education, military service, or comparable circumstances.
   e. Pastor concern for the well-being of the members warrants extending the time element from one year and six weeks to two years.

2. This regulation shall supersede the rules of 1881 and 1910.

Rules for Lapsing of Nonattending and Nonsupporting Members

Synod decided that with respect to a baptized or confessing member who, for a period of at least two years, has not moved but fails to attend and support the congregation that holds his membership, the consistory may declare that his membership has lapsed. This may be done when all the following conditions are present:

a. He claims to be still committed to the Christian faith.
b. He claims to be worshiping elsewhere.
c. The consistory is not aware of any public sin requiring discipline.

Grounds:

a. Since membership involves both rights and obligations, the right of membership may be forfeited when the obligations of membership in a local congregation are refused.
b. After an adequate period during which the elders instruct the member in his responsibilities as a member of the congregation, his membership has become meaningless, and the action of declaring the membership lapsed is simply an acknowledgment of an already existing rupture between the member and the congregation.
c. This provision has become necessary because of the increasing trend on the part of many churches and fellowships to ignore or reject the significance of membership in the visible church.
d. This is consistent with the decision of synod that one who has separated himself from the fellowship of the congregation by moving away and takes no action to become a member of another church also may lose his membership by consistorial action.
e. This will assist consistories, who at present face the alternative of taking no effective action with such a member or proceeding to erase or excommunicate him from the body of Christ, by providing a way of removing his name from the membership rolls without being required to pass judgment on his relationship to the church universal.

Appropriate announcements shall be made by the consistory to the congregation regarding such lapsed memberships and the person involved shall be notified.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 76-a

The synodical regulations referred to in Article 76 may be found in the Mission Order of the Christian Reformed Board of Home Missions.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLE 77-a

The synodical regulations referred to in Article 77 may be found in the Mission Order of the Board for Christian Reformed World Missions.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLES 78-81

a. Discipline shall be applied by the consistory only after an adequate investigation has been made and the member has had ample opportunity to present his/her case.
b. A person who persistently rejects the admonition of the consistory shall be suspended from the privileges of communicant membership.

c. A person may be excluded from membership only after the consistory has secured the approval of the classis.

d. The role of the classis in giving approval is
1) To judge whether proper procedure has been followed.
2) To assure that adequate pastoral care has been extended to the person.
3) To determine that the consistory has advanced adequate reasons for proceeding with discipline.

e. The approval of classis does not obligate a consistory to exclude a person from membership since repentance and restoration to the full fellowship of the church are always possible.

f. The liturgical forms and announcements for admonition and discipline may be used if the consistory judges that these will further the purposes of discipline and will serve the welfare of the congregation.

(Acts of Synod 1991, p. 718)

Note: See Acts of Synod 1991, pp. 720-23, for revised announcements and forms for exclusion from membership and for readmission.

SUPPLEMENT, ARTICLES 78-84

Guidelines for Confidentiality

Synod affirmed the necessity for strict confidentiality on the part of councils and consistories in all matters relating to admonition and discipline by recommending the following guidelines to the churches:

a. Every church should state its membership commitments very clearly, including the expectation that all members are to participate in and be subject to the admonition and discipline of the church.

b. Officebearers should scrupulously observe confidentiality with respect to persons who come under their counsel and discipline.

c. Careful and confidential records should be kept whenever a discipline case reaches the level of action by the elders and/or announcements are made to the congregation.

d. Special care should be observed in the wording of public announcements. The sin of the person should not be mentioned, but only that he/she is unrepentant.

e. Established policies with respect to procedures and public announcements should be consistently followed by the elders of the church.

(Acts of Synod 1991, pp. 723, 769)

"The privileges of communicant membership" include but are not limited to participation in the sacraments, the right to vote at congregational meetings, and eligibility to hold office.

(Acts of Synod 1991, p. 718)
The Admonition and Discipline of Officebearers

a. General discipline shall not be applied to an officebearer unless he/she has first been suspended from office.

b. The appropriate assembly shall determine whether, in a given instance, deposition from office shall take place immediately, without previous suspension.

c. Suspension/deposition of elders, deacons, and evangelists

1) The suspension or deposition of an elder, deacon, or evangelist shall be imposed by the council with the concurring judgment of the council of the nearest church in the same classis.

2) If the neighboring council fails to concur in the position of the council of the elder, deacon, or evangelist involved, the latter council shall either alter its original judgment or present the case to classis.

d. Suspension/deposition of ministers

1) The suspension of a minister of the Word shall be imposed by the council of his church with the concurring judgment of the council of the nearest church in the same classis.

2) If the neighboring council fails to concur in the position of the council of the minister involved, the latter council shall either alter its original judgment or present the case to classis.

3) The deposition of a minister shall not be effected without the approval of classis together with the concurring advice of the synodical deputies.

e. Ministers subject to two councils

1) A minister of the Word whose membership resides with a congregation other than his calling church is subject to the admonition and discipline of the councils of both churches. Either council may initiate disciplinary action, but neither shall act without conferring with the other.

2) If the councils disagree, the case shall be submitted to the classis of the calling church for disposition.

f. The lifting of suspension is the prerogative of the assembly which imposed suspension.

g. The council of the church which deposed the minister shall declare the deposed minister eligible to receive a call upon the affirmative judgment of the classis which approved the deposition, together with the concurrence of the synodical deputies. Upon acceptance of a call, the previously deposed minister shall be reordained.

(Acts of Synod 1991, pp. 719-20)

Note: Councils and classes should take note of the regulations regarding suspension and/or deposition from ministerial office adopted by Synod 1998 (see Acts of Synod 1998, pp. 396-399).
I. CONVENING AND CONSTITUTING SYNOD

A. Synod shall convene and be constituted as prescribed by the Church Order, Articles 45 and 46, and the decisions of Synod 2000.

B. Each synod shall designate a convening church whose duty it shall be to announce the next succeeding synod in the official publications of the church, three months before the date of meeting. It shall also provide all the facilities needed for the synodical meetings, make arrangements for the lodging of delegates, etc. Expenses thus incurred shall be paid by the synodical treasurer.

C. The minister of the convening church (or in the event of a vacancy, its counselor) shall officiate as president pro tern. His duties shall be:
   1. On the appointed day, and at the appointed time and place, he shall call synod to order, and conduct the opening devotions.
   2. Thereafter he shall call for the prescribed credentials of the delegates. Provided that a quorum, i.e., two-thirds of the membership, is present, he shall declare that the synodical assembly has opened.
   3. The officers of synod shall be chosen from a slate of nominees by the delegates from their own number, by ballot, in the following order: president, vice president, first clerk, and second clerk. Whoever receives a majority of the valid votes cast shall be elected.

At each step in the election process the number of votes shall be read, and synod shall decide which numbers shall be included on the next ballot. After that decision has been made, the names corresponding to the numbers shall be read in alphabetical order.

   4. The president pro tern shall thereupon request the elected officers to take their places upon the rostrum and introduce the president and the other officers to the assembly.

D. On the Sunday following the opening of synod, a service of prayer and praise, in charge of the convening council, shall be held. The minister of the convening church shall preach an appropriate sermon and lead in prayer. All members of synod are expected to attend this service of prayer for synod.

E. While synod is in session its members may not leave the assembly without permission from the chair; neither is it permissible for any member to withdraw himself and return homeward without the consent of the assembly.
II. DUTIES OF OFFICERS

A. The President

1. He shall request the members of synod and the advisory members of synod to arise, read the PUBLIC DECLARATION OF AGREEMENT WITH THE FORMS OF UNITY and request them to express their agreement in unison. A delegate who assumes his seat at a later time shall be requested to express his individual agreement.

2. He shall call the meeting to order at the appointed time, and shall see that each session is properly opened and closed.

3. He shall see to it that business is transacted in the proper order and expedited as much as possible, and that members observe the rules of order and decorum.

4. He shall welcome fraternal delegates, or other guests of synod, respond to greetings received, or appoint members of synod for this purpose.

5. He shall place before synod every motion that is made and seconded. He shall clearly state every question before a vote is taken.

6. In case he feels impelled to express himself on a pending question, he shall relinquish the chair to the vice president while so doing. He may speak, while holding the chair, to state matters of fact or to inform synod regarding points of order.

7. He shall have, and duly receive, the prerogative of declaring a motion or person out of order. In case his ruling is disputed, synod shall sustain or reject the ruling by majority vote.

8. When a vote is tie, the president may cast the deciding vote, if he has not already voted.

9. The president shall not preside in any matters that concern himself.

10. The president rules on all points of order. His ruling may be reversed by a majority of synod if any member is dissatisfied with the ruling of the chair and appeals to the floor.

11. The president shall close the synodical assembly with appropriate remarks and with prayer.

B. The Vice President

1. In the absence of the president the vice president shall assume all his duties and privileges.

2. The vice president shall render all possible assistance to the president as circumstances may require.

C. The First Clerk and Second Clerk

1. The first clerk shall each day call the roll immediately after the opening devotionals.

2. The clerk shall keep an exact record of the synodical proceedings. This record shall contain:
a. Opening and closing of sessions and roll call;
b. All main motions whether carried or lost; all appeals whether sustained or lost;
c. All reports of advisory committees and all decisions of synod;
d. The names of fraternal delegates and others who address synod;
e. Any document, any phase of discussion on the floor of synod, or any address that synod by a majority vote decides to insert into the minutes.

3. The record shall not contain:
   a. Any rejected motion except it be a main motion;
   b. Any motion that is withdrawn.

4. The minutes of each day will be examined and proofread by a small committee appointed by the officers of synod. The edited and proofread minutes will be posted in a public place where they can be read by delegates, and copies will be made available to delegates upon request.

5. The second clerk shall serve in the absence of the first clerk. He shall also render all possible assistance to the first clerk as circumstances may require.

III. DUTIES OF NONDELEGATED SYNODICAL FUNCTIONARIES

A. General Secretary (GS) (Position description as revised by the Board of Trustees of the Christian Reformed Church in North America, Dec. 1993)

1. Qualifications—The general secretary shall
   a. Be theologically trained;
   b. Be an ordained minister who has served as a pastor in at least one of the congregations of the denomination;
   c. Be well acquainted with the Christian Reformed denomination, its churches, ministers, lay leaders, and agencies both in Canada and in the United States;
   d. Possess a thorough knowledge of Church Order and be competent in interpreting the same;
   e. Have the ability to write lucidly and succinctly and be competent in public address;
   f. Possess administrative and organizational ability; and
   g. Be broad in spirit and able to move with ease and dignity in the North American ecclesiastical circles. He should be congenial and cooperative with representatives of other churches as well as members of the Christian Reformed denomination.

2. Organizational relationships—The general secretary shall
   a. Be an ex officio, nonvoting member of the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA and shall serve as its secretary. He shall also serve as the secretary of the U.S. corporate entity known as the CRCNA—Michigan corporation;
b. Be an ex officio, voting member of the Interchurch Relations Committee;
c. Have the privilege of the floor at synodical meetings in all matters relating to the exercise of this office and be present during all executive sessions of synod; and
d. Consult with the executive director of ministries and the financial coordinator in order to discharge assigned responsibilities.

3. Supervision—The general secretary shall work under the supervision of the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA and shall be ultimately responsible to synod.

4. Term—The general secretary shall be appointed by synod to a four-year term from a single nomination prepared by the board. Upon the completion of a four-year term the general secretary shall be eligible for additional four-year terms with the understanding that the general secretary’s continued employment is subject to favorable performance reviews by the board.

5. Duties and responsibilities—In performing and discharging the following specified duties and responsibilities, the general secretary shall have primary responsibilities for ecclesiastical matters, matters of polity and church practice, denominational and inter-church communications and relations. Matters pertaining to the agencies, boards, and committees, their programs, personnel, and finance shall be the primary responsibilities of the executive director of ministries.

To fulfill the primary responsibilities described above, the general secretary, as the executive secretary of synod, shall

a. Edit and have printed such official publications the synod or the board shall authorize.
b. Have synodical papers, including correspondence, surveys, reports, questionnaires, materials, minutes, etc., produced for synod and keep a file of synodical correspondence as well as an accurate record of the proceedings of synod and the board.
c. Have surveillance over denominational archives and historical documents on behalf of the board and be responsible for the right of access to such documents.
d. Inform all persons who have been appointed by synod to serve on committees and provide them with relevant data concerning their assignment.
e. Receive, either directly or through the office of the executive director of ministries, progress reports and/or minutes from all study and ad hoc committees appointed by synod.
f. Make physical arrangements for synod and shall function as operations office during the meetings of synod.
g. Serve synod with information and advice as requested regarding matters which come to the floor of synod.
h. Handle the general correspondence of the denomination.
i. When called upon, give advice and information regarding the provisions of Church Order and the decisions of synod. In matters of major proportions, this advice shall be given in consultation with the board.

j. On behalf of synod and the board, be a servant of the people, the churches, and the denominational agencies by responding to invitations, maintaining liaison, and visiting classes as time and circumstances allow or as the board may direct.

k. Represent the denomination or secure the proper representation of the denomination at civic and religious functions in keeping with its relationship to the governments of Canada and the United States. In all cases the general secretary shall act in accordance with the approved policies of the CRCNA. In cases where there is a question, the board should be consulted.

l. Act as an agent of the board or synod, preparing news or information bulletins for the news media which will inform the public of the work and witness of the church.

m. With the approval of the board, perform services which will represent the position and extend the witness of the CRCNA.

n. Perform such duties as synod or the board shall direct.

B. Executive Director of Ministries (EDM) (Position description as revised by the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA, Dec. 1993)

1. Qualifications—The executive director of ministries shall

a. Be a member of the Christian Reformed Church with a good knowledge of and commitment to the teaching of Scripture and the Reformed confessions and with a love for the mission of the church;

b. Have received appropriate educational training and prior senior management experience in which leadership and management skills have been demonstrated;

c. Possess a reputation for personal and professional integrity;

d. Demonstrate a high level of self-reliance and intuitive judgment in decision making;

e. Have the ability to plan and work collaboratively with everyone involved in denominational ministries;

f. Have demonstrated ability in written and oral communication;

g. Have the capacity to delegate authority;

h. Have demonstrated capacity for listening, integrating ideas, and setting future priorities;

i. Be able to exercise authority in an unobtrusive manner in order to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of denominational ministries and agencies;

j. Have the ability to develop rapport and trust with denominational employees in order to promote job satisfaction and a high level of achievement; and
k. Have the ability to understand and act on advice with respect to budgetary guidelines, financial reports, and fiscal priorities of denominational agencies.

2. Organizational relationships—The executive director of ministries shall

   a. Be an ex officio, nonvoting member of the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA.

   b. Have the privilege of the floor at synodical meetings in all matters relating to the exercise of this office and be present during all executive sessions of synod.

   c. Consult with the general secretary as necessary in the discharge of all responsibilities.

   d. Chair the meetings of the Ministries Coordinating Council.

3. Supervision—The executive director of ministries shall work under the supervision of the board and shall be ultimately responsible to synod.

4. Term—The executive director of ministries shall be appointed by synod to a four-year term from a single nomination prepared by the board. Upon the completion of a four-year term, the executive director of ministries shall be eligible for additional four-year terms with the understanding that the executive director's continued employment is subject to favorable performance reviews by the Board.

5. Duties and responsibilities—In performing and discharging the following specific duties and responsibilities, the executive director of ministries shall have primary responsibility for matters pertaining to the agencies, boards, and committees, their programs, personnel and finance. Ecclesiastical matters, matters of polity and church practice, denominational and inter-church communications and relations shall be the primary responsibility of the general secretary.

   To fulfill his primary responsibilities as described above, the executive director of ministries shall

   a. Be invested by the board with executive responsibility and a management role which shall enhance the unified ministry of the denomination through joint strategic planning and coordination of goals while recognizing the particular responsibilities and roles of each agency, committee, and institution.

   b. Develop and implement a strategic denominational ministries and agencies plan as a basis for managing the planning, coordinating, and integrating of the work of the mission agencies and service committees and for integrating the respective missions of Calvin College and Calvin Theological Seminary into the denominational ministry program.

   c. Require reports of all agencies, provide the board with analyses and reviews of programs, and make recommendations with respect to the distribution of the resources of the denomination.
d. Receive, and forward to the general secretary, progress reports and/or minutes from study and ad hoc committees appointed by synod.

e. Serve synod with information and advice, as requested, regarding matters which come to the floor of synod.

f. Handle correspondence pertaining to the discharge of the responsibilities of the executive director of ministries.

g. Manage the implementation of synodical policy decisions as these relate to all denominational ministries.

h. Call meetings of the Ministries Coordinating Council on a functional basis in various combinations of directors or official representatives of denominational agencies, committees, or institutions. The executive director of ministries shall ensure that all agencies, committees, or institutions affected by any discussion and/or decision are adequately represented and shall serve as the conflict-resolving agent.

i. Present an appropriately planned annual budget, incorporating individual budgets from each agency into the strategic plan for all ministries.

j. Submit an annual report to the board on work being done with the agencies, committees, and institutions based on individual goals and the strategic plan for the denomination.

k. Ordinarily attend the meetings of each agency, committee, and institution's board meeting as requested or at the executive director of ministries' own initiative.

l. Supervise the work of the director of finance and administration and receive advice in all matters involving finances.

m. Supervise the work of the personnel services director and the functions of the Personnel Services Office.

n. Supervise the personnel and functions of the Coordinated Services program.

o. On behalf of synod and the board, be a servant of the people, the churches, and the denominational agencies by responding to invitations, maintaining liaison, and visiting classes as time and circumstances allow or as the board may direct.

p. Perform such other duties as synod or the board shall direct.

C. Director of Finance and Administration

1. Organizational relationships—The director of finance and administration shall

   a. Work under the supervision of the executive director of ministries; and

   b. Give appropriate advice, as necessary, to the executive director of ministries, the general secretary, and the board and its committees.
2. Duties and responsibilities—The director of finance and administration shall

   a. Examine the budgets of denominational agencies, analyze their requests for quotas or financial support, and advise the executive director of ministries, the board, and its committees as necessary;

   b. Advise, counsel, and assist the denominational agencies and the executive director of ministries on matters such as size of reserves, fund management, financial reporting, and insurance, pension, and investment programs;

   c. Systematically collect relevant economic and financial data that will assist his office, the executive director of ministries, and the board and its committees in completing their respective work; and

   d. Perform such additional duties as may be assigned by synod, the board, the executive director of ministries, or the general secretary by way of the executive director of ministries.

3. Appointment—The director of finance and administration shall be appointed by the executive director of ministries with the approval of the board.

D. Seminary Professors

1. At each synod one-half of the seminary faculty shall be required to attend synod in an advisory capacity, with the exception of the president who shall be present at every synod.

2. The seminary advisors shall serve on the advisory committees of synod.

3. The seminary advisors shall be present at synod where they shall have the privilege of the floor for the purpose of advising synod on matters before it, subject to the accepted rules governing discussion. On important questions the chair, or any member of synod, may request their advice.

E. The Presidents of Calvin Seminary and of Calvin College

1. The president of Calvin Seminary shall advise synod in matters pertaining to the seminary.

2. The president of Calvin College shall advise synod in matters pertaining to Calvin College.

F. Ethnic Advisers

1. General considerations

   a. At each synod up to seven members from various ethnic communities in the CRC will serve as advisers to synod.

   b. An attempt will be made to appoint some advisers (up to three) who are able to serve two-year terms. This means that there will be some experienced advisers and some new advisers at each synod.

   c. Expenses for travel, lodging, and meals will be paid by synod.

   d. In keeping with the practice of some classes, remuneration (not to exceed $50 per day) will be available for an ethnic adviser who is financially disadvantaged through service to synod.
2. Qualification
   Ethnic advisers shall be members in good standing of the Christian Reformed Church with demonstrated leadership capabilities within their church communities.

3. Responsibilities
   a. Ethnic advisers shall serve on the advisory committees of synod.
      They shall have the privilege of the floor but not the right to vote.
   b. Ethnic advisers may appear before any advisory committee for the purpose of speaking to the committee about any matter referred to it.
   c. Ethnic advisers shall be present at plenary sessions of synod, where they shall have the privilege of the floor for the purpose of advising synod on matters before it, subject to the accepted rules governing discussion. On important questions the chair or any other members of synod may request their advice.

4. Appointments
   a. The Board of Trustees shall appoint the ethnic advisers each year at its March meeting. Nominations for the ethnic-advisers positions shall be gathered by the general secretary from suggestions offered by the churches, Race Relations, the ethnic-ministry directors of Home Missions, and the Multiethnic Conference Planning Committee.
   b. Ethnic advisers will be assigned their committee assignments by the Program Committee of synod.

G. Women Advisers

1. General considerations
   a. At each synod up to seven women from various regions in the CRC will serve as advisers to synod.
   b. An attempt will be made to appoint some advisers who are able to serve two-year terms. This means that there will be some experienced advisers and some new advisers at each synod.
   c. Expenses for travel, lodging, and meals will be paid by synod.
   d. In keeping with the practice of some classes, remuneration (not to exceed $50 per day) will be available for an adviser who incurs financial difficulty through service to synod.

2. Qualification
   Women advisers shall be members in good standing of the Christian Reformed Church with demonstrated leadership capabilities within their church communities.

3. Responsibilities
   a. Women advisers shall serve on the advisory committees of synod.
      They shall have the privilege of the floor but not the right to vote.
   b. Women advisers may appear before any advisory committee for the purpose of speaking to the committee about any matter referred to it.
c. Women advisers shall be present at plenary sessions of synod, where they shall have the privilege of the floor for the purpose of advising synod on matters before it, subject to the accepted rules governing discussion. On important questions, the chair or any other members of synod may request their advice.

4. Appointments
   a. The Board of Trustees shall appoint the women advisers each year at its March meeting. Nominations for this advisory position shall be gathered by the general secretary from suggestions offered by congregations and classes.
   b. Women advisers will be assigned their committee assignments by the program committee of synod.

IV. FRATERNAL DELEGATES AND REPORTERS OF CHURCH PERIODICALS

A. Fraternal delegates from churches in ecclesiastical fellowship shall be given the privilege of the floor, with the right to speak on matters before synod, and shall also be given the privilege of visiting meetings of advisory committees with the consent of the chairman of the committee.

(Acts of Synod 1975, p. 39)

B. The task of the reporters of Christian Reformed Church periodicals is to prepare reports of the happenings at synod for the church papers. Ordinarily the editors of these papers serve as reporters. In case these persons cannot serve, the president shall appoint a substitute, preferably not a member of synod, to do so.

V. MATTERS LEGALLY BEFORE SYNOD

A. Definitions
   1. Appeal
      An appeal is a procedure by which a decision or action of an assembly, board, agency, or committee is brought to the appropriate assembly for review in the light of existing policies and standards of the church.
   2. Communication
      A communication is a document presenting information, ideas, thoughts, opinions, complaints, or objections for consideration of the assemblies. A communication is distinguished from an overture in that an overture proposes specific action, and a communication does not. One type of communication is a protest, which expresses a complaint or objection to a decision or course of action followed by an assembly. An assembly is not required to take any action with respect to a communication.
   3. Overture
      An overture is a formal written proposal sent to an assembly requesting adoption or amendment of a policy or other legislative action by the assembly.
   4. Report
      A report is a document of a board, committee, or agency of an assembly indicating the work performed in response to assembly mandates and presenting recommendations for assembly action.

B. Following is a list of matters legally before synod.

1. Gravamina
   (For guidelines and regulations see Supplement, Article 5.)

2. Reports
   Reports of committees, including boards, appointed by previous synods.

3. Overtures and Communications to Synod
   a. Overtures and communications from a classis (whether originated by or adopted by a classis) or from an assembly organized according to Article 44-b of the Church Order.

   (Acts of Synod 1993, p. 574)

   b. Overtures and communications which have failed to gain adoption of council and/or classis but which an individual or council desires to submit for synod’s consideration:
      1) Overtures and communications from a council (whether originated by or adopted by council) which have been submitted to classis but not adopted by classis as its own.
      2) Overtures and communications of individuals which have been submitted to council and classis but which have not been adopted by either council or classis.
      3) Overtures and communications of individuals which have been submitted to council, adopted by council as its own, and submitted to classis by council, but which classis has not adopted as its own, which council has not submitted to synod, and which the initiating individual submits to synod.

4. Appeals in Which the Judicial Code Has Not Been Invoked
   (For procedural rules governing appeals, see Supplement, Article 30-a and 30-b, Part B.)

5. Appeals and Other Matters Properly Presented to Synod under the Provisions of the Judicial Code
   (See Supplement, Article 30-c for the Judicial Code.)

6. Application for Candidacy by Persons Not Recommended by the Board of Trustees (For the applicable procedural rules see Supplement, Article 30-b, Part A.)

7. Unprocessed Overtures or Communications Overtures or communications of individuals when they have been unable first to present them to council and classis. Such matters shall be received as information, provided that the general secretary of synod receives evidence that it was impossible for the communicant to present the matter to council and classis. Synod shall decide whether to act upon such matters received as information.
8. Communications

Assemblies and members should refrain from overtures, appeals, or communications which are repetitious or mere expressions of agreement or disagreement with matters already on the agenda of synod.

The general secretary is authorized to omit such items from the printed Agenda at his discretion. In such cases they shall merely be listed and accepted as communications. The senders shall be notified, and their materials shall be given to one of the advisory committees of synod to be received as information. Matters received as information will not ordinarily be mentioned in advisory-committee reports or the Acts of Synod.

9. Late Reports and Overtures

No study reports or recommendations from boards or standing committees which affect doctrinal or ethical statements or Church Order provisions received by the general secretary after September 15 or overtures received after March 15 shall be considered by synod, with the exception of overtures which deal with matters relevant to reports found in the printed Agenda. Any other overture or study report shall be considered only by special decision of synod on the basis of most weighty grounds.

10. The Printed Agenda and Study-Committee Reports

Study-committee reports shall be filed with the general secretary on or before September 15, and the general secretary shall distribute them to the churches no later than November 1. The Agenda shall be published not later than April 10. It shall include reports of standing, study, and special committees; overtures of classes, councils, or individuals; printed appeals; notices of nonprinted appeals; a list of communications; the name of the delegates; and pertinent announcements, with the understanding, however, that the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA, upon recommendation of the general secretary, may, for good cause, determine not to print an item or to print an abbreviated version. If an abbreviated version is printed, the entire item shall be forwarded to the appropriate advisory committee of synod. Items not printed shall be listed in the Agenda. All such material shall be in the hands of the general secretary not later than the following deadlines: September 15 for study committee reports; February 15 for the reports of standing committees and authorized representatives; ten days after conclusion of board meetings for board reports, but not later than March 1; and March 15 for overtures and appeals.

11. Supplementary Reports

The Back to God Hour Committee, the Board of Trustees of Calvin College, the Board of Trustees of Calvin Theological Seminary, the Board of Christian Reformed World Ministries, the Christian Reformed Board of Home Missions, the CRC Publications Board, the Interchurch Relations Committee, and the Synodical Interim Committee are permitted to file a supplementary report after March 15. These boards are expected to incorporate as much of their materials as possible in the printed Agenda, and matters for the supplementary reports must be held to the lowest possible minimum.
12. Other Matters
   All other matters may be considered which synod by a majority vote declares acceptable.

13. Nondenominational Organizations
   Nondenominational organizations receiving denominational support shall not ordinarily send speakers to synod. They may place displays at synod in designated areas.

VI. SYNODICAL COMMITTEES

A. Program Committee
   1. Members
      a. The Program Committee shall be composed of the officers of the previous synod and the general secretary of the Christian Reformed Church.
      b. In case of a vacancy on this committee, the Board of Trustees of the CRCNA shall appoint another member.
   2. The Appointment of Advisory Committees
      a. The Program Committee shall meet to make tentative preappointment of the various advisory committees prior to May 1.
      b. The Program Committee shall classify all the reports, overtures, and other communications into various groups, and advise which matters shall be laid directly before synod, and which shall be placed in the hands of advisory committees.
      c. In the event that a given delegate cannot attend synod, his alternate accepts the appointed assignment subject to revision by synod.
   3. The General Secretary Shall:
      a. Receive and tabulate the information sheet on the synodical delegates.
      b. Inform the delegates of their tentative assignments prior to May 15.
      c. Suggest to chairmen and delegates sources of background information relative to their assignment.
      d. Provide committee members with copies of background materials that are not readily available in previous Acts of Synod.
   4. Information on Delegates
      a. The stated clerk of every classis shall forward an information sheet on each synodical delegate to the general secretary of the Christian Reformed Church before March 15.
      b. These information sheets shall give answer to the following questions:
         For the minister delegates—
         1) To which previous synod(s) were you delegated, if any?
         2) At such synod(s), on which committee(s) did you serve?
3) Of what denominational boards, standing committees, or study committees are you or have you been a member?
4) Of what classical and/or local committees are you or have you been a member?
5) What are your areas of special interest in the work of synod?
6) What other data do you wish to submit that will aid in being assigned to an advisory committee of synod?

For the elder delegates—

1) through 6)—the same as for minister delegates.
7) What is your present occupation?
8) What have you been your previous occupations, if any?

5. Report of the Program Committee
   a. A written report of the Program Committee shall be mailed to all synodical delegates before May 25.
   b. This report shall be submitted for possible change and adoption as one of the initial items of synodical business.

B. The Advisory Committees

1. Status of these committees. They serve only for the duration of synod for the purpose of facilitating the work of synod. The advisory committees shall summarize matters before them and formulate recommendations with respect to these matters.

2. Organization and rules governing these committees:
   a. The person first named at the appointment of the committee shall be its chairman, and the one named second its reporter. An alternate chairperson and an alternate reporter will be appointed for each committee except the Judicial Code Committee.
   b. The chairman shall call the committee together, preside at its meetings, and see that it functions properly.
   c. Any member of synod may appear before any committee for the purpose of speaking to the committee about any matter referred to it.
   d. Committee reports shall be signed by the president and the reporter of the committee. If there is both a majority and minority report from the committee, each report must be signed by the members who favor it.

   (Note: Committee members may not speak publicly against their committee’s report unless they have submitted a minority report or have received permission from the chair of the committee to voice a minor disagreement.)
   e. The report of the majority shall be considered the report of the committee. After the committee’s report has been read and the motion to adopt has been made and seconded, the minority report shall be read and received as information.

   (Acts of Synod 1955, p. 58)
f. When the report of a committee has been previously distributed to synod in printed form, and the members of synod have had sufficient time to examine it, the first reading of the report is not required. In such case the reporter, when the president calls for his report, shall state that the report has been placed in the hands of synod in printed form and shall move that the report be accepted for consideration.

g. During the discussion the task of defending the report shall rest primarily upon the chairman and the reporter of the committee. These shall have precedence over every other speaker and shall not be limited as to the number and length of their speeches. Other committee members shall be subject to the accepted rules.

h. Recommendation of a committee may be recommitted whenever the work of synod can be thus expedited.

3. Recess of Synod for Study

   After the advisory committees have been appointed, synod may recess at specified times to enable these committees to perform their work.

C. Special Committees

   Besides the advisory committees, each synod should have:

   1. A Reception Committee, appointed by the president, which shall attend to the proper reception of fraternal delegates. It can advise synod, and synod must decide whether the representatives of various organizations should be received on the floor of synod.

   2. Special committees appointed by the president that serve during the synodical sessions.

D. Rules for Appointments to Boards and Committees

   1. All study committees shall be appointed by synod from a nomination made by the advisory committee which drafted the mandate, with the advice of the officers of synod. Delegates to synod will be given opportunity to suggest nominees to the advisory committee, but no new nominees will be accepted from the floor when a committee is recommended. The reporter of the advisory committee shall present the nominations on the floor of synod.

   2. All service committees shall be elected from nominations presented to synod. Committees in which vacancies must be filled shall present a slate of multiple nominees for election to membership for a first term, but may present a single nominee (an incumbent) for a second term.

   3. All secretaries of administrative standing committees as well as stated clerks of classes shall present their nominations to the general secretary immediately after the meeting at which nominations are made.

      (Acts of Synod 1979, p. 16)
4. Nominations of officers, functionaries, synodical deputies, boards, and standing committees shall be compiled through the office of the general secretary of synod.

(Acts of Synod 1979, p. 15)

5. The president of synod shall call on the general secretary to present all ballots, nominations, and other matters pertaining to appointments to the floor of synod, with the exception of the appointments of study committees (cf. point 1 above).

6. Rules for Eligibility and Term of Office

a. A person whose work is regulated by a board shall not be delegated to that particular board.

(Acts of Synod 1966, p. 87)

b. Synodical board and committee members who have served two three-year terms shall not be eligible for reelection.

c. The terms of office for representatives to our denominational boards and committees begin and terminate on July 1 of the year of appointment or termination.

d. Synod requests all classes, when nominating members of denominational boards or committees, to designate the term of the alternate to coincide with the term of the delegate. When an alternate replaces a delegate, or when a new delegate is nominated by a classis, the term of office shall begin the year a delegate assumes the office and shall terminate on July 1 three years later.

E. Rules for Committees Appointed by Previous Synods

These committees include those appointed to study and to report concerning matters that concern the whole denomination, to carry out certain resolutions of past synods, or to supervise the missionary, educational, journalistic, or benevolent activities of the denomination.

1. These committees have the right of elucidating and defending their reports on the floor of synod. The spokesmen of these committees shall have the same privileges during the discussion as the chairmen and reporters of the advisory committees.

2. With respect to the reports submitted to synod that are given into the hands of advisory committees, the recommendations of these synodical committees shall have precedence if the recommendations of the advisory committee are radically different.

F. Judicial Code Committee

1. Mandate: Appeals under the Judicial Code and such other matters requiring formal adjudication as synod shall undertake shall be referred to the Judicial Code Committee for consideration and advice.
2. Membership: The Judicial Code Committee shall be composed of nine members. Some of the members shall be ministers, and some shall be laypersons. Members of this committee may be, but need not be, delegates to the synod which the committee advises. There need be no regional representation, but a fair denominational representation is desirable.

3. Meetings: The Judicial Code Committee shall meet between synods as frequently as its business requires and normally shall convene a week before synod to prepare its recommendations.

4. Organization and rules governing this committee:
   a. The rules under VI, B, 2 apply with the following exceptions:
      Subparagraph a, as it applies to the Judicial Code Committee, shall read as follows:
      The committee shall select a chairperson and reporter from its membership.
      Subparagraph c shall not apply to the Judicial Code Committee.
      Subparagraph g, as it applies to the Judicial Code Committee, shall read as follows:
      During synodical discussions, the committee shall be represented by two spokespersons, who will have the privilege of the floor. These shall have precedence over every other speaker and shall not be limited as to the number and length of their speeches.
   b. Recommendations of the Judicial Code Committee shall be presented to synod in writing, shall be accompanied with grounds, and shall be openly discussed in plenary sessions of synod.

5. Synodical disposition of a judicial matter:
   a. Synod may dispose of a judicial matter in one of the following ways:
      1) By deciding the matter;
      2) By referring it to one of its committees for settlement or reconciliation;
      3) By remanding it with advice to the appropriate classis or consistory; or
      4) By conducting its own hearing.
   b. If synod conducts its own hearing, it shall follow the hearing procedure described in the Judicial Code.

6. Guidelines for synod's handling of recommendations from the Judicial Code Committee:
   a. The written report from the Judicial Code Committee to synod must set forth the significant facts as found by the Judicial Code Committee and adequate rationale for the committee's recommendation. This will generally require more than a brief statement of grounds for each recommendation. The Judicial Code Committee must give copies of its report and recommendation to the parties or their representatives as promptly as possible.
b. Synod should accept the findings of fact as presented by the Judicial Code Committee unless synod is persuaded that
   1) One or more parties were not given the opportunity by the hearing body to present important and relevant evidence, or
   2) After the Judicial Code Committee hearing new evidence which is important and relevant has been discovered by one or more parties.

c. If synod is persuaded of b, 1) or 2), it will decide either to
   1) Conduct its own Judicial Code hearing pursuant to the code rules, particularly Article 10, or
   2) Refer the matter back to the Judicial Code Committee for a rehearing before the initial hearing body.

d. Procedure for requesting rehearing under Guidelines b and c
   1) Any party who seeks to have synod conduct its own hearing or refer the matter back for a rehearing should submit such request in writing to the general secretary for distribution to the delegates of synod with a copy to the Judicial Code Committee. The writing should include a summary of the evidence which that party was not allowed to present at the evidentiary hearing and a short statement of how this opportunity was denied, or the statement should include a summary of the newly discovered evidence and an explanation of why it was not discovered earlier.
   2) All parties and the Judicial Code Committee representative should be allowed a very brief time to address synod on such request.

e. When recommendations involve interpretations and applications of governing principles, such as the Church Order, to the facts involved in the matter, synod should allow the parties and representatives of the Judicial Code Committee a reasonable amount of time set by the president of synod upon recommendation of the Judicial Code Committee to argue for or against such interpretations and applications.

(Acts of Synod 1993, pp. 500-01)

VII. JUDICIAL CODE OF RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

(See Church Order—Supplement, Article 30-c)

VIII. RULES OF ORDER

In our ecclesiastical assemblies, "ecclesiastical matters only shall be transacted and that in an ecclesiastical manner," as Article 28 of our Church Order stipulates. Our synods should therefore not be bound to observe detailed parliamentary rules. These may be proper in other gatherings, but they do not fit into the pattern of ecclesiastical assemblies which demand a large measure of freedom in discussion and action. However, a few general rules of order may serve a good purpose.
A. Closed Sessions of Synod

1. An executive session shall ordinarily mean a session of synod at which only the delegates and the advisors recognized in our Rules for Synodical Procedures (cf. Acts of Synod 1952, pp. 488-96) are present, namely, the seminary faculty advisors and the presidents of the college and seminary. However, if delegates from fully recognized churches in ecclesiastical fellowship are present they shall be extended the same courtesy as our own aforesaid advisors. Synod shall not exercise the right to go into executive session except in unusual or delicate situations. (Acts of Synod 1954, p. 14)

2. Strict Executive Sessions of Synod. Synod retains the right to go into strict executive session whenever in its judgment such a course is dictated by due regard for personal honor or the welfare of the church in very unusual situations. In such executive sessions only the delegates and the advisors of the seminary faculty shall be present. If the members of the seminary faculty are involved, they will absent themselves voluntarily or by synodical ruling, as will apply to any individual or group in the synod. (Acts of Synod 1956, p. 92)

B. A Main Motion

This is a motion that presents a certain subject to synod for its consideration or action.

1. A main motion is acceptable under the following conditions:
   a. If the mover has been recognized by the president;
   b. If it is seconded by a member of synod;
   c. If the motion has been recognized as acceptable by the president;
   d. If, at the request of the president, the motion has been presented in written form.

2. A main motion is not acceptable under the following conditions:
   a. If it conflicts with the Church Order or is contrary to Scripture as interpreted in our forms of unity;
   b. If another motion is before synod or if it conflicts with any decision already made by synod;
   c. If it is verbally or substantially the same as a motion already rejected by synod or if it interferes with the freedom of action by synod in a matter that was previously introduced but of which no disposal was made.

C. A Motion to Amend

This is a proposal to alter a main motion in language or in meaning before final action is taken on the motion.

1. A motion to amend may propose any of the following: to strike out, to insert, or to substitute certain words, phrases, sentences, or paragraphs.
2. A motion to amend an amendment is not a proper amendment if it nullifies the main motion or is not germane to it.

3. A motion to amend is permissible and is called a secondary motion. (Only one motion to amend a pending amendment is in order at one time.)

D. A Motion to Defer or Withhold Action

1. When synod deems it advisable, it may decide to table a motion temporarily. Tabling a motion implies that the assembly will resume consideration of the motion at a later hour or date.

2. If a matter has been deferred to a definite time and synod is at that time busy with an undecided question, synod need not be disturbed or interrupted in its work by the consideration of postponed matters, if this matter can wait until the question before synod has been disposed of.

3. If synod prefers not to take action regarding a matter, it may adopt a motion to withhold action.

E. Objection to a Ruling of the President

If any member is not satisfied with the ruling of the president, the matter is referred to synod for decision.

F. Right of Protest

It is the right of any member to protest against any decision of synod. Protests should be registered immediately, or during the session in which the matter concerned was acted upon. Protests must be registered individually and not in groups. Members may, if they feel the need, ask to have their negative vote recorded. Such requests must be made immediately after the vote is taken.

G. Call for a Division of the Question

At the request of one or more members of synod, a motion consisting of more than one part must be divided and voted upon separately, unless synod decides that this is not necessary.

H. Procedural Inquiry

Any member of synod may request advice of the president as to how to accomplish a purpose for which he does not know the proper means.

I. Motions to Bring Matters Once Decided Again Before Synod

If any member of synod for weighty reasons desires reconsideration of a matter once decided, the following course may be pursued:

1. A motion may be offered to reconsider the matter. The purpose of this motion is to propose a new discussion and a new vote. (The motion must be made by one who voted with the prevailing side.)

2. A motion may be made to rescind a previous decision. The purpose of this motion is to annul or reverse a previous decision. (Rescinding applies to decisions taken by the synod in session; it does not apply to decisions taken by previous synods. A succeeding synod may alter the stand of a previous synod; it may reach a conclusion which is at variance with a conclusion reached by an earlier synod. In such cases the most recent decision invalidates all previous decisions in conflict with it.)

J. Discussion

1. A speaker to obtain the floor must be recognized by the president.

2. If a member having the floor should fail to adhere to the point under discussion or should become unnecessarily lengthy in his remarks, the president shall call his attention to these faults and insist on pointedness and brevity.

3. If any member has spoken twice on a pending issue, others who have not yet spoken twice shall ordinarily be given priority by the president.

4. The officers of synod may assign a time limit for debate on issues they think will be debated longer than one hour. This time limit will be announced prior to the presentation of the report. The delegates may vote to extend debate for half-hour intervals when the time limit has been reached.

5. When the president believes that a motion under consideration has been debated sufficiently, he may propose cessation of debate. If a majority of synod sustains this proposal, discussion shall cease and the vote shall be taken.

6. Any member of synod, when he deems a matter to have been debated sufficiently, may move to close the discussion. Those who call the question shall be recognized in the same manner as others who gain the floor of synod, i.e., by taking their turn on the list of those who have requested the privilege of the floor. The vote on the motion to cease debate shall be taken at once. Should a majority be in favor of ceasing debate, the vote on the matter before synod shall be taken only after those who had previously requested the floor have been recognized.

K. Voting

The various methods of voting are:

1. By voice (Yes or No). This is a frequent method of voting.

2. By electronic balloting.
   a. Whenever the president is unable to determine from the yes and no votes which opinion has prevailed, or if the president’s judgment is questioned by any member of synod, the president shall request the delegates to vote electronically. The electronic votes shall be recorded by the first and second clerks.
   b. This method may be used for any vote, but it is advisable to use electronic balloting in delicate cases of discipline and other matters of critical nature and of great importance.

L. These Rules for Synodical Procedure may be suspended, amended, revised, or abrogated by a majority vote of synod.
PUBLIC DECLARATION OF AGREEMENT WITH THE FORMS OF UNITY

Of all the marks by which the true church distinguishes itself from all human societies, the confession of the truth must be mentioned in the first place. The Savior therefore said, John 8:31, “If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples.” And again, “Every one who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven,” Matthew 10:32. In obedience to the Lord and for the instruction of all, the assembly of elders, delegated by the congregations of the Christian Reformed Church, deem it proper that they publicly declare what the confession is of the church here mentioned and of every one of its churches.

All the congregations of this church believe all the books of the Old and of the New Testaments to be the Word of God, and confess as the true expression of their faith the Thirty-Seven Articles of the Confession of the Netherlands, formulated by the Synod of 1618-19, and also the Heidelberg Catechism, and the Canons of the Synod of Dort against the Remonstrants.

In conformity with the belief of all these congregations, we, as members of their synod, declare that from the heart we feel and believe that all articles and expressions of doctrine, contained in the three above-named confessions, jointly called the three formulas of unity, in all respects agree with the Word of God, whence we reject all doctrines repugnant thereto; that we desire to conform all our actions to them, agreeably to the accepted Church Order, and desire to receive into our church communion everyone that agrees to our confession.

May the King of the church work this faith in the hearts of many and increase it, and may those that have received a like precious faith with us show the grace shown them in fellowship to the glory of him who prayed that all his own be one in him.
